Dwight Green, Shot, Killed as Burglary Suspect

Patrolman Fires on Victim Running from Laundry at 3:05 AM

A 20-year-old Des Moines youth was shot and killed by a policeman as a burglary suspect early Monday morning at the Keo Laundry, 1330 Keosauqua Way. The victim was Dwight Green, 20, whose address is listed as 1313 Fremont street.

Green was dead on arrival at Broadlawn Polk County Hospital. Police listed his home address as 1313 Fremont st.

Patrolman Charles Park, 28, reported he shot Green with a police riot gun after he jumped from a window of the laundry building and began running away.

"Halt"

Park said he shouted to the fleeing man to "halt" and when he kept going, fired at him with the riot gun. Riot guns used by police fire a 12-gauge shotgun shell loaded with nine pellets about the size of .22-caliber bullets.

Dr. Jack Hatchitt, deputy Polk County medical examiner, said five of the nine pellets in the shotgun shell struck Green—four in the left arm and left side and one in back of the neck.

Hatchitt said the pellet in the neck was the one that caused Green's death.

Calls for Aid

Park reported he was driving through an alley on the north side of the laundry when he saw a figure inside the building.

Park, who was alone in his patrol car, radioed police headquarters at 3:06 a.m. that he had spotted a man and requested assistance.

Park said he got out of his car, walked to the front of the building on Keo way, then along the south side of the building. He said as he worked his way west along the building he saw the man leap from a window and run northwest from the cleaners.

Ignored Orders

Park, who has been on the police force since Dec. 1, 1962, said he shot at the fleeing man when he ignored orders to halt. He said the man was about 90 feet away when he fired.

Patrolman Robert M. Warrick, sent to assist Park, reported he

Official's Home Bombed In Mississippi

Carthage, Miss. — Unknown assailants hurled a bomb from a pickup truck onto the property of Mrs. Dorey Hudson, chairman of the NAACP Leake County Voter Registration drive, blowing out all of the windows on the front of the house, and causing extensive property damage Wednesday night, Aug. 10.

Charles Evers, NAACP Mississippi field director, reported that Mrs. Hudson had told him she'd been given a card bearing the message, "The Klan is watching you" the day before, but as he says, "This happens so often that we don't pay much attention any more." Mr. Evers has called the FBI for an investigation.

This makes the third bombing of NAACP premises in different parts of the country within the past week. The home of NAACP Summer Project worker Richard Thomas in Ferriday, Louisiana, was blasted last weekend; the offices of the NAACP branch in Milwaukee were bombed Tuesday morning, Aug. 9.

Harry Belafonte Honored in Capital Hill

Congressman John Conyers, Jr. (First District-Michigan) is shown hosting a buffet luncheon which he gave in the Capitol Building in honor of entertainer Harry Belafonte. The July 27th luncheon gave many Senators, Congressmen, and other government officials a chance to meet the popular performer. Mr. Belafonte, who greatly enjoyed his first official trip to Capitol Hill, was especially interested in meeting those members of Congress who have been especially active in the civil rights and peace movements. Among the persons who greeted Mr. Belafonte were Senators Gruening (Alas.), Javits (N.Y.), and Hart (Michigan), House Speaker McCormack (Mass.), Majority Leader Carl Albert (Okla.), and Congressman Emanuel Celler, Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee of which Mr. Conyers is a member.

Congressman Conyers is shown in the above photograph with Mr. Belafonte, Congressman Philip Burton of California and House Speaker John McCormack of Mass.

Four Des Moines Beauticians At Convention Oklahoma

Four members of the Cosmetists Club, Local 102, NBCL, attended the 47th annual convention and Trade Show of the National Beauty Culturists League, Inc., Theta Nu Sigma Sorority and the National Institute of Cosmetology. They convened July 30 and continued through Aug. 7 at the Sheraton-Oklahoma hotel in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Delegates

Delegates were state president and Crescent Beauty school owner, Mrs. Pauline B. Humphrey and shop owners Mesdames Doris L. Wade, Elizabeth Lawrence and Mable Jackson. Miss Stanlie James, a beauty school student, also attended.

Highlights

The convention highlights centered around the theme "Building Through Education and Research." This marked the first attempt to combine all four events in one week. The first day began with a religious retreat and the following days began with worship services with Mrs. Wade accompanying at the piano.

Welcome

Delegates were welcomed to the convention by the mayor and other city and state officials including two Negro legislators.

Each morning Pepsi-Cola company presented a program on "New History" in the form of recordings and film clips.

A week-long initiation was held for new pledges to Theta Nu Sigma sorority. Pledges were identified by their green beanies and green and gold ribbons. A secret initiation was held at midnight Friday.

Guest Artist

Guest artist Julio Obason of New York and Jamaica presented fine new trends in hairstyling and coloring. Mrs. Humphrey presided as Chairman of the Chosen 100, a position she has held for a number of ment.

years. She also is on the national executive board.

Mrs. Humphrey was very much impressed by Rev. Dr. J. H. Jackson, Chicago, Ill., president of the National Baptist convention, Inc., who was one of the guest speakers. Mrs. Humphrey attended the press conference held for Dr. Jackson.

