Chicago, Ill.—After seven weeks of marches and demonstrations, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., made the announcement that his team of civil rights workers had reached unanimous agreement with civic officials and real estate interests on a 10-point program designed to end discrimination in residential renting and sales.

To March

King, whose Southern Christian Leadership Conference chose Chicago as its test case in a campaign against anti-Negro bias in the North, said the open housing marches would be halted only "so long as the program is being carried out."

Within hours after the temporary moratorium on marches was declared, however, Chester Gray, leader of the militant West Side Organ-

During the past year several young Iowans have once again heeded the challenge of "Go West, Young Man." Although times have greatly changed since young men first sought fame and fortune in California, the young men who have left Iowa for the Parks Job Corps Center in Pleasanton, Calif. are opening up new doors of opportunity for themselves.

These Iowa boys between the ages of 16 and 22 have joined some 2,000 other young men at Parks who are hoping to receive the kind of basic and vocational training that will help them find jobs and improve their way of life.

DeVan

Paul DeVan, chairman of the Center's staff training and program development and a graduate of Iowa State College, recently said that the Job Corps is the first program initiated within the last two decades specially tailored toward resolving the social and unemployment problems of youth.

Basic Skills

"At Parks Job Corps Center every opportunity is offered to a young man to acquire basic skills in seven vocational areas. He is encouraged to upgrade his educational capability and seek a high school diploma.

Aunt Jemima 'Pancaked' by Union

Chicago, Ill. — A teachers' union won its first battle in its "Aunt Jemima war."

The first loser is a pancake restaurant in the Edgewater Beach Hotel, where the American Federation of Teachers is holding its annual convention.

Delegates Thursday adopted a firm anti-Jemima stand, saying the "Negro mammy" symbol on pancake mix boxes and in restaurants was "degrading" to Negroes.

Quaker Oats

The resolution, presented by the union's Civil-Rights Committee, urged the Quaker Oats Co. to discard the Aunt Jemima symbol or face a possible union boycott of its products.

Some delegates expressed "shock" at seeing a hostess in Aunt Jemima garb in the hotel restaurant.

Agreement

The Civil Rights Committee also discovered that the three-month-old pancake shop was not unionized. The teachers threatened to picket the shop unless it discarded its Aunt Jemima costume and made firm commitments to allow workers to unionize.

The shop agreed to these conditions, and now its hostess, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, wears her own clothing on the job.

"I'm black and I'm proud of it," Mrs. Brown said. "Aunt Jemima is nothing to be ashamed of. After all, we all have our backgrounds."

The restaurant manager, Richard Weaver, said the whole incident is "ridiculous."

NAACP Pickets Pan American Airways

New York — Charging discrimination against four Negro applicants for employment, the Jamaica, N.Y., Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, picketed the Pan American World Airways passenger terminal at the Kennedy International Airport here, Thursday, Aug. 25.

W. Eugene Sharpe, president of the Jamaica Branch, said that the company had refused to employ qualified Negro helicopter aircraft welders even after the New York State Commission on Human Rights found "probable cause" in two of the complaints, following an investigation into the charges. The Commission has ordered a public hearing. The remaining three complaints were dismissed by the Commission.

Gasoline Bomb Sets Car On Fire With Six Persons Inside in Waukegan Area

Waukegan, Ill. — This town of 65,000 located 35 miles south of Chicago, became the scene of new outbreaks of racial violence as the summer long sporadic disorders and disturbances shifted from the Windy City and also flared anew in Minnesota.

Curfew

More than 30 persons were arrested Monday night for violating a 7:30 p.m. curfew in the 35-block Negro area, which marked the quietest night so far after three nights of violence. It was climaxed Sunday night when Negroes tossed fire bombs at buildings, stores and automobiles. One struck a car carrying six persons. They were severely burned and hospitalized.

Condition Serious

Those burned were Gabriel Albarra, 57; his wife Mary, 52; their children, Jesus, 15, and Esther, 6; and Jose Lopez, 50, and his wife Nemesia, 54. All are resident of Waukegan.

Esther Albarra was rushed to a hospital in Chicago—35 miles south of Waukegan—where she was reported in serious condition.

The others were in serious condition at Waukegan hospitals.

