Congressman Powell Calls on Negroes to Seek 'Audacious' Power in Civil Rights Fight

Washington, D.C. — U.S. Representative Adam Clayton Powell today suggested that the nation's Negroes abandon the conference table in their quest for equality and seek instead a position of "audacious power" from which they can demand their rights.

The Harlem Congressman's remarks came during a baccalaureate address at Howard University. On hand for the occasion was a crowd of some 4,000, including nearly 1,000 seniors who graduated during the school's 98th annual commencement June 3.

Deception

Declaring that civil rights has been a "grand deception," Powell said that what is needed is the implementation of a man's human rights.

"To demand these God-given human rights is to seek black power — what I call audacious power — the power to build black institutions of splendid achievement," he said.

Powell said that the Negro must be able to deal from a position of strength.

"Why sit down at the bargaining table with the white man when you have nothing with which to bargain," he asked. "Why permit social workers and various Leagues and Associations to represent us when they are representing the decadent white power structure which pays their salaries, their rent and tells them what to say."

1966 Summer Rights Projects To Concentrate on Louisiana

New York — "We want to break the back of all 'deliberate speed' still existing in pockets of the South."

This is why, according to Miss Althea T. L. Simmons, Secretary for Training, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will focus its 1966 Summer Project in Louisiana. The purpose is to help Negro citizens "open the gates of opportunity," by teaching them what they can do for themselves.

Main Thrusts

The main thrusts of the five-week crash project (July 31 through Sept. 1) will be school desegregation, tutorial projects, political education and a get-out-the-vote drive and systematic checks for compliance with the anti-discrimination provisions of Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

Miss Simmons will serve as project director with headquarters in New Orleans. Administrative offices will be established in each of the state's other Congressional Districts in the cities of Shreveport, Monroe, Alexandria, Lake Charles, Lafayette, Baton Rouge and Gretna.

200 Volunteers

At present, with the cooperation of the NAACP's state and regional conferences, branches, youth councils and college chapters, 200 volunteers are being recruited for participation in the project. Applications are coming into the National Office from teachers, lawyers, social workers, welfare workers, students, clergymen, and other Americans concerned with making equal opportunity more of a reality for all of our citizens. Cooperating organizations are arranging to release staff members to serve as volunteers with the project.

Local Committees

Simultaneously, NAACP branches in Louisiana are lining up local sponsoring committees, and host families who will share their homes with the volunteers. This is part of the "inside-outside" approach with an outside volunteer being assigned as a teammate to at least one local person. The purpose of this approach is to assure that the project will continue after the volunteers leave, and to develop a truly indigenous leadership.

Crucial Problem

"We chose Louisiana," Miss Simmons says, "partially because of its crucial problem in education. It's been 12 years since the Supreme Court ruling on segregated schools, and yet we find that in Louisiana schools only four or five school grades have any taken representation of Negro children.

"Not only do we hope to get local officials to agree to make it possible for more Negro children to attend previously all-white schools, but we plan to help the parents learn how to process the proper papers to gain their children's admittance."

Betty J. Furgerson Running for Iowa House from Waterloo

Waterloo — Miss Betty Jean Furgerson, 600 Cottage St., a district advisor with Conestoga Council of Girl Scouts, said Thursday she would seek the Democratic party's nomination to one of Black Hawk county's five seats in the Iowa House of Representatives.

She said that she has resigned from her position with the Girl Scouts effective June 30 in order to campaign for the office.

Miss Furgerson was born in Waterloo and is a life-long resident of the community. She attended East High school, graduating in 1945. She attended Talladega College, Talladega, Ala., and the State University of Iowa. She then worked for the Central Intelligence Agency in Washington, D.C., nearly two years, returning to Waterloo in 1952.

Received SCI Degree

While attending State College of Iowa, where she received a B.A. degree in 1954, she was employed by the Waterloo Recreation Commission and the YWCA.

She has worked for the Conestoga Council of Girl Scouts for the last eight years.

Memberships

She is a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church, a member of the Black Hawk County Branch, NAACP; the Citizen's Committee of East Waterloo, Inc.; Black Hawk County Council of Social Services, League of Women Voters and the United World Federalists.