Parade of States

The Parade of States was on Tuesday and each state was well represented, including Iowa. The Iowa delegates wore white A line dresses with replicas of the wild rose, the Iowa state flower and the pig. They also wore hats with replicas of

Oakridge Residential Moving Expenses

According to the Oakridge Reporter it is most important that Oakridge residents be aware of steps necessary to be paid for moving expenses.

Before you move, you must submit three estimates to the Relocation Staff showing number of rooms of furniture to be moved, number of men to be used, truck and the hourly rate. You must be able to substantiate the charges for moving. The estimates must be submitted before you move. Your moving expenses cannot exceed the low estimate. It is suggested that you secure a mover who is licensed by the Iowa Commerce Commission, since these firms are required to carry insurance to cover any damage to goods being moved.

To avoid a misunderstanding about moving expenses, be sure you submit three estimates before you move. However, if you elect to move yourself, a fixed payment schedule, based on the number of rooms of household goods to be moved will be used. Call your Relocation Office for information on this method of payment.

Waterloo Gets New Human Rights Head

Waterloo, Ia.—Waterloo Commission on Human Rights has a new director, Ronald J. James of Washington, D.C. Re-elected chairman was Rev. I. V. Tolbert, vice chairman Charles Hanson and James Hutchens, secretary. He will take over his new position on August 30.

Des Moines Model Wins More Honors

James Piggee, nationally known model, received one of the highest honors recently when he was named "Model of the Year—1966" at a convention of the Little Foxes and Hares, a photographic modeling association in Chicago, Ill.

Piggee was selected last year as "Mr. Photo of 1965" at the same convention, an organization which is considered one of the peers of its profession.

Piggee was sponsored in the contest this year as well as last year by Maxheim-Photography. He has been modeling professionally for four years.

He lives with his wife and two children at 911 26th street. He is employed at Armstrong Rubber company and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Piggee of 1048 10th street.

Mrs. Bradford Enters Business Field

Mrs. Alberta Bradford, 2901 5th street has opened a business establishment at 515 E. Broadway avenue, which sells Permatone. The business specializes in room dividers, planters, fireplaces and outdoor furnishings, as well as other features.

Mrs. Bradford noted that Permatone, which seals perfectly, can be used in basements, walls, bars and foundations. See ad page 5.

Walnut Hill Holds Car Wash

The Walnut Hill Association is sponsoring a dollar car wash at Louie's Fina Station, 12th and University, Saturday, August 20 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Purpose of the car wash is to raise funds for future activities for the Center, located at 1127 Thirteenth street. Meetings are held the third Thursday of each month. There will be speakers at each session to discuss timely topics of interest to the community.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Atlanta, Ga. — Six "Deep South" states have registered almost one-half million new Negro voters in the first year of the 1965 voting rights laws. The Southern Regional Council's Voter Education project (VEP) released the figures on Aug. 5.

Kansas City, Mo. — For the first time in history a Negro, Bruce R. Watkins, was elected to a Jackson county-wide position. Watkins, 42-year-old city councilman, was elected circuit clerk of 48,455 to 37,429.

Excelsior Springs, Mo. — Mrs. Grace W. Phillips, whose directorship of the Excelsior Springs Job Corps center for Women was ruffled by complaints against its trainees, will report to Falls Church, Va., after Aug. 15 for reassignment. She resigned the post here last week.

Kansas City, Mo. — An $80,040 federal grant to establish a talent search center to identify needy, talented youth and encourage them to finish high school and go on to college has been made to the Kansas City Regional Council for higher education.

St. Louis, Mo. — A father and son who lived closely died hours apart Aug. 13 at DePaul hospital. Death first came to Charles Proctor, 68, who was a victim of a massive stroke. Fourteen hours later his son, Milton Proctor died, the victim of cancer.

Milwaukee, Wis. — As a result of an explosion ripping through the NAACP Milwaukee Branch offices at 2:30 a.m., Tuesday morning, Aug. 9, the community has rallied to the support of the organization with more than 100 new applications for membership, seven of these for $500 Life Memberships.

Washington, D. C. — A special report appearing in the June issue of the Labor Department's Monthly Labor Review indicates that the jobless rate of nonwhite school dropouts has remained unusually high while the employment picture of the majority of 16 to 24-year-old Americans has brightened.

Washington — President Lyndon B. Johnson praised members of the House of Representatives Wednesday for passing the 1966 Civil Rights Bill but, referring to the fair housing section, said, "This provision is not as comprehensive as that we proposed and sought."

"Nevertheless, the significance of the action yesterday is large in both practical and symbolic terms. Practically, the House has barred bigotry in all new housing and in apartment houses. This opens major avenues toward fair and adequate housing for millions of citizens. Symbolically, the House has, in effect, declared to all Negro Americans that many of their fellow citizens believe it is wrong to deny anyone a decent place to live solely because of the color of his skin.

'Duke' Was Iowa's Most Celebrated Football Star; Led Championship Team

Chicago, Ill. — One of Iowa's favorite and most celebrated sons in sports died here of stomach cancer Sunday night. He was Circuit Judge Fred (Duke) Slater, All-America football tackle at the University of Iowa in 1921.

Slater entered Wesley Memorial Hospital in Chicago last Mar. 25 for a bowel obstruction, and learned his condition was terminal. It was Duke's wish that he die at home, so he left the hospital June 1.

Slater was elected to the Chicago Municipal Court in 1948 and to the Superior Court in 1960. In 1964 the various branch courts were consolidated as the Circuit Court under a revision of the state judicial system.