Chance Victims

Chief Riley said the six apparently were chance victims. He said hostility appeared directed mainly at the police and had been recurrent since a Negro youth was arrested by a Negro policeman early Saturday for smashing a bottle in a street.

10 Fires

The Fire Department extinguished 10 blazes—set by fire bombs—Sunday evening. One store was set afire and at least three cars were burned.

Waukegan's 100-man Police Department was reinforced by 20 state troopers, by 40 sheriff deputies and by several policemen from nearby communities.

Walk Out Of City Hall

Milwaukee, Wis. — Negro demonstrators walked out of suburban Wauwatosa's City Hall Monday night to stage an eleventh night of protests at the home of Circuit Judge Robert C. Cannon after he declined to meet with them while newsmen were present.

Leaders of the demonstration turned down an invitation to meet privately with Judge Cannon.

"If Judge Cannon is ashamed to come in here, then it's time to go out front of his house," said a Negro leader.

Constance Motley Confirmed For Federal Judgeship

Washington, D.C.—Mrs. Constance Baker Motley of New York City was confirmed by the Senate Tuesday as a U.S. District Judge, becoming the first woman of her race to be so honored.

The Senate confirmed her nomination by a voice vote after Senator James O. Eastland (Dem., Miss.) read testimony to a Senate internal security subcommittee hearing that Mrs. Motley had been active in the Young Communist League in 1942-43.

Senators

New York's two senators, Republican Jacob K. Javits and Democrat Robert F. Kennedy, challenged Eastland's statements.

Eastland is chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, which had delayed action on Mrs. Motley's appointment since it was made by President Johnson last January.

Javits noted that Mrs. Motley had twice run for elective office and that her past was subjected to close scrutiny then.

Mrs. Motley, 44, is a former president of the borough of Manhattan and New York state senator.

Background

She was on the legal staff of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) for 20 years and participated in the long litigation over school desegregation.

She is married and the mother of a son.

She was born in New Haven, Conn., attended Fisk University at Nashville, Tenn., received a bachelor of arts degree from New York University and her law degree from Columbia University.

zation, said he would march into Cicero Sunday "come hell or high water." "King's agreement with Mayor Daley doesn't hold for us; we'll march this Sunday."

King declined to rule out demonstrations and marches to back up Negro demands for greater economic opportunity and better schooling.

Agreement

The 10-point agreement to end housing bias was reached by King, Mayor Daley and Ross Beatty, head of the Chicago Real Estate Board. The meeting was ignored by the Chicago Conference on Race and Religion.

Essentially, the 10 points provide for better implementation and enforcement of fair housing laws, along with increased educational and moral efforts by religious, civic and union leaders.

Suspended

Another main point in the 11-page agreement was that the Chicago Commission on Human Relations would initiate proceedings on its own against brokers who fail to comply with the city's fair housing laws and that brokers found guilty of violations would have their licenses suspended or revoked.

King said: "Chicago is well on its way to becoming the nations leading city in dealing effectively with the critical problem of a racial segregation in housing."

Dissatisfied

However, many leaders and organizations, from Chicago to Harlem, were not satisfied with the consequent Chicago situation.

"Nobody, not a single individual has benefited," remarked the de-

James Dixon Back From 3 Years in Africa, Named To Polk Anti-Poverty Staff

James Dixon, who returned stateside last month after spending three years as a world service fraternal secretary for the YMCA in Liberia, Africa, will join the Polk County anti-poverty staff. The announcement came from Robert E. Mannheimer, president of the Polk County Community Action Council, at its meeting last week.

Dixon will become one of two assistant directors under Donald McKenzie, staff chief. He formerly was a Des Moines YMCA youth worker before departing for Africa in 1963. In his new job he will head central staff operations. The post pays about $10,000 a year.

Dixon returned to Des Moines with his wife, Betty June and daughter, Tracey, about three weeks ago.

The Bystander was unable to inrived at Parks this May says he thinks the Job Corps is a "pretty good deal." However, he advises boys who are thinking of joining the Job Corps that it's not play — they shouldn't come in unless they want to get the education.

Another young Iowan Aubrey Hesse, 16, of Newton agrees with Ron and says that the Job Corps is the "best thing going." Although he wants to join the Navy—if he can't do that—he intends to stay in the Job Corps and go through basic electronics and radio and TV repair.

