Ministerial Alliance Charges Poor Service

Dan Lee Law, 49, of 946 Fifteenth street, who apparently suffered a stroke Tuesday, died Sunday night at Veterans Hospital.

Law was born in Oklahoma City, Okla., and lived in Des Moines 30 years. He was recently a porter at the Des Moines Club, and he served in World War II.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Diana Winfrey and Miss Johanna Law, both of Des Moines; a son, Dan, Jr., of Des Moines; his father, Willie Law of Kansas City, Mo.; three sisters, Mrs. Juanita Hall, Mrs. Ida Bell and Mrs. Mayola Wease, all of Des Moines; two brothers, Billy of Kansas City and Joe Stewart of Des Moines; and one grandson.

Services were at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at Union Baptist Church. Burial was at Glendale Cemetery.

In response to family and friends' dissatisfaction, the Rev. Seymour Gaines, executive secretary of the inter-denominational Ministerial Alliance, and minister of Union Baptist Church, lead a mass prayer meeting yesterday at Broadlawn Polk County Hospital in connection with the death of Mr. Law.

Law apparently suffered a stroke while in the City Jail, after being arrested Oct. 25 on an intoxication charge. When he became unconscious there, he was taken to Broadlawn, but examining physicians couldn't find anything wrong with him and sent him back to jail.

Stretcher

When Law appeared before Judge Ray Harrison on a stretcher, the Judge dismissed the charge in order for Law to enter Veterans Hospital. (A rule there forbids persons with a record to be admitted to Veter-

Transportation Available to Voters

Members of the Civitan Club of Des Moines will furnish transportation to the polls on Nov. 8 for the handicapped and aged, regardless of political affiliation.

Cars would be available on Election Day between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

The handicapped and the aged are invited to call the Goodwill Industries office, 288-3338, to schedule a ride to the polls, giving their addresses and extent of handicaps.

Telephones will be open to receive these calls starting Monday, Nov. 7, at 8:30 a.m. and continuing through Tuesday until 4:30 p.m.

New Class Begins At YWCA; Held Tuesdays

A new class will be held Nov. 1, 8 and 15 at the Y.W.C.A. This is a series on Understanding Menopause and will be held on Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m.

Prominent women doctors will serve as resource persons for the lecture-discussion group. Participating doctors are Dr. Mary Louise Lyons, Physician; Dr. Beverly Robinson, Gynecologist and Dr. Ada Terel, psychiatrist. Registration fee for the series is $1.50. Advance registration is requested.

"This type of thing has gone on before at Broadlawn," said the Rev. Gaines, "not only to Negroes but to poor white people as well."

"Previously Hoby Ward was sent to Broadlawn in very poor condition, but the hospital refused him. It wasn't until Robert Jackson, (with the Logan Opportunity Center) demanded that he be re-admitted, that they accepted him. Mr. Ward died the next morning."

Prayer

Rev. Gaines said the prayer would be for the Board of Directors and the entire staff of the hospital and would be aimed at "getting more consideration for more people."

N.Y. Youth 'Revolt' Turns to Approval

New York. — What was heralded in the New York press as a youth revolt against policies of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at the annual convention of the New York State NAACP in Lido Beach, Oct. 21-23, turned out, in the main, to be a reaffirmation of the national NAACP position.

Revolt

The youth action was pictured as a revolt within a revolt inasmuch as sharp criticism of the national policies had been voiced by certain adults, self-styled as "Young Turks," among the 644 delegates attending the conference. The youth delegation, reportedly, walked out of the resolutions sessions demanding stronger statements than those being considered by the young Turk-led adults. They called the pending resolutions "the same tired old platitudes" and urged adoption of resolutions dealing with ghetto problems.

Resolutions

The set of resolutions presented by the youth of their return to the session was, according to The New York Times, "enthusiastically adopted" by the conference.

The youth resolutions, NAACP Executive Director Roy Wilkins later noted, "are essentially the resolutions adopted last July by the delegates to the Association's 57th annual national convention in Los Angeles. In effect and, sometimes, in the very language, the resolutions re-affirmed positions taken at Los Angeles on housing, consumer protection, employment, Negro business, education and police abuse. Some of the Los Angeles resolutions went further than those of the New York youth."

Brooke, who won a second term as Massachusetts attorney general by the largest vote margin polled by a G.O.P. candidate in election in 1964, now holds 57 per cent of the vote, against 31 per cent for his Democratic opponent, former Gov. Endicott (Chub) Peabody.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Atlanta, Ga. — Former Gov. Ellis Arnall has been endorsed Friday by the Atlanta Negro Voters League, in a write-in campaign. However, if no one candidate polls a majority and the legislature has to choose, of Lester Maddox and Howard Callaway, staunch segregationists, Maddox would be selected.

New York, N.Y. — Dr. David E. Gardiner of Ohio University will write a new article on French-speaking West Africa for the 1967 issue of Collier's Encyclopedia. In his article for Collier's, he will discuss the histories of African nations.

New York.—The "Crisis and Commitment" declaration issued by seven of the nation's top Negro leaders has been widely hailed as a constructive restatement of civil rights goals and as an eloquent call for continued bi-racial action to eliminate racial segregation and other forms of discrimination.

Five leaders of national organizations have since endorsed the statement and added their signatures.

Omaha, Nebr. — Robert Harris, noted pianist and teacher, has been appointed to the Juilliard School of Music piano faculty, preparatory division, for the current academic year, 1966-67. Earlier in his career, he was the first Negro appointed to the Juilliard Extension faculty.