Miss Furgerson lives with her mother, Mrs. Lily Furgerson. Other members of the family include Mrs. Warren Nash and Miss Rebecca S. Furgerson, both of Waterloo; Mrs. Percy Harris, Cedar Rapids, and a brother, Lee B. Furgerson Jr., of Des Moines.

FOR MORAL COURAGE—In behalf of her crusading husband, Mrs. Martin Luther King, Jr., accepts the first Margaret Sanger Award in Human Rights from Cass Canfield, leader of Planned Parenthood. The award, the work of American sculptor Stanley Bleifield, was presented with a check for $1,000 before an audience of more than a thousand at the recent National Conference on Family Planning in Washington, D.C. An accompanying citation likened Dr. King's dedication to the advancement of social justice and human dignity to Mrs. Sanger's valor in the face of persecution when she pioneered for the emancipation of women through birth control.

Urges Federal Registrars and Troops Be Sent to All Miss.

Louisville, Ky. — The Rev. Fred L. Shuttlesworth, civil-rights leader, has asked President Johnson to send federal voting registrars, and troops if necessary, to every county in Mississippi. Such registrars are already stationed in a number of the counties.

Shuttlesworth made the request in a message to Johnson just before leaving to join other civil-rights leaders in the march to Jackson in the wake of the shooting of James Meredith.

Moral Atonement

The President was urged "to register

all Negroes eligible to vote as a moral atonement for the past sins of Mississippi and the nation. Such immediate registration would also deter further injustice."

Shuttlesworth is president of the Southern Conference Education Fund (SCEF), a Louisville-based civil-rights organization which works throughout the South to enlist whites in the freedom movement.

Obligation

He is also secretary of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), headed by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. SEE PAGE TWO

Fayette, Miss., Yields To 19 NAACP Demands Wins Reinstatement For Negro Teachers

Fayette, Miss. — A six-month NAACP-sponsored selective buying campaign that severely hurt business has ended with a joint statement of agreement issued by Charles Evers, state field director for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and Mayor R. J. Allen.

19 Demands

The NAACP's local branch in Jefferson County, headed by Fred Allen, had submitted a list of 19 demands to the Mayor before initiating the protest. All of the demands have been met, Mr. Evers reported at a news conference here, June 8. Last December, the NAACP won a similar victory in nearby Natchez.

Lists

The granted demands include the addition of qualified Negroes to the city police force and county sheriff's department, a program for desegregation of public schools, employment of Negroes in front-line office positions, desegregation of courtrooms and other publicly-owned facilities, and selection of Negroes for jury duty. Also a commitment to improve roads, streets and lighting in Negro neighborhoods.

Stores

At this time, the stores in Fayette have been fully desegregated and Negroes are employed in many establishments.

Speaking for Fayette, Mayor R. J. Allen says, "What we need now is a little bit of forgiveness on each side. I would like to see Jefferson County as a place where the white and colored work together. Let's go forward as friends."

The court, acting on an appeal taken by the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, reversed a Federal District Court decision. The Fund acted in behalf of the teachers and the North Carolina Teachers Association.

Evidence

The District Court had dismissed the case on grounds that there was insufficient evidence to prove that the teachers were dismissed for racial reasons.

However, the appellate court found that the dismissed teachers had been forced to compete for a chance to retain their jobs, while white teachers were routinely re-employed.

Eight Negro teachers who had been employed before the schools were desegregated kept their jobs.

Demonstrates at Offices, Mills in Pittsburgh, Pa., Birmingham, Ala., Plants

New York — Protesting discriminatory policies of the United States Steel Corporation in its southern plants, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has launched a series of demonstrations at the offices and mills of the company, beginning in Pittsburgh and Birmingham, June 6.

Led Pickets

A pre-demonstration rally in Pittsburgh on Sunday, June 5, was addressed by NAACP Executive Director Roy Wilkins and other NAACP leaders.

The following day, Herbert Hill, NAACP labor program director, led a picket line of about 150 persons in front of the steel corporation's headquarters in downtown Pittsburgh. Meanwhile, in Alabama, Dr. John W. Nixon, president of the state NAACP, led the picketing of a U.S. Steel mill in Fairfield, a Birmingham suburb.