Objections

Within the context of the Office of Economic Opportunity and the Parks program objectives of citizenship, education and vocational skill acquisition, certain demands must be met by the youth who participate, DeVan states.

Job Corpsmen live in groups of 26, two to a room, with a counselor responsible for each 26-man living group. Two 26-men groups live in each of the Center dormitory buildings.

Corpsmen Day

The Corpsmen's day includes five hours of classes, 2½ in basic education and 2½ in vocational training. Besides the auto mechanics course Eugene is in, Parks offers occupations and office machine repair. Like Ron, a corpsman may work for his high school diploma by taking classes in the evening if he wants to. There is a variety of recreational activities and hobby crafts to choose from.

As part of a complete physical education program, intramural games are played in all sports with teams in the area. This program includes basketball, baseball, softball, volleyball, boxing and judo taught by a former professional fighter, track, wrestling, weightlifting, golf and swimming.

All Job Corps Centers look after a boy's health. A staff of doctors and dentists are on duty 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Corpsmen get free medical and dental treatment as well as eyeglasses if they need them.

Allowance

All Corpsmen receive a living allowance of $30 a month besides room, board and clothing. They also have a readjustment allowance of $50 set aside for them each month they stay in the Job Corps. They will receive this allowance after they leave the Jobs Corps. The four boys can stay in the Job Corps up to two years.

Young men between 16 and 22 who are out of school and having job difficulties, can learn about the Job Corps through the Youth Opportunity Center at 300 Court Avenue or through any of the 34 offices of the Iowa State Employment Service.

Good Park Case Back; John Lewis Jailed: Broke Judge's Trust

An 18-year-old youth arrested in the July 5 Good Park incident was sentenced Friday, Aug. 26, to 10 days in Polk County jail by Municipal Judge Harry B. Grund, who said the youth had broken the "confidence" of the court by again coming to police attention.

"You have no respect for his court," Grund told Johnnie Lewis, who gave his address as 1223 8th street in sentencing him on a charge of loitering and annoying in connection with Good Park disorders.

Condition

When Lewis appeared before Grund on the loitering charge in July, his case was continued until Oct. 11, with the condition the charge would be dismissed if Lewis, meanwhile, was not involved in any other trouble, court records show.

Police reported that Lewis and Chester L. Cavil, also 18, who said he lived at 1733 Lyon street, were arrested about midnight Thursday, Aug. 18 at 13th and Center streets in a car that had been reported stolen.

Plead Innocent

Lewis and Cavil pleaded innocent to the car theft charges and their bonds were set at $500 each pending a hearing Aug. 24. Cavil posted bond.

Lewis said in court that he entered the car, not knowing it had been stolen, after being offered a ride from a dance. Police said the car was owned by John Harrington of 1640 22nd street and was stolen there.

Driver Escaped

When a patrolman recognized the car as one reported stolen and stopped it at 13th and Center, the driver escaped on foot, police said.

YUL BRYNNER NAACP MEMBER

Hollywood, Calif. — Yul Brynner, the star of "The King and I" and other Broadway and Hollywood productions, has joined a growing list of famous artists and performers who have become $500 life members of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Announcement of Mr. Brynner's membership was made this week by Sammy Davis, Jr. who, earlier this year, succeeded Kivie Kaplan as chairman of the NAACP Life Membership Committee.

Other professionals who are NAACP life members include Sammy Davis, Jr. and his family; Miss Marian Anderson; Count Basie and his wife, Catherine; Harry Belafonte, James Brown, Ossie Davis and Miss Ruby Dee, Fats Domino, Duke Ellington, Mrs. Burt Lancaster, Leopold Stokowski, Joe Williams and Miss Teresa Wright.

Failed

A nationally known Negro with an intimate knowledge of Chicago predicted that Dr. King would fail in Chicago, where he succeeded in Alabama, because Daley is no Wallace. Daley would seem to yield to King's forays while actually maintaining the status quo.

But certainly no Negro is about to risk death by moving into pockets of white hatred such as Gage Park.

The younger, more militant Negro leaders believe that the problems of the slums can be attacked only by a political attack on the Daley machine's hammerlock over the Negro ghettos.

Taxpayers

The Kilburn organization, which functions in an all-white residential area around Kilbourn Park, said:

"The races spoke. Religion spoke. But, who spoke for the taxpayers of Chicago? We demand an equal voice and equal rights for the people who pay for these promises."