Slater, who played under Howard Jones on some of Iowa's greatest teams, was born in Normal, Ill., but played high school football at Clinton, Ia. He was the son of a minister.

As a senior he was picked by Walter Eckersall as all-America tackle, and in 1951 was elected to the National Football Hall of Fame as well as The Des Moines Register's Iowa Sports Hall of Fame.

Slater attended SUI on a football scholarship and played from 1918-21. He was named to the Big Ten in 1921 when he led his team to the championship. He was an interior lineman.

All-Time Great

Glenn (Pop) Warner once picked him on his all-time all-America football team and in 1946, 600 sports writers throughout the nation named him a member of their all-time eleven.

He received a liberal arts degree at Iowa in 1922 and finished up work on a law degree in 1928. Slater was named to the Iowa Bar Association the same year and became a member of the Illinois Bar in 1929.

Slater played 10 years of pro football, with the Rock Island Independents and old Chicago Cardinals, then became assistant corporation counsel for the city of Chicago in 1935. He became assistant commissioner of the Illinois Commerce Commission in 1940, then went back to the corporation counsel for seven years.

JUDGE SLATER

Alumni Leader

Slater returned to Iowa often for football games and was a leader among Iowa Alumni in the Chicago area. He pointed many top high school players toward Iowa.

In 1958, the year Iowa won the Big Ten championship and Rose Bowl game, Slater took his wife to Iowa City for the Ohio State game.

Award 4 Raeburn-Webster Scholarships in Des Moines

Regina McKee, Vernell Warren, Alma Jean Clark and Donetta Clayborne have been named winners of the Rayburn-Webster Scholarships granted by Willkie House, Inc., for the 1966-67 school year.

Edward C. Harris, chairman of the scholarship committee, announced the winners as:

Miss Warren, daughter of Mrs. Nancy Coleman, 220 8th street, West Des Moines; Miss McKee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy McKee, 1809 Maple street; each awarded $200.

Miss Clayborne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clayborne, 3023 1st street and Jean Clark, daughter of Mrs. Anna L. Clark, 1223 15th street, each awarded $100.

Miss Warren is a 1966 graduate of Valley high school, West Des Moines, and Miss McKee, a 1966 graduate of college; Miss McKee will enter Grandview college. Miss Clark will be a junior in the Mercy Hospital (Des Moines) School of Nursing. Miss Clayborne, a 1966 graduate of Des Moines Technical high school, will enter the State University of Iowa.

MISS CLAYBORNE

Scholarships are awarded to one or more Negro girls who rank in the upper 50% of their class on the basis of academic achievement, dependability as workers, superior personality, extra-curricular activities, and other qualities which seem to contribute to potential success in college.

Say Negro Lawyers Want Judgeships in the South

Detroit — President Johnson was urged to appoint a Negro Federal Judge in the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals in the south by members of the National Bar Association at their 41st Annual Convention here last week.

Making a strong effort to improve the position of the Negro lawyer throughout the nation, the Association also warned Sargent Shriver, chief of the nation's War On Poverty, in a resolution, that they expected him to give them full recognition in hiring attorneys for his legal services to the poor.

Resolution

The same resolution, adopted unanimously by the 250 delegates from 35 cities who were in attendance at the five day session, also took President Johnson to task for giving "unintentionally our funds and abroad, while niggardly economizing on opportunity and freedom at home."

Speakers

Richmond M. Flowers, Attorney General of Alabama, Sargent Shriver, John Doar, Assistant Attorney General, Civil Rights Division, Justice Dept., and Detroit Congressman John Conyers headed the speakers.

Flowers, who is probably the most liberal elected white official in the south, captivated a luncheon session with a 45-minute talk that brought him a standing ovation. In it he traced his early dealings with Negroes in which he admitted to prejudice, and then told of his reversal on the racial question which was led him to the conviction that the "Negroes fight for equality is a just one which he has dedicated himself to working for."

Much of the time was given to criminal and civil seminars that were conducted by legal experts in the field. At the annual banquet Federal Judge William H. Hastie of the 3rd Circuit Court of Appeals was the featured speaker.

In his report to the Association, NBA President Revis O. Ortiue, Jr., who was re-elected to office, listed some of the Association's achievements of the past year which included developing a close relationship with the Legal Services Office of the Office of Economic Opportunity establishing a NBA Washington office, working in close relationship with Congressional leaders, strengthening their ties with the American Bar Association and active participation and financial support to the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights.

At a press conference outlining the NBA's position on "Black Power," Ortiue said it would have no meaning if "the promise of opportunity could have solved the problem of the slums and unemployment."

Harnessed

But since it exists, he declared that "black-power like white-power in America can be harnessed to serve the new revolution." He envisioned the NBA as being in the forefront of the battle to eliminate discrimination, poverty and slums from the nation's cities.

Kent Cigarettes Sued for Job Bias

Greensboro, N.C. — The NAACP Legal Defense Fund this week filed suit, in behalf of Negro women employees, against the P. Lorillard Company (Kent Cigarettes).

The request for a permanent injunction due to alleged discriminatory practices, was also filed against the Tobacco Workers International AFL-CIO and the Tobacco Workers International Union, AFL-CIO, Local 317.