The corporation, Hill charged, "maintains segregated facilities and racially separate seniority lines of promotion. These discriminatory practices doom Negro workers to low-paid, menial, non-skilled jobs, denying them the opportunity to enter into the higher-paid skilled and craft jobs."

March

NAACP demonstrators in Alabama began their march from Miles College in Birmingham to the Ku Klux Klan stronghold of suburban Fairfield to dramatize their charges against U.S. Steel's employment practices.

In addition to the policies cited by Hill, the NAACP's Alabama chapter reports that when men are "laid off" the majority of them are Negroes, even if it means giving the white man a "Negro job" during the lay-off period. Further, Dr. Nixon said that Negroes transferred from one job to another, without consultation, automatically lose their seniority.

Spokesman

A spokesman for the United Steelworkers of America urged U.S. Steel to eliminate job discrimination "wherever it exists." Joseph P. Molony, USWA vice president, told delegates attending a district annual conference, "Our friends of the NAACP are picketing the U.S. Steel Corporation . . . claiming there are separate lines of progression in plants of this corporation and segregated facilities. There is enough merit to these charges to cause our union great distress. Let us hope that U.S. Steel will eliminate discrimination wherever it exists."

Speaking for United States Steel, Executive Vice President R. Conrad Cooper denied that any line of promotion is closed to any person and claimed that more than 1,000 Negro employees in the Birmingham area have been promoted to higher-paying jobs.

Shooting of Meredith Sparks Rights Bill Drive--Wilkins

New York — The shooting of James Meredith on a Mississippi highway gives added impetus to the drive for enactment of the pending civil rights bill, one section of which is designed to protect civil rights workers against racial violence, Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said here Tuesday, June 7, upon learning of the attempted assassination.

Shock

Informed of the tragedy when he stepped off a plane in New York City, Wilkins expressed "shock." Later that night he issued the following statement: "The Meredith shooting is one more compelling indication that in sections of the South the civil rights problem is still simply one of rooting out savagery. We cannot wait until the assassins learn better. We cannot wait for action by the southern white elements that decry violence and killing. They have had their chance for decades and they have failed. Their failure underscores the urgency for enactment of the pending civil rights bill designed, among other things, to see that those who commit racial violence are brought to justice and punished for their foul deeds.

We in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People are mobilizing all of our resources behind the drive to secure passage of this bill."

Awtry Will Seek State Treasurer Post

Lake City, Iowa—Iowa tax money does "double duty" when deposited in Iowa banks and should continue to be invested there, according to Dale H. Awtry, Republican candidate for State Treasurer.

AWTRY

Awtry, 47, of Lake City, has announced that he will seek the Republican nomination for State Treasurer in the Sept. 6 primary election.

"In the past few months the threat of investing Iowa tax money outside the state has been raised periodically by the incumbent State Treasurer," Awtry said.

"The object would be to realize a slightly higher interest rate, but this would be a false profit because it is only half the story."

"Iowa banks pay substantial interest, and the presence of the money here has a more important significance: It permits Iowa banks to stimulate the Iowa economy through loans to businesses, farmers and other enterprising Iowans."

HEALTH FOR ALL

"A PIECE OF THE ACTION"

Maybe you don't know your own strength, but when you sent in that contribution to the Christmas Seal campaign you became a partner in an enterprise of extraordinary size and scope.

You gave your backing to an operation for the protection of health — not just yours but your family's, your neighbor's, the community's, everybody's.

Helps

What does your Christmas Seal contribution do? Among other things it helps efforts to locate the quarter of a million folks who each year get exposed to active cases of tuberculosis. Why locate these newly exposed ones? To see that they are tuberculin tested and, if necessary, that medical measures are taken to prevent the development of active disease.

Efforts

Another slice of your Christmas Seal money goes into public health activity, which includes efforts to stimulate the work of official health departments in fighting TB. Still another segment helps support medical education and research to improve medicine's effectiveness against the disease. And a good-sized chunk goes to help a year-round program of public education in how to lick the TB germ by really trying.

Mileage

Enough? There's more. Your contribution to the Christmas Seal Campaign also helps support an increasing program of activities to fight Respiratory Diseases other than TB.