MRS. JOHNSON

Mrs. Rose Johnson, 1194 14th street, a teacher in the West Des Moines public school, announces that she is a Republican candidate for the Iowa House of representatives.

Born in Marshalltown, Ia., where she attended public school and the Junior college, she received her B.S. degree in education from Drake university in 1952. She continued work on her master's degree at the University of Iowa and at the University of Wisconsin.

Teacher

The past two years she taught at the Slinker school for Polk County Association of retarded. She taught adult education last summer.

She is an active member of the YWCA, Corinthian Baptist church, Council of Church Women; is past president of the Iowa State conference of the NAACP and Iowa Association of club women, past vice president of the Central Association of Club Women, past matron of Princess O'Ziel chapter No. 9 and for the past two years, served as secretary of the Travel study group of American Association of University Women.

Chicago Seventh NAACP City

New York — NAACP Director of Branches and Field Administration, Gloster B. Current, announced that officers for two new Chicago branches have been elected. Rev. E. Thornton is president of the North Chicago Branch, and James Couch, president of the West Chicago Branch.

They will be installed on Sept. 27 and 28, at which time their charter, which is to be approved by the National Board of Directors at its Sept. 12 meeting, will be presented.

This will make a total of seven cities in which the NAACP multiple branch program is now functioning. They are: New York City, Chicago, Houston, Dallas, Omaha, Los Angeles, and Kansas City, Mo.

Harlem Church

New York — Two top officers of Rep. Adam Clayton Powell's Harlem church have been replaced. Both have been opponents of Rep. Powell.

The two ousted officers are Mrs. Vashti Flowers, chairman, board of trustees, and Nathaniel Brown, church treasurer. Both were voted out of office at the Abyssinian Baptist church, of which Rep. Powell (D-N.Y.) is pastor.

The two long-time officials were thrown out in a dispute over purchase by the church of property on which a second mortgage was discovered. According to Rep. Powell, the second mortgage was not reported to the congregation.

Edward Beechum Wins at Modeling Show in Chicago

This year again James Piggee, nationally known model, attended the Little Foxes and The Hares convention in Chicago, Ill., and took with him one of his models, Edward Beechum of Des Moines, who also took part in the convention.

A new award for competition was offered—"Mr. or Mrs. Personality". Mr. Beechum won this title for the year of 1966. It proved a most exciting and enjoyable experience for him. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Beechum in Missouri.

Police Brutality Rally Fails

The police "inefficiency" rally ended Sunday nearly as quietly as it began, since only 11 people showed up.

James Dunn, an aggressive young social worker, said that he really hadn't expected much of a turnout.

"There is so much fear and apathy in Des Moines," he said. "The people here are so afraid of violence and of 'Mr. Charlie' that they stay away from any situation which should — and does — concern them. They don't want to have any commitment. Everyone I talked with exclaimed that they know about police brutality and they wanted it stopped. But where are they?"

Police

"Then, too, there's this 'Support your local Police' thing going, and the papers are really playing that up. A certain radio program announcer really tore us (leaders) apart. He brought up every police record he could find, and he urged the FBI to nab a few of us."

Larry Carter was vehement. "People don't want change, they don't want to think for themselves. So conditions get worse, but all anyone will do is talk about it.

Shotguns

"I'm all for police protection, but there's no need to shoot kids with shotguns to get it."

Dunn, who has worked with south-side residents, put his feelings of the Des Moines attitude this way: "Des Moines is nearly the only major Northern city whose slums still have outhouses. Outhouses in a 'progressive' city."

Head Start Delayed

School and anti-poverty officials here said Friday that a year-round Head Start program for about 30 needy pre-school children will be delayed until at least October because of a lack of funds.

Plans to begin the program Monday, the first day of school, have been shelved because Congress has not yet voted funds for the project.

The Polk County Community Action Council, planning arm for the war on poverty here, has requested $218,617 to run the program for the coming school year.

Second Priority

The Des Moines school system has agreed to provide 10 classrooms, the use of which is valued at $37,200, to meet the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) requirement for local matching funds.