Negro employees, the Legal Defense Fund's complaint asserts, "Have been hired for menial and low paying jobs solely on basis of race and color."

Matters regarding salary, terms of employment, conditions and privileges "have been governed and controlled by collective bargaining agreements entered into by defendants P. Lorillard and the Union," the complaint asserts.

If Negroes leave the blending and services department, which attorneys describe as being "one step above sweeping," they lose seniority, hence they are confined to the same positions.

The Legal Defense Fund suit followed a complaint with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission under Title VII of the 1966 Civil Rights Act.

NAACP In Louisiana Town Begins Buying Campaign for Rights

Ferriday, La. — In an attempt to substitute constructive action for violence, the Ferriday NAACP Branch is initiating an all-out selective buying campaign aimed against downtown businesses.

The violence broke out last week when a bomb exploded on the property of NAACP civil rights worker Richard Thomas. Two persons were injured, and the impact of the blast attracted a large crowd.

At the suggestion of the FBI, Mayor Willie Davis immediately called a meeting with local civil rights leaders, but no significant steps were taken to ease the tension. Fourteen State Troopers continued to patrol the streets at night.

NAACP Louisiana State Conference President Attorney Marion Overton White sent a telegram to U. S. Attorney General Nicholas deB. Katzenbach asking for help. Then he called together other NAACP area leaders to meet with Ferriday Branch President Robert Lewis, Jr., to work out a constructive direct action program.

NAACP "Not Happy" Over Weaker Housing

New York — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is not happy over the civil rights bill as it was passed in the House of Representatives by a vote of 259-157 on August 9.

The bill now goes to the Senate where action is not expected before September 6.

In a statement at the time of passage, NAACP Executive Director, Roy Wilkins said, "The bill passed by the House was significantly weaker than the bill submitted by the Johnson Administration last spring and civil rights forces are not happy about the changes."

Contrary to assertions by some organizations, the bill is not "worthless," although not as strong as President Johnson's original version. Two important sections ban discrimination in the selection of Federal and state juries. Title 3 grants new authority to the Attorney General to act in a variety of civil rights cases.

Title 4, the housing section, does open up all newly-constructed and multi le dwellings (apartments) but permits discrimination in the sale and rental of existing single-family dwellings.

Title 5 provides Federal punishment for those who attack Negro civil rights workers and their allies but had an anti-riot section added to it.

by his associates; a religious man who set a fine example for youth."

Chicago Mayor Richard Daley called Slater "the best there is in citizenship and the best in judgeship."

Funeral services will be conducted here Saturday morning for Judge Slater, who recorded diverse careers as a University of Iowa football player and a Circuit Court judge. The body of the 67-year-old jurist will lie in state at Bethel A.M.E. Church from 8 p.m. Friday until services at 10 a.m. Saturday. Burial will be in Mount Glenwood Cemetery.

President Cites Efforts to Strike at Root Cause of Riots

Washington, D.C.—President Lyndon B. Johnson in a White House Press Conference Tuesday told of his efforts to get action on rent supplements, Demonstration Cities legislation and a Teacher Corps in the overall assault on ghetto problems.

Conditions

The President insisted that basic conditions which spark unrest and lead to rioting must be tackled now. Responding to a question about federal steps to curb rioting, the President said: "I asked them to take every step they could possibly take to find recreation, find employment, open the swimming pools, turn on the sprinklers, turn up new recreational areas here in the city of Washington. We have done the same thing with the Mayors and with the Governors of the country in our meetings."

Installations

President Johnson said: "We are opening some of our Federal installations where we can, to these families and these young people in crowded areas, for swimming pools and for playgrounds. I have asked Secretary McNamara to review every facility. I have asked the Interior Department, too. We think there is much to be done and very little time to do it. But we are getting ahead with the job as quickly as we can."

Speaking of the Demonstration Cities legislation, the President said

Powell Held in Contempt For Refusing to Pay $162,000

New York, N.Y. — Representative Adam Clayton Powell (Dem., N.Y.) was held in criminal contempt of court Friday, Aug. 12 for his refusal to pay a $162,000 judgement to a Harlem widow he had defamed or to submit to a financial examination. The ruling was made by State Supreme Court Justice Irving H. Saypol, who ordered a trial for Sept. 6 to determine, in effect, the extent of Powell's contempt prior to sentencing. The judiciary law provides for a maximum jail sentence of 30 days and a $250 fine.

The matter then would go to a jury trial.

Justice Saypol's ruling was made after he had given Powell's lawyer a last chance to make a commitment on behalf of the congressman to have him appear in court on a specified date with his financial records.

Iowa State Fair Sunday, August 19th, with four performances for Bill Riley Talent Review 10 a.m., 11 a.m., 2 p.m. and 3:15 p.m.

The lawyer, Henry R. Williams, did not give any such promise.

On Vacation

After learning that Powell was on vacation Friday in Bimini, a small island in the Bahamas 55 miles east of Miami, while the motion to punish him for contempt was being argued, Justice Saypol gave his decision from the bench.

"The misconduct is demonstrated, in charity to the defendant, as the antics of a mischievous delinquent," the justice said.

Powell, who was understood to be on a fishing trip, could not be reached for comment.

A 'Bag Woman'

On Dec. 27, 1964, Powell was held in civil contempt for his failure to pay an award for defamation of character to Mrs. Esther James, a 68-year-old former domestic whom the representative had called a "bag woman" or graft collector for corrupt police.