That's a lot of mileage per dollar for a contribution to health-supporting effort. If you didn't get around to declaring yourself in on it during the Christmas Seal Campaign, it isn't too late. Mail your contribution to your County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

3 at Evangel College

Springfield, Mo. — Only three American Negroes and one African enrolled at Evangel College, an integrated four-year institution, this year. Total fall enrollment was 761.

President J. Robert Ashcroft says the college, founded in 1955, has never denied admission to qualified applicants on racial grounds. "We are very proud of our Negro students, and would welcome a student body more representative of the population of the U.S.," he declared.

The college has some Economic Opportunity grant funds for which no student has applied, President Ashcroft noted.

Screen for Nursery

A FOLDING screen is mighty handy to have in the nursery, where it can be used to keep drafts off the crib and as a shield against light, noise and activity.

Like the one in the illustration, the screen may be made in the home workshop and neatly decorated by means of decalcomanias or stencils. Panels without the nursery characters may be finished with blackboard slating material, so the pre-school child will have a place to draw.

Materials for this simple device may be obtained in any lumber yard—1 by 2-inch lumber for the framing and crossbars, Masonite

Tempered Duolux, a durable hardboard that's smooth on both sides, and the hardware. The panels, after being cut to size, are inserted in grooves which have been cut in the framing with a power saw.

The stick-on pictures are available at paint and hardware stores, which are sources also for stencils used in hand-painted work. Major paint companies make slate surfacing material, which simply is brushed on the Masonite Duolux with a brush after the panel has been prepared with two coats of clear sealer.

Milady's Complexion...

A rosy face is not always an index of good health! Certain types of kidney, liver and heart diseases produce a lovely florid color in the early stages of the disease—Sometimes a glowing skin texture can be a definite sign of illness...

But since the world began, man has always admired and has taken great pride in his lady's complexion. This feeling can best be described by this 16th Century poem:

"One asked me where the roses grow?"

I bade him not go seek;
But forthwith bade my lady show
A bud in either cheek."

Ladies! Woman's dream for a radiantly alive complexion is as near to you as WILLIAMS Beauty-Aids Dept. Visit us and see all that's new in this line... Let's make it a date this week at WILLIAMS PHARMACY, 1103 University Ave., Phone 243-1253.

Cake of the Month

Everybody has his favorite father. And every father's favorite is this deep, dark, luscious three-layered devil's food cake. Decorated to win the heart of Dad on his day, this cake is simple enough for daughter or son to make with the new instant cake mix now on the grocer's shelves.

Father's Devil's Food Cake
1 package Instant Swans Down Devil's Food Mix
1 cup plus 2 tablespoons water
2 eggs, unbeaten
Sea Foam Frosting

Empty contents of package into bowl. Add water and eggs. Beat 3 minutes until smooth and creamy. Pour batter into three round 8-inch layer pans, which have been lined on bottoms with paper. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) about 30 minutes. Cool layers.

Prepare Sea Foam Frosting. Spread over tops and sides of layers.

To decorate, prepare confectioners' sugar frosting by mixing together a small amount of sifted confectioners' sugar with milk; tint, if desired. Place in pastry tube; outline figures on cake as illustrated.

Sea Foam Frosting
2 egg whites, unbeaten
1½ cups firmly packed brown sugar
Dash of salt
½ cup water
1 teaspoon vanilla

Combine egg whites, sugar, salt, and water in top of double boiler. Beat with sturdy egg beater or electric beater 1 minute until thoroughly mixed. Then place over boiling water and beat constantly with egg beater (or at high speed of electric beater) 7 minutes, or until frosting will stand in stiff peaks. (Stir frosting up from bottom and sides of pan occasionally with rubber scraper, spatula, or spoon.) Remove from boiling water. Add vanilla and beat 1 minute, or until thick enough to spread.

Note: For a smoother frosting, wipe down sides of pan with a fork wrapped in a damp cloth before and during cooking and beating, to prevent crystallization.

MIX TRICKS: A package of instant devil's food mix adapts well to various pan sizes. Try 3 eight-inch layer pans as suggested above for a special party cake. For other occasions, use 2 round layer pans, a nine-inch square pan, a 18x9x2-inch oblong pan or 24 medium cupcake pans, baking according to package directions.