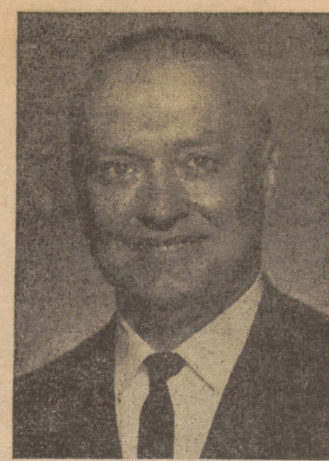

Letter

Dr. Robert Denny, Des Moines director of elementary education, said that as soon as the Des Moines project get the green light, local school officials will notify parents by letter when and where to send their children.

Head Start is an enrichment program for 4-year olds whose families meet OEO poverty requirements. It includes physical and dental examinations, special education projects and free breakfasts.

Clergymen Say Negro Church Too Concerned About Next World

New York — A group of Negro churchmen have charged that the Negro church too often concerns itself with the problems of the next world, instead of the "here and now."

"Too often the Negro church has stirred its members away from the reign of God in this world to a distorted and complacent view of an otherworldly conception of God's power," said the National Committee of Negro Churchmen.

"We commit ourselves as churchmen to make more meaningful in the life of our institution our conviction that Jesus Christ reigns in the 'here' and 'now' as well as in the future he brings in upon us."

"We shall, therefore, use more of the resources of our churches in working for human justice in the places of social change and upheaval where our Master is already at work."

Frederick Douglass' Autobiography Published

The "LIFE AND TIMES OF FREDERICK DOUGGLASS," adopted by Barbara Ritchie, was published on Aug. 15.

In 1842, Douglass wrote the first version of his autobiography. It was prepared in part to answer skeptics who could not believe that this literate, forceful young man had indeed been raised in slavery. As the years progressed and Douglass became an internationally known editor and speaker, he revised and enlarged his life story three times.

"LIFE AND TIMES OF FREDERICK DOUGGLASS," is a skillful abridgment of the 1892 edition of Douglass' autobiography. All of the words are his own, and they reveal to the modern reader the intellect and physical and moral courage of one of this country's greatest men.

Placebo The Make-Believe Medicine...

Do you remember the old time "medicine pitchman"? His long-winded spiel was really something! ... But staunch disciples extolled the virtues of his mystic tonic, the content of which was mostly moonshine.

Even the soft-spoken nice lady, a confirmed teetotaler, would stock-up on more pints; because, as she put it, "It makes me feel so good."

Man will be cured fastest when he believes he will be cured! For example, PLACEBO (a make-believe medicine prescribed merely to satisfy a patient) has been known to produce surprising "cures" on occasions.

But there's no "make believe" when we tell you that besides supplying ALL your drug-store needs at the RIGHT PRICE, we render EXTRA measures of SERVICE at Williams Pharmacy, 1103 University Ave., ... No foolin', that's how we keep and make friends!

Two events, widely separated in their context and intent, took place since last we went to press; both received little support. The first was the public reception at Willkie House, for Simon Estes, Des Moines bassist who has received world acclaim and for Miss Veronica Tyler who has received equal approbation from the world.

We realized to a little extent that perhaps the short time for extensive publicity of the event might have governed the size of the attendance but we maintain, not to the degree of the small number that showed up.

It has often been said that a man is without honor save in his own town; Des Moines residents had their chance; all they need have done was to take a few minutes to come in and congratulate the singers and go their way but so many did not and they all cannot claim that they did not know about it.

Miss Tyler, who in private life is married and the mother of a five year old daughter, was late arriving by plane and came direct from the airport to the Willkie House. But looking at her no one would have known it. A real trouper rises to the occasion no matter what the demands.

And Mr. Estes rose equally to the occasion with his wit and ready smile. From his actions and bearing he might have been facing a crowd of hundreds instead of just a handful. Because he realized that those who did come, did so because they wanted to come. His mother, beaming proudly all the while, seemed equally aware of the same fact.

The second event that took place was the meeting of persons who protest police brutality in Des Moines. An even smaller number showed up for this occasion. One of the leaders was quoted as saying "that all the people in Des Moines do is talk." While we don't always agree with the means that some groups use (and here we speak generally of the nation) to meet the end, we cannot argue with the latter statement. We are so emersed in our own little affairs that the affairs or events affecting our brother or neighbors hardly affect us. We have become a spineless garrulous nation.