ORIGINAL NOTICE

In the Municipal Court of the City of Des Moines, Iowa
Equity No. 146181

CITY OF DES MOINES, IOWA, Plaintiff,

vs.
PARKER INVESTMENT COMPANY,
JOHN E. and ELNORA M. VAN SCOY, UNITED FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, POLK COUNTY,
ELSTON L. AND LETA M. MOORE,
Defendants.

TO THE ABOVE-NAMED DEFENDANTS:

You and each of the above are hereby notified that the Petition of the above-named plaintiff in the above-entitled action is now on file in the office of the Clerk of the above-named Court, which Petition prays that the structure located on the premises located in Polk County, Iowa, legally described as follows,
to-wit:

Lot 4 Block 3 in Hyde Park. Plat
2, an Official Plat, now included in and forming a part of the City of Des Moines, Iowa

and locally known as 2943 Garfield, Des Moines, Iowa be declared to be a public nuisance.
Said Petition prays (a) that the Court declare the structure situated on the above-described premises to be a public nuisance and enter an Order, directing the owners of said premises or those claiming an interest therein to immediately abate said public nuisance by demolishing and removing said structure at their own expense, and (b) that in the event such has not been done within 10 days from the date of said Order, to authorize and direct this plaintiff to abate said nuisance by entering upon said premises and demolishing and removing said structure, and (c) to assess the cost thereof, including the costs of this action, against said premises as provided in Sections
368.3 and 368.9, Code of Iowa, 1962.
For further particulars see said Petition
now on file.

No personal judgment is sought against any defendant.

YOU ARE FURTHER NOTIFIED TO appear before said Court at the Municipal Court House of the City of Des Moines, Iowa, located at East 1st and Court Avenue, Des Moines, Iowa on or before September 30, 1966, and that unless you appear, your default will be entered and judgment or decree will be rendered for the relief prayed for in said Petition.

Guide For Businessmen Serving $27 Billion Negro Market

The U. S. Department of Commerce today published a broad-based guide for business firms serving, or interested in serving, the $27 billion Negro consumer market in the United States.

Prepared by the Department's Business and Defense Services Administration (BDSA), "A Guide to Negro Marketing Information" discusses growth and trends in the Negro market and provides sources of information on the buying potential of more than 20 million persons.

In a foreword to the publication, Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor says "this market represents for America both an opportunity and an obligation. It will be an increasingly profitable market as the Negro is given greater opportunity to contribute to, and share in, the general prosperity."

Human Skin And Madison Ave.

"All products must be properly packaged," say the marketing experts of Madison Ave. Whether in the form of machine casings, cans of beer or soap-wrappings, the package serves three functions: To contain the product, protect it, and compel attention to it.

About 17 square feet of SKIN wrap the body — sausage-fashion. While protecting it from germs; the skin, with over 2 million sweat glands, secretes waste and regulates the body temperature. And with regard to compelling attention—can you think of anything more captivating than a glowing complexion?

So you see that Nature keeps in step with Madison Ave., by creating a package that contains the product, protects it, and compels attention to it.

Ladies! Complexion care at this time of year is a most demanding chore. A practical solution to any Skin problem is available at WILLIAMS PHARMACY, 1103 University, PHONE: 243-1253.

Ideal Snack

Prune Oat Bread and Cottage Cheese

"You never outgrow your need for cereal and milk." This is the theme of the Fourth Annual Spring Cereal and Milk Festival sponsored jointly by the Cereal Institute and the American Dairy Association to promote the food value of cereal and milk.

Is the cereal and milk serving a nutritional bargain? Yes, an average serving of cereal and milk costs less than five cents. The cereal and milk serving provides top-quality protein, quickly available food energy, essential B-complex vitamins, and important minerals.

The use of cereal and milk need not be limited to breakfast. A bowl of cereal and milk makes an inexpensive, readily digestible snack. Prune Oat Bread with cottage cheese is another way to include the nutritious goodness of cereal and milk in the daily diet.

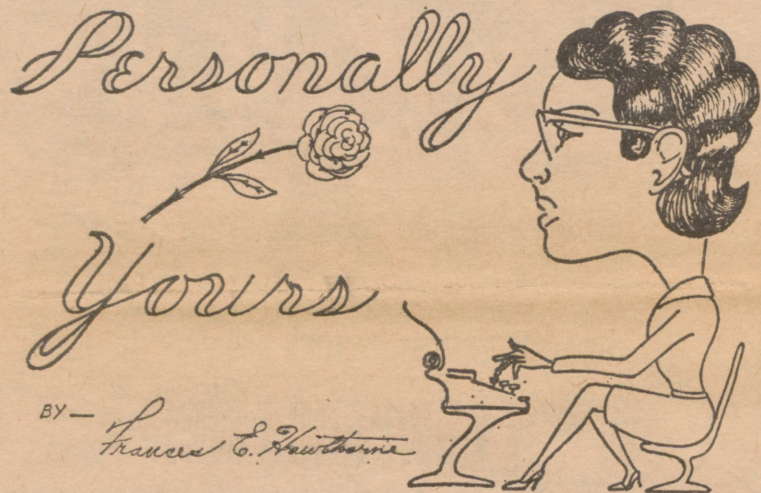

Prune Oat Bread

2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 cup sugar
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt

1 1/2 cups coarsely ground ready-to-eat oat cereal*
1 1/2 cups buttermilk or sour milk
2 tablespoons melted fat
1 cup diced, drained cooked prunes
1/2 cup chopped nuts

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder, soda, and salt. Add ready-to-eat oat cereal and mix thoroughly. Combine buttermilk with slightly cooled fat. (To make sweet milk sour, add 1 tablespoon of vinegar to 1 1/2 cups of sweet milk.) Add to flour mixture with prunes and nuts, stirring just enough to moisten the dry ingredients. (Batter should be lumpy.) Put into well-greased loaf pan, 9 x 5 x 3 inches. Place extra halves of prunes and whole nut meats on top. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 1 hour, or until done. Turn out on rack to cool. Yield: 1 loaf.

*Three cups of ready-to-eat oat cereal (about) makes 1 1/2 cups of coarsely ground cereal. If grinder does not have a coarse plate, crush cereal with bottom of metal measuring cup. Do not use a rolling pin—the crumbs obtained are too fine.

Summer is waning to its mercurial lazy end and in case you haven't looked Des Moines public schools will open here in a little over a week. Don't ask me where the summer has gone because I would like someone to tell me. We have vowed that there will be no more summer school for a couple of years for our youngsters, but next summer is a long way off. The reason we would like a reprieve is because with summer classes, it means that the children are going to school the year round with the exception of one month and it makes the summer seem too short as well as interfere with family vacation plans. But I'm sure I am not telling you anything you haven't already learned yourself.

Beginning next week all news must be mailed, phoned in or brought to the Bystander. We will spend the next two weeks working with our successor and naturally will not be at the house to take news. So please remember so there will be no inconvenience for your news.

Children are a delight to listen to sometimes. Especially when they give such a literal answer to a parental or other adult question. For instance once little tyke who likes to assert his independence by dressing himself was asked by his mother, (who noted that his shirt was on backwards), "What way have you got your shirt?"

The little one replied, "On." Enough said?

Mrs. Jessye Bell Davis of 1623 Walker street, made a trip to California and a year ago or so told us she had brought back a small gift for us. We had intended stopping by several times but somehow never got to do it. Then she had planned to bring it over and she never got to it, either. However, last week she got it to us and it was delightful as well as useful. We thank her for her thoughtfulness.

The fabulous Hunt-Redd wedding of several weeks ago elicited a lot of compliments as well as comparisons to the nationally publicized wedding.

DUKE SLATER WAS A FINE EXAMPLE

Fred (Duke, as he was affectionately known) Slater died in Chicago, Sunday. A product of Iowa schools, Judge Slater gained fame as one of the all time great tackle on the football team at Iowa University and went on to star in the professional game.

Judge Slater earned his education the hard way working at odd jobs while in school and in between semesters. He was determined to get an education and refused to quit when times got tough.

Upon graduation, Judge Slater settled in Chicago where he served as assistant corporation counsel, municipal judge and at the time of his death was a circuit judge. In these capacities he served well and earned the respect of the legal profession and his neighbors as he had done as a football great. He was elected to the Hall of Fame.

Duke was an example for youngsters to follow, especially those who cry that they have no money, no opportunity and spend their time using this as an excuse for doing nothing, blaming everybody for their ills, rather than buckling down and doing for themselves. Many a youngster is doing today what Duke did and a lot of folks are glad to help them.

The Duke will be missed by a lot of people who remember that here was a man who made opportunity for himself and it paid off.

ILLEGAL CONDUCT NO
ANSWER TO HATE MONGERS

The civil rights marches in Chicago have brought out in the open what has been common knowledge all along: that intense hatred prevailed in most sections against Negroes which lay dormant as long as they stayed on their side of the street.

Many of these people or their immediate ancestors are from the low countries of Europe who came to this country to escape oppression and/or to enjoy freedom to work and prosper. They have achieved that status and now wish to vent their hatred on the less fortunate minorities.

It is unfortunate that a great mass of people with good schools, good opportunities and the right to enjoy the privileges and immunities this country guarantees must resort to almost open warfare in order to correct some of the evils of which they protest and complain.

Dr. King and his followers have done a good job in the South leading the Negroes to a better life. His marches have achieved results because the white South was so far out of line that even all southerners could not go along with them.

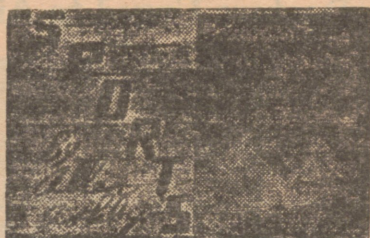

The northern protest has braced and solidified the tirades of hate to the point where Negroes seem called upon to fight back in a manner which hurts themselves and their friends. As much as we detest the injustices brought on by life in the big overcrowded cities, burning, stoning and looting other people's property is not the answer.

Little attention seems to have been given these bad conditions over the years. Politicians have thrived and remained in office keeping them in ignorance and dependent upon charity to stay alive. Too many have been satisfied with the doles from relief rolls and forgotten that they have a responsibility to earn a living.

A place to eat and sleep is not all it takes to raise a family. People must be taught the value of good character, honesty, cleanliness, respect for others, and the necessity and desirability to be responsible citizens and not parasites on the community. They must be taught in the home, in the schools, in the churches. If people ignore these assets, no amount of civil rights can do them much good.