White House Reception Is Exciting for Rapids Girl

Washington — Deborah Ann Gibson of Cedar Rapids was so excited she couldn't remember what President and Mrs. Johnson served her and the other 1966 Presidential Scholars.

But the 17-year-old Iowan did know that the Chief Executive winked at her with "a knowing sort of wink" when she came down the receiving line at the White House reception last week honoring her and 120 other winners of National Merit Scholarships.

"I said, 'It's a pleasure to meet you, Mr. President,'" she recalled. "I guess I was just smiling and happy and so he winked."

"Royal Treatment"

Shaking hands with the President was the highlight of the visit here for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith, 1339 Tenth street NW. It was exciting, too, to meet Mrs. Johnson and the Johnson daughters, Lynda and Luci.

The most wondrous thing, however, was "the final realization I was really at the White House and that I was getting the royal treatment."

Deborah said all of it was enjoyable — from the reception, buffet supper to the entertainment emceed by comic Bill Dana and featuring songs from "Man of La Mancha" by Richard Kiley star of that Drama Critics award-winning musical.

A question about the menu, though, caused Deborah to turn to a friend and ask, "What DID we have for dinner — roast beef?" Then she suddenly remembered it was chicken cacciatore and rice, a salad, rolls and a fruit dessert.

Met Many Dignitaries

For Deborah probably the most challenging aspect was to learn and remember the names of some of her fellow diners.

Guests included leaders in most fields of the arts, sciences and industry as well as government, giving the scholars an opportunity to meet and talk with men and women who have succeeded in the careers the scholars themselves may choose.

Solicitor General Thurgood Marshall and Sargeant Shriver, former Peace Corps chief and new head of the anti-poverty program, were just two of the luminaries Deborah mentioned meeting.

The encounter with Shriver was particularly opportune since Deborah was accompanied by her brother, Ronald, who plans to enter the Peace Corps for assignment to Brazil after he graduates from DePaul university next year.

Deborah, who was graduated from Jefferson high school Thursday, will enter Mt. Holyoke college South Hadley, Mass., this fall.

If there's going to be a wedding at your house or if you want to delight one of your friends who's going to be married, here's an idea: make a bride's cake of white cake mix.

It's a lovely cake, quick, easy and beautiful. And inexpensive, too. Just figure it out for yourself—three packages of Instant Cake Mix, three and a half cups of milk, and sugar and egg whites for frosting. It cuts into pieces enough for 25 or 30 people, downy light and delicious, a bride-cake masterpiece.

After you've frosted the cake smoothly, you can decorate it with flutings and curls put on with a pastry tube, and for extra trimming add a few little birds or flowers sold for cake decorating. Practice with the pastry tube by squirting a sample of your fluting on a piece of waxed paper. You can scrape up the practice frosting and put it back in the tube to use again, so no waste is involved in perfecting your technique.

WEDDING CAKE
(Two-tiered oblong cake for 25 to 30 people)

Preparations. Line 13x9x2-inch pan and 9x9x2-inch pan or bottom with paper. Start oven for moderate heat (350°F.).

3 packages Swans Down Instant Cake Mix
3 1/2 cups milk

Combine contents of two packages Swans Down Instant Cake Mix in mixing bowl. Add 1 cup milk. Blend, then beat 2 minutes. Add 1 1/2 cups milk. Blend, then beat 1 minute longer.

Pour batter into prepared 13x9x2-inch pan. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 55 minutes, or until done. Remove from oven and increase oven heat to 375°F. Cool cake in pan 10 minutes, then turn out on cake rack to finish cooling.

Place contents of third package of Swans Down Instant Cake Mix in mixing bowl. Add 1/2 cup milk. Blend, then beat 2 minutes. Add 1/2 cup milk. Blend, then beat 1 minute longer.

Pour batter into prepared 9x9x2-inch pan. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) 30 minutes, or until done. Cool.

Frosting. Prepare seven-minute frosting, using 2 egg whites. Then place the large cake on an attractive oblong serving plate or tray. Spread top and sides of cake with frosting. Trim the 9x9x2-inch cake to measure 9x7x2-inches by cutting a 1-inch slice from opposite sides of the cake. Place on top of the frosted layer, centering evenly. Prepare another batch of seven-minute frosting and spread on top and sides of small cake, reserving some for decorating. With a knife, go over entire cake, making a smooth flat surface for decorating.