However, talk with a purpose does have its most important place for this puts us about our lesser, violent self. There are so many ways to annihilation that we have become indifferent to until we are not aroused unless someone pull the trigger of a gun and then we are so incensed. The murder of dignity and self respect, one to another in our daily living, is so rampant and yet we accept almost blithely it as the American Way of life.

Some quote the Golden Rule which says, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," and others quote the Bible, "Love they neighbor as they self." Whichever, one you like, they both pack a wallop for human relations anywhere.

Mrs. Stanley Proctor, 1111 11th street, was telling us about their first family reunion held last month in Des Moines. It seems that their two daughters, kept them wondering who was who with their beautiful array of wigs. On several instances Mrs. Proctor, momentarily wondered if another guest had arrived in the household.

Among the visitors was a niece of Mrs. Proctor, Mrs. Wilbert (Dorothy) Harris, of New York City. She is employed as assistant superintendent of nurses at Goldwater Memorial hospital at the New York University Medical Center. Mrs. Harris is a graduate of Tuskegee Institute where she took nursing courses. Her husband is an assistant resident building superintendent for the New York Housing Authority.

Matthew Long II of Garner, N.C., was not able to be with the families because he has been in Saigon, Viet Nam since May working for the government as a civilian plumber. He is helping with installations there and will remain there 18 months before returning stateside.

Don't forget that Monday is a holiday and the Bystander office will be closed. If you should have news early mail or bring it to the Bystander office by Saturday. No staff member will be available to take phone call news at home. This work is all being done in the office now.

The Arzania Williams Motor to West Coast

Mr. and Mrs. Arzania S. Williams and son, Arzania, Jr., of 1189 10th street have returned from a motor trip to the west coast and other points of interest throughout the southwest.

While vacationing they visited and were lavishly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Shelton, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Shelton, Jr., of Denver, Colo.

They also visited the Grand Canyon and Hoover Dam in Arizona and stopped in Las Vegas, Nev., before continuing on to Los Angeles. While in L.A. they were the guests of Mrs. Effie Griffin Hall and family and were also entertained by Mrs. Jesse Fair, Mrs. Rose Cooper, Walter Buchanan and Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Willis. They also visited Disneyland, Marineland and saw the Dodgers play at the beautiful Chavez Ravine ball park.

The return trip home included visits to other scenic spots and another visit with the Sheltons in Denver.

Mrs. Lapsley Returns To St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. Kitty Lapsley of St. Louis, Mo., has spent the last three weeks with her niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bulce, 1070 17th street, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Bundy, Sr., 1315 Ascension.

This was Mrs. Lapsley's first visit to Des Moines. Aug. 15, Mrs. Bulce accompanied her by train to Kansas City, Mo., enroute to Mrs. Lapsley's home.

It is regrettable that last week the linotyper, who turned out to be so unskilled, had so many errors in our news stories last week which caused not only us embarrassment but also our readers and many of our regular church or club reporters. In the years that we have been on the paper, it has never happened like this and we hope it never happens again.

PRAISE OF WILLIE MAYS
WELL DESERVED

Roy Wilkins, Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, in his column in the Des Moines Sunday Register (August 28) praised Willie Mays for hitting 535 home runs during his baseball career. He became the greatest right hand home run hitter and second as a hitter only to the late Babe Ruth.

Mays drew further praise for having come from the cotton fields of Alabama to a national hero without engaging in such disturbances that are going on today, with a smile and good cheer which everybody has respected.

With this we fully agree. And there are others who are doing likewise. Most people like a good performer whether he is black or white. More so, America is giving youngsters more and more opportunities without regard to race, not because of the marches, but because it is the right thing to do and because it is the law.

The Bystander supports orderly protests when directed at some specific situation and only then when efforts to solve problems at the conference table have failed. We know that throwing rocks and bottles at other people does absolutely no good. On the other hand such conduct hurts the participant and his neighbors as well.

Willie has had far less chance than most youngsters for he could not read nor write before leaving Alabama. He did some studying which has paid off.

There are too many warchers crying "I can't get a job or a break because I am black."

DES MOINES MOVES

ON IN EDUCATION

The independent school district in Des Moines has hired five new Negro teachers for the current year. There are 30 Negro teachers in the system, deployed in grade, junior, and high-school. Undoubtedly more Negroes might have been hired. There is a shortage of teachers in most states.