Theodore Johnson
Protests Cut in Blind Pension

Theodore R. Johnson, 1317 Carpenter street, appeared before the appeal board of the Aid to the Blind last Friday to protest a drastic cut in his monthly pension. Mr. Johnson said his pension was cut from $58

Last week we were trying to rest a week of our vacation and clean forgot to write about our 18th annual Hilltop Tennis Meet. This was the biggest ever with 164 players from five states. And it went off pretty well, although we didn't think the tournament manager did as well as he has done in some former years. And there were about six Negroes in the thing.

Foot Trouble

The guy, who in the early fifties beat Paul Williams for the men's singles title, last week set down Royal Madison, a former local man who lives in Chicago, for the veterans singles honors. Madison played some fine tennis and maybe if his feet hadn't given him trouble, he might have pulled the thing out.

Police Protection

There were probably 100 white people at the Good Park finals, and they and the Negroes who were there saw a day of fine tennis. We had real coverage from the police to ward off possible incidents, but there weren't any. It seems that a marathon basketball game took care of all who weren't interested in tennis. It was just about a free-for-all game. Then Kizzie Strothers led the group in singing "America the Beautiful" and that may have helped. But it turned out to be a fine day after we got the rain problem licked.

Knew "Duke" Slater

We were sorry to read of the death of "Duke" Slater, one of the really great Iowa players on the football teams of the post World War I era. Slater was a personal acquaintance of ours and a really good friend of our older brother Lucius. The guy never forgot anyone he knew and always managed to have a ball at the Iowa Homecoming. I hope they mention him at the one this year.

Crowded Seasons

Now the football season is in full swing and we don't know who is going to play in the World Series yet. And before we clear the gridiron out of the way, here will come basketball. Those seasons used to have a beginning and an end, but now it seems they have none. There isn't any way a guy could be a three sport man in college if he were on good teams that went to football bowl games and basketball meets. Of course, if his football and basketball teams weren't good, he could make it, but it would keep him jumping.

And now we think of Michigan State's Gene Washington and Clinton Jones who reject our argument.

D. M. Man Shot;
Charge Woman

Carl Bruse, 40, of 1004 Center st., was shot about 7:30 p.m. Saturday while in his car parked in the 1100 block of 12th street, police reported. Bruse was grazed on the right side of the abdomen by the bullet and was listed in good condition at Broadlawn Polk County Hospital. Carrie Logan, 35, of 3200 Amherst, who had been in the car with Bruse, according to police, was charged with intent to do great bodily harm. She was released under $2,000 bond for a hearing Sept. 16.

to $7 a month. He said the agency gave the reason for the reduction because of his wife's employment. The case will now go before the board. A decision is expected within a few days.

HEALTH FOR ALL

WHERE THE MONEY GOES

Sicknesses of breathing have always loomed big in the scale of human woes. During the last decade or so, a number of these diseases seem to have made headway at a disturbing rate.

Whatever the basic reasons (increasing pollution of the air and a long-time rise in cigarette smoking are usually cited among them), some of these respiratory ills now take a toll that would have seemed unlikely just a few years ago. In the last recorded year (1963), deaths from chronic bronchitis totaled 3,430, compared to 1,804 in 1958 — an increase of 90 per cent. Even higher was the increase in reported victims of emphysema over the same period — from 6,707 to 15,120 or a jump of 125 per cent.

Top Disease

About the turn of the century, when a concerted nationwide fight was first mounted against tuberculosis, that scourge was the top disease killer in the country. Nobody imagined that in six decades TB would be reduced to a point where its final eradication could be discussed in realistic terms.

Hope

With the weapons now at our command, it isn't too much to hope that the process can be repeated with other forms of respiratory disease (RD). But these things don't just happen. Tremendous struggles are in store for those who attempt them. They need public support, they need the willing hands and hearts of volunteers on which so much of this kind of effort depends. And they must have the money to pay for needed materials and services of all kinds.

Your Christmas Seals association, which fights all respiratory diseases including TB, is pinning major hopes on the success of its 1967 Christmas Seal Campaign. A good response will mean that its fight against diseases of breathing can go on undiminished. Now is the time to answer your Christmas Seal appeal.

Justice Department Sues Two
Mississippi School Districts

Washington, D.C. — The Department of Justice brought suits today to end racial segregation by two school districts in Mississippi.

Attorney General Nicholas Katzenbach said the suits were filed in United States District Court in Jackson, Miss. against the Amite County and South Pike County districts.

The Department said the Amite County district operates three schools for white students and two for Negroes "in accordance with an official policy of racial segregation of students and teachers."

A desegregation plan adopted last May by the South Pike district has resulted in assignment of Negro students in the city of Magnolia "on the basis of race and color" to the all-Negro Eva Gordon Attendance Center, the Department said.

Campanella Eyes
Manager's Job

Bloomington, Minn. — A Negro will become manager of a major league baseball team "when an owner thinks the time and the place is right," former big league catcher Roy Campanella said Saturday.

And, Campanella added, he would not mind the first Negro manager in the majors being Roy Campanella, former Brooklyn Dodger great whose career was ended by a 1954 automobile accident which left him crippled.