Decorating. Using a pastry bag or decorating tube, decorate frosted cake as desired with the reserved frosting. Place wedding veil or other suitable ornament in center of top layer, if desired.

Hope you enjoyed the anniversary edition. There are still extra copies if you desire to purchase some to send to out-of-town relatives. Best of all, would be to get a subscription, so you will be assured of having it come direct to your door via the U.S. postman. There would be no need to go out in bad weather or whatnot, to secure a copy weekly.

We talked to Mrs. William Pickett of 1221 9th street who is in charge of getting mothers to volunteer to register youngsters for the Good Park swimming classes sponsored annually by the Red Cross. She reported that the number of likely student swimmers may be lower due to various federal programs and classes in Des Moines schools this summer.

We recall last summer that Cecil Brewton, director of the swimming program, said that each year a lesser number of youngsters enroll in the program at Good's which threatened to cause its abandonment. He noted that the Good Park swimming pool is most ideal for learners because of its shallow end.

When you think that people are becoming so water conscious with boating and other water sports, there is an urgent need for everyone to learn early how to swim. The confidence that knowing how to swim gives a person, would more than pay for the effort and time spent learning correctly. And remember the lessons are free.

There is an adage in life which says, "The best things in life are free." This is one example.

Recently the two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Colston, of 3117 Elm Drive were among pupils of Miss Mary Lou Holmes presented in a dance recital before the Des Moines Women's Club at the Hoyt Sherman place. Marettta Colston appeared in the number "Tea for Two," and her sister, Rhonda, appeared in "Inka Dinka Doo."

Last week we announced our plans to quit this newspaper primarily for health reasons. Earlier this week a note came from one of our readers in Oskaloosa, Iowa, who wrote: "I shall surely miss your column in the Bystander. It was always interesting and occasionally would see a familiar name."

"The caricature of yourself at the top is cute and original."

BOB LINDBERG CARRIED HIS RESPONSIBILITY

The Des Moines YMCA has had some good men. Some have not made the word "Christian" part of their administration partly because of their pre-conceived notions and partly because the board tolerated it.

Fortunately, the Y took a turn for the better when it selected Bob Lindberg as its general secretary; better for getting a man who practices what YMCA stands for, better because he proved a good leader to bring the physical plant in keeping with what Des Moines deserved.

The magnificent building constructed during his administration is a testament of Bob Lindberg's leadership marshalling men and money at the same time so as to produce lasting results.

The Bystander has observed Lindberg's work over the years with particular reference to the inclusion of all races and creeds in his work. There has been nothing to complain about at the main building.

His successor follows the right man in the right place. It is hoped that he takes up the mantle and never let it drop beneath what he found in Des Moines.

CRITICISM OF POLICE AIMED AT INDIVIDUALS

Last week, Gov. Hughes took a verbal blast at those civil rights people who charge police brutality as a complaint of unequal treatment against Negroes.

The governor goes on to extol the sacrifices officers make, their long hours, lack of good pay and the constant threat of danger to their person.

The trouble with the governor is that he assumes that all policemen are good officers and that in the complaint of police brutality, civil rights people mean all officers. Neither is the truth.

Gov. Hughes never lived in a big city, nor in a city where the Negro population was of any consequence. Most of this brutality occurs behind bars and not out in the open. Some do, as did Sheriff Clark in Alabama. Instances have occurred in Des Moines from time to time, some resulting in law suits against officers in which judgments were secured; some with short suspension from duty.

Civil rights advocates do not point their finger at all policemen but at those who use their authority to abuse people for no other reason than that they are black or are engaged in work with which they disagree.

THE NAACP HAS DELIVERED. HOW ABOUT YOU?

The Des Moines Branch NAACP is in the last stages of its drive for memberships before the annual convention in Los Angeles next month.