The Negro force is a far cry from the beginning of a couple of supply teachers. The first regular one hired was Mrs. Harriet Curly Bruce.

Several years prior to hiring any Negro teachers, a movement got on foot to make Logan an all Negro school with all Negro teachers. This program was opposed on the ground that Des Moines wanted no Negro schools and to start hiring Negro teachers on this basis would keep them confined to Logan school.

Committees from the NAACP and the Interracial Commission initiated numerous sessions with the school administration including the late A. A. Alexander, S. Joe Brown, Rev. Briggs, the then pastor of Grace Methodist Church and Casper Schenk who succeeded in securing a pledge that opportunities would be offered to qualified teachers without regard to race. A few others not named here served on the committee.

Fortunately Harriet Curly met that test and she became the first full time Negro teacher in the system. The administration gave her an assignment which indicated that no strings were tied to her work. She became a bright star with the system.

Of course, there were some who objected but the administration stood its ground and was well supported by substantial citizens of Des Moines.

Many of these teachers have done exceptionally well — men and women — because they prepared themselves, kept abreast of the times with the education changes and merited the confidence and respect of their fellow teachers and the public.

IOWA HEART FUND SETS
ALL TIME HIGH $442,960.30

Heart research, professional and public education and community service will be accelerated as a result of the record breaking $442,960.30 raised during fiscal 1965-66. This report was released today by the Iowa Heart Association upon recording its tenth year of war on the diseases of the heart and circulatory system.

According to the final 1966 Heart Fund Report, all sources in income show an increase: Campaign, $365,219.69, up $18,296.55; Memorials, $42,407.42, up $5,881.67; and Bequests, $35,333.59, up $13,740.38.

One of the Register night sports-writers gave us this column on the late Duke Slater. It is such a series of tributes that we thought most of it worth passing on. They came from Al Grady's column in the Iowa City Citizen.

Oh yes, we are reserving judgment on the Warriors until after this Sunday.

The Slater tribute follows: "Some interesting comments came in a letter from G. D. (Bill) Evans of Oak Park, Ill., who was a contemporary of Slater at Iowa."

"Duke, a national figure and easily Iowa's most publicized athlete and rightly so, was often in demand as a speaker from coast to coast at civic and athletic banquets.

"One honor in this field of which he was extremely proud was a luncheon given him by the Los Angeles City Council, the citation in the form of a certificate which hung on his judicial chamber walls."

"The event occurred when Illinois played in a Rose Bowl and Duke was the guest of Burt Ingwersen, the former Iowa Coach who had been a high school teammate of Slater in Clinton, Iowa."

"Ingwersen commented at that gathering: 'No man who ever knocked down so many people ever had so many friends. More than 50 years ago we played Aurora, Ill., and after the game the crowd headed for Slater with rough intentions. Duke backed up against a big tree and invited them, one at a time, and the crowd changed from howlers to cheerers.' (That team had its 50th anniversary two weeks ago, but Duke was too sick to attend.)"

"MORE PEOPLE ATTENDED his visitation and rites than saw him play on old Iowa Field in some games as a freshman in World War I. The church auditorium was banked on three sides with floral tributes, one of which was a U of I design with a football centerpiece in the university colors."

"A few of the other tributes were from Ernie Nevers, George Halas and the Chicago Bears, Fritz Pollard, Chicago Alumni Club of Iowa, the Iowa athletic department and from many civic and professional organizations of which Slater was a member."

"Of the active pallbearers, two were Iowa athletes in the 1930s, Ozzie Simmons and Sherman Howard. Honorary pallbearers from the Iowa alumni of Chicago included Robert Hunter, Frank Uriel, C. O. Michaelson and L. J. Haddad."

"Among those who came to pay their final respects were people from all walks of life, from the man on the street to the professional field, from Mayor Daley to Chief Justice John Boyle."

"In his remarks at the services Boyle said, 'He was a top lawyer, a perfect gentleman, highly regarded by fellow judges, humble, a leader, very religious and a man who set a fine example for the youth of our country—a real leader.' Mayor Daley termed Slater, 'The best there is in citizenship and judgment.'"

"DUKE WAS OLD GOLD and a 'pro' all the way. He wore Old Gold as an athlete. The cover of the book, 'Slater of Iowa,' pictured him in an Old Gold uniform within the confines of a block I. An old Gold and Black floral design of chrysanthemums, from the family, rested on the top of his casket."