"I'm ready," said Campanella, who is here doing promotional work for a food supply firm. "I think a catcher is a qualified manager. Most managers I played for all played the game through their catchers."

heard the shotgun blast as he arrived at the scene.

Geen, who was climbing up an embankment when he was shot, was unarmed, police said.

Clothing

Police said a screen had been removed from a west window of the laundry and a window pane broken.

Several pieces of clothing had been piled outside the window, police said, and a coffee vending machine inside the establishment had been broken into.

In Car

Park was with Warrick in a two-man patrol car at the time of the Gomez boy's death.

Police records show Green was arrested and charged with robbery with aggravation Oct. 22, 1965, in connection with the theft at a service station here, but that the charge was dropped because of insufficient evidence. While serving in the military, Green was found guilty of

Can Jesus Forget
Nazareth And Calvary?

I'm sure Jesus loves all men, The Red, White, Black and Semitic race; Jesus shed His blood at Calvary. That all men might be saved by His cross.

But in the heart of Jesus, There must be a special place, For all of the Jewish people, And also the Colored race. Can He forget His home at Nazareth, And all of His Jewish kin? Can He forget the man who carried His cross, Simon of Cyrene, who had black skin?

WONDERMENT

The Sword of Time pierced my Soul
Implanting Sorrow's sorrow bold
Soul encamped in lone domain
A yearful, evanescent like refrain
Enshrouded in Estactic Bliss
Touched by Heaven's celestial kiss
Wonderment in my reverie
A soul of souls, of souls, for me.

Two Rob Hinky Dinky
Store of $2,000

Shortly after closing hours Tuesday night the Hinky Dinky store, 19th and Carpenter, was robbed of $2,000 in cash and checks at gun point. The loot was taken away in two wastebaskets.

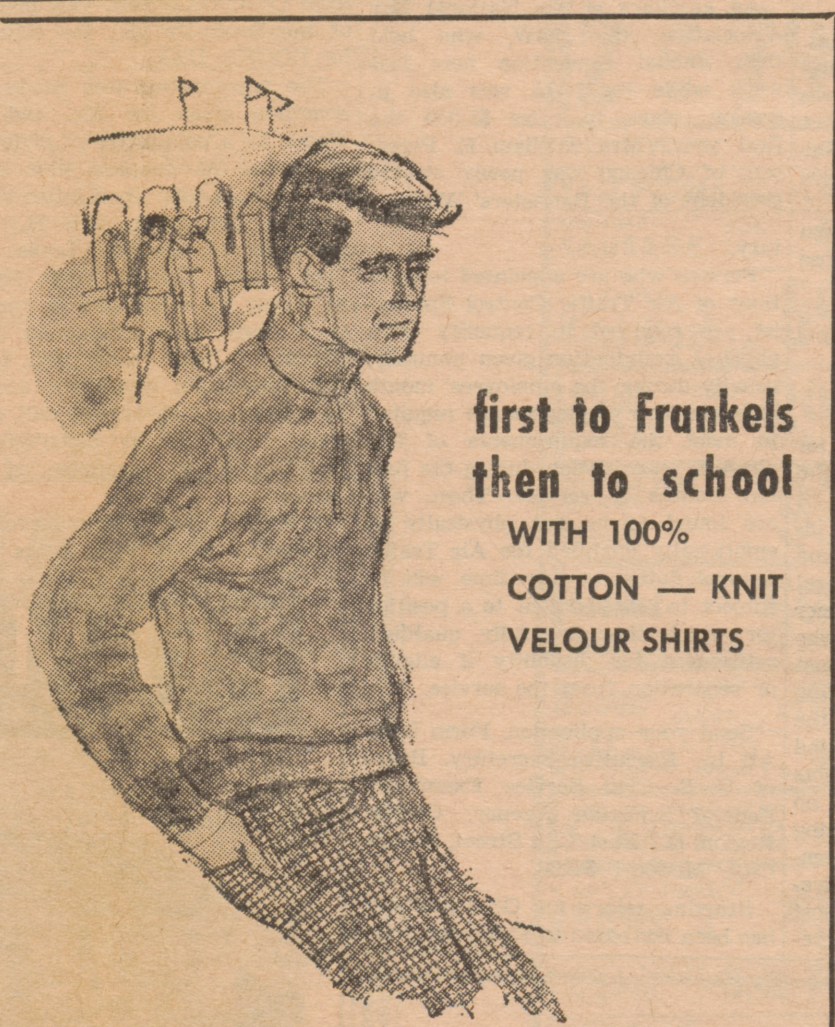

The armed man fired a shot just before the two left, but no one was injured. Police said they thought the gun might have been loaded with blanks.

Gary Dallman, 4236 40th, store manager, said the store closed at 10 p.m. and he and Jim Street, a store employee, were in the office adding checks when the two men came in the front door about 10:30. Dallman said the door was unlocked because three other employees—Assistant Manager Jerry Fielder, Dan Campbell and Steve Patterson had just taken some fertilizer from outside the store where they were on display to the back of the store.

"They came running in, one of them waving his little shooter," Dallman said. "The short one vaulted over the counter and yelled 'This is a holdup. Get down.'"

"We sure got down all right. I didn't see anything after that."

The men were described as Negro, one about 5 feet 7 inches tall, wearing a black bowler hat and a red and white striped shirt. The other was described as about 28, 6 feet tall, wearing a black T-shirt and black trousers.