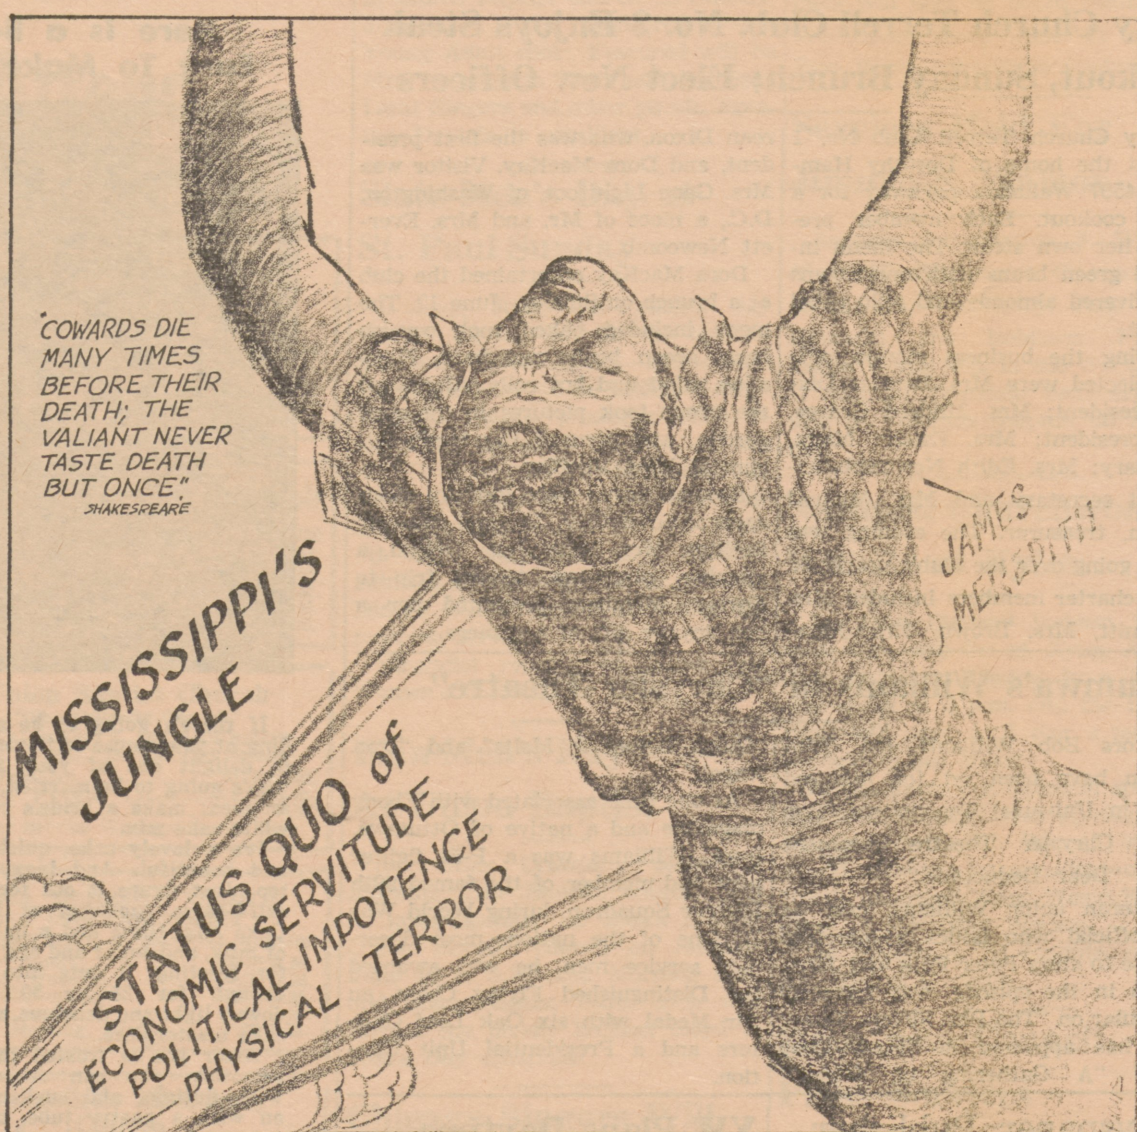

In the past few years, the branch has found it difficult to meet its quota. Too many people, who should know better, are too willing to let the other fellow carry their responsibility.