"Three days before he was hospitalized, I visited him in his chambers and after much yardage had been gained, he suggested a sandwich. As we parted, he left with his customary remark, 'It's been good talking to you again. I'll be seeing you soon.' But he never did."

HEALTH FOR ALL

Something should be done about the use of pep-up drugs by athletes, if you accept the viewpoint of Dr. Rene Guillet. And many people do accept it; in fact, he recently was awarded a prize by the French Academy of Medicine for his work in the medical aspects of sports.

The problems raised by athletes taking drugs to improve their performance aren't confined to France. Now and again the situation crops up in our own country, and worried questions are heard from parents of school and college sports gladiators.

Harmless

Even though the get-up-and-go drugs may be harmless in ordinary doses, Dr. Guillet points out, nobody knows how closely a young athlete will stick to the norm when an important competition is at hand. Spreading, although the efficacy of most of them has never been scientifically proved," he remarked in an interview published in Medical

Dangerous

Dr. Guillet believes the taking of drugs by athletes is bad not only in a medical but in a more absolute sense. The practice, he said, is "not only dangerous for the physical health of the athlete, but also for his moral health. It is obviously contrary to every decent principle of sportsmanship, and the athletes know it."

Disillusion

D.M. Boys Club Organized
For Less Privileged Boys

Plans for opening a Boys' Club of Des Moines, a youth-guidance agency, and the appointment of the club's executive director were announced Saturday by Miles Mills, acting president of the board of directors. Mills is one of several civic leaders who have helped organize a local Boys' Club since the idea was first proposed by the late E. T. Meredith, a longtime supporter of the Boys' Club movement.

Location

The club, which is affiliated with Boys' Clubs of America, will be located in an existing building at 1435 East Grand, formerly a Safeway supermarket. According to Mills, work has already begun on renovating the club's future quarters. When completed sometime this fall, the facilities will include games rooms, library, woodshop, arts and crafts area, physical fitness area, meeting rooms and showers. Eventually a gymnasium will also be constructed at the site.

Less Privileged

"Although Boys' Clubs are primarily set up for less privileged youngsters," Mills said, "membership will be open to every boy from 7 to 18 years old. The club will offer an interesting and diversified program, including physical education, social recreation, cultural and vocational activities."

Ray F. Keating, 38, has been named executive director of the newly formed organization. Expressing the need for a Boys' Club in Des Moines, Keating said: "Even if every existing youth agency doubled its present capacity, they still could not accommodate all the youngsters who need healthy outlets and guidance during their leisure time hours."

Iowa, Fairest on Earth

(song)

By Carrie E. Earley
You may sing of the glorious mountains
And their snow capped peaks so high:

I can sing of a sight that is fairer,
That delights while it rests the eye:
'Tis the beautiful rolling prairie
Where the green hills meet the blue sky.

Oh—There's a land that is fairer and dearer
Than any strange country on earth,
Where the breezes sweep over the prairie,
In the beautiful land of my birth,
grander,

—Thanks to Leo Anthony St. John

"I can't understand why some companies are willing to spend the money and the effort to bring a man 5,000 miles to this country for a job, while there is a source of willing labor right in their own back yard," Mr. Holmes said.

"The labor market may be a tight

And the sunlight kisses the green fields

Of old Iowa—fairest on Earth.
You may sing of the grand old ocean
When the white sails its breast adorn:

I am sure there is a sight that is
In the dear land where I was born—
When to warm winds ruffles the green waves
In a field of old Iowa's corn.

You may sing of magnificent mansions,
Of the castles on the Rhine;
They can never bring rest to the homesick,
For their splendor I do not pine,
But I long for the little old farm house
On that dear childhood home of mine.

—Thanks to Leo Anthony St. John

one for white workers, but Negro unemployment is still around the 8 per cent mark, and shows no signs of declining. Company money and energies should go into training programs for unemployed and underemployed Negro workers."

Laugh Lines

The doctor's waiting room was so full that some patients were standing. There was desultory conversation, but after a while silence fell. The patients waited.

Finally an old man stood up wearily and said, "Well, I guess I'll go home and die a natural death." Little boy, on being presented with a stuffed dog: "But I wanted one that was made out of dog."