It is only recently that a prominent Negro citizen questioned "what has the NAACP done?" This question is ridiculous. The record has been stated over and over again. Anyone can look around and observe that without bombastic campaigns the NAACP has met every challenge to the full enjoyment of civil rights by being a part in securing complete enjoyment of public accommodations teachers in the public schools defeat of derogatory legislation better job opportunities in industry, insurance and government.

justice in the courts fuller participation in city, county and state government.

The enjoyment of all these rights has not always been the rule in Des Moines. It has come because the NAACP, often in cooperation with other groups, has taken up the issues when rights were denied because of race, creed or color, provided the leadership, legal talent and money to get the job done.

An organization with such a record deserves the support of Des Moines citizens, particularly those for whom the fights have been successfully made; for an organization whose influence and work have helped to make Iowa a better place in which to live.

STUDENTS CAN DO, IF THEY WILL

Last week the Bystander included the pictures of most Negro students who graduated from high school.

Anyone who did not read the short history of these youngsters should do so and if they have children see that they read it.

Many of these youngsters have done a fine job, some have won high honors, all have participated in one or more activity in their schools.

What they have done, others can do. They must be encouraged to realize it is they upon whom we depend for future leadership and not the irresponsible ruffian whose conduct they must ignore.

Today I am determined to do things I should do. I firmly determine to stop doing the things I should not do.

Today I begin by doing, and not wasting my time. In one week I will be miles beyond the person I am today.

GOD BLESS YOUR BIRTHDAY

God bless your birthday! Let it be As milestone in eternity Marking your passage onto earth, Your private miracle of birth. Your birthday is devoted to A very happy happening — you!

This is a day to turn your heart to Your fondest dreams, a day to start To make them come true, a day to grow on Unfolding; oh, a day to grow on! Not a stopping place, but a day to begin — A day to chart high conquest in!

A birthday is a day to see Yourself as a child of eternity On an adventure always new. God bless your birthday! God bless you!

—James Dillet Freeman

Reflected

You don't have to tell how you live each day. You don't have to say if you work or you play, A tried, true barometer serves in the place: However you live, it will show in your face.

The faults, the deceit that you bear in your heart Will not stay inside where they first got a start, For sinew and blood are a thin veil of lace, What you wear in your heart, you wear in your face.

If your life is unselfish, if for others you live,

For not what you get, but how much you can give, If you live close to God in His infinite grace You don't have to tell it, it shows in your face.

—Anon.

Just Tell Him Now

"If with pleasure you are viewing any work a man is doing, If you like him or you love him, tell him now;

Don't withhold your approbation till the parson makes the oration, And he lies with snowing lilies o'er his brow;

For no matter how you shout it, he won't really care about it, He won't know how many teardrops you have shed.

If you think some praise is due him, Now's the time to slip it to him, For he cannot read his tombstone when he's dead.

"More than fame and more than money, Is the comment, kind and sunny, And the hearty, warm approval of a friend;

For it gives to life a savor, makes you richer, stronger, braver Gives you heart and hope and courage to the end. If he earns your praise, bestow it; If you like him, let him know it; Let the word of true encouragement be said.

Do not wait till life is over and he's underneath the clover, For he cannot read his tombstone when he's dead."

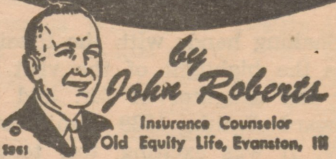

—"Daddy" Silverwood, Los Angeles (1924)

Laugh Lines

A little girl was telling about her stay at summer camp.

"The first day I didn't have hardly any friends," she said. "The second day I had a few friends. The third day I had friends and enemies."

Family Finances

You can budget without being a bookkeeper. All that is needed is a little common sense and nine envelopes (marked Food, Clothing, Rent, Operating Expenses, Health, Savings — Insurance, Educational and Recreation, Church and/or Charity, and Miscellaneous).

On payday put the amount you think you need to cover each of these expenses in the proper envelope. Keep this up for several paydays, trying to use the money in each envelope wisely.

At the end of a month or so, examine your "budget." You'll probably find that you have money left over in some envelopes, while others are empty.

This will tell you where you need more or can get along with less or where you need to spend more wisely. Adjust the amounts you need to place in each envelope accordingly.

Even if you pay by check, the same system will work except that you will have to do it on paper.