LONDON, ENGLAND — The British Army has dropped its last color bar. Henceforth, colored soldiers can be recruited into any part of the British Army. The regiments now opened to color recruits are the Footguards, the Household Cavalry, and the Highland and Lowland Brigades. They may join certain socially exclusive regiments that had excluded them by a confidential War Office memorandum of 1964.

Washington, D.C. — Nonwhite participation in the U.S. force is expected to increase at a much faster pace than that of white over the next 15 years, according to a report in the September issue of the Labor Department's Monthly Labor Review.

Huntleys are Listed In Who's Who

St. Louis, Mo. — Dr. Thomas Elliott Huntley is a biography subject in Marquis (Who's Who) in the mid-west.

His name appears in volume six and seven, and the recent release of volume ten. The biography of his wife is also listed. Her name is Elizabeth Maddox Huntley.

Composer

Mrs. Huntley is in for her accomplishments as a composer of hymns and anthems.

Dr. Huntley's biographical sketch appears also in the Dictionary of Negro Ministers in America, which is edited by Mrs. Ethel Williams, librarian at Howard University.

He is also listed as an author in foreign languages in the Dictionary of International Platform and Association published by Scarecrow Press New York and London 1965.

Chief issue in the next Tuesday's election is the low-rent, public housing. The proposal is to construct up to 600 units of federal low-rent housing here, to rent up to 200 units of existing housing and to rehabilitate up to 50 units.

Opposing the housing program are the Des Moines Area Citizens Fair Tax Association, Greater Des Moines Board of Realtors and the Iowa Builders Association.

William Poorman, chairman of the Des Moines Low Rent Housing Agency, explained last August that the federally backed bond issues financing the project would cost the city nothing.

10 per cent of the rents collected in the housing project would be paid to the city in lieu of taxes and would be "about double" what the city would get in property taxes.

"We are five years behind," said Wendell Gibson, member of the housing agency. "There has been a great deal of human misery which need not have been caused."

In an open meeting Monday, an audience of about 50 opposing the plan shot at the agency the same questions asked at meetings held all over the city recently.

Among the questions and answers at the session were:

Will the public housing units be furnished? Mr. William Poorman said the only furnishing will be stoves and refrigerators.

Who will select the people to live in the public housing units? An agency member said the housing agency, which is appointed by the City council, will select a placement officer and make rules for him to follow in choosing the families and in choosing the families and elderly persons for the units.

The Board of Realtors and Home Builders Association say that the city could help the elderly and the poor by private rentals, citing a program which currently carries a fund of $13,000 a year, never completely used.

Their plan is for substandard housing to be condemned by the city, with supplemental rent payment made for better housing.

The Low rent housing project had been defeated in 1961.

The scheduled meeting for public housing at Willkie House Monday night was concluded within a few minutes of its opening, when John Estes, Jr. and John McCormick, members of the Public Housing Authority found all the same opposing group of people there.

Mr. Estes asked for questions which hadn't been asked before to

D.M. Wants Police And Deputy Bailiff

The Des Moines Civil Service Commission has announced an entrance examination for Police Patrolman and Deputy Bailiff to be held at the Armory Building, East st and Des Moines streets Saturday, Nov. 19, at 1 p.m.

Application forms may be obtained from the Civil Service Commission office, City Hall, Room 106, on or before Nov. 14.

Applicants must be 22-32 years old, a citizen of U.S., an Iowa resident for one year, and have at least a high school education.

Each applicant shall, prior to the application return, be fingerprinted. This is an absolute requirement before the document will be considered acceptable.

be aired. There were none, so the meeting adjourned.

"Everyone knew the answers, anyway," said Mr. Estes. "The same questions—Iowa law versus the Federal law, the Oakridge and Scott street people's probability of moving in, property evaluation—they had their answers."

"But the public housing has a real strong chance of winning if Negroes get out and vote."

National Guests for Cosmetiste Clinic

The Cosmetiste Club of Crescent Beauty Shop will hold their nationwide clinic Sunday and Monday, Nov. 13-14. Artists from all over the country will be guests for the annual affair.

Clara Ward Singers to Perform in Viet Nam

Philadelphia, Pa. — Gospel singer Clara Ward will take her troupe to Viet Nam for a month's tour of the battle front to entertain the soldiers.

Perturbed over the fact that few Negro performers have made the journey to the Far East nation where American and GIs of other nations are fighting on the battlefields, Miss Ward canceled out five weeks of engagements to take up the offer of the United States State Department and the United Service Organization. She will leave from Los Angeles on Nov. 9 and begin the tour of Army, Navy and Air Force installations on Nov. 14.

Moral

"Until a few weeks ago I never realized how desperately performers were needed over there to boost the morale of our fighting men," she said. "I feel that the Ward Singers can help give the men a touch of home as our music is religious and our special treatment of their favorite hymns and gospel songs will help uplift their spirits."

One rare thing about MARVE SPENCER AND THE CAVALIERS is that they're still together, since it's a common thing for a rock 'n' roll group to organize today and split up tomorrow.

These guys have been together about four and a half years and have played their rhythm and blues, James Brown style and jazz notes all over Iowa.

The CAVALIERS — Steve Gleason on drums, Gary Grimmes, sax; Dominic Judaschetti, lead guitar and Joe Hernados guitar, had been playing teen dances, the usual run, when they met up with Marv in Waterloo's Electric Park (where Duke Ellington was not long ago).

Marv has hopes for he and the boys to go on tour. They have made some demos (for you record fans — send me a definition), and not too far back cut a record at Studio I in East Moline, Ill.

Marv, 28, born in Marshalltown, has hit up theaters in New York as a single and also was on the road with the UPSETTERS, who used to play behind Little Richard. He traveled around for about a year and a half.

"The difference between a professional and an amateur is that a pro is more stable, has more experience and therefore more confidence.

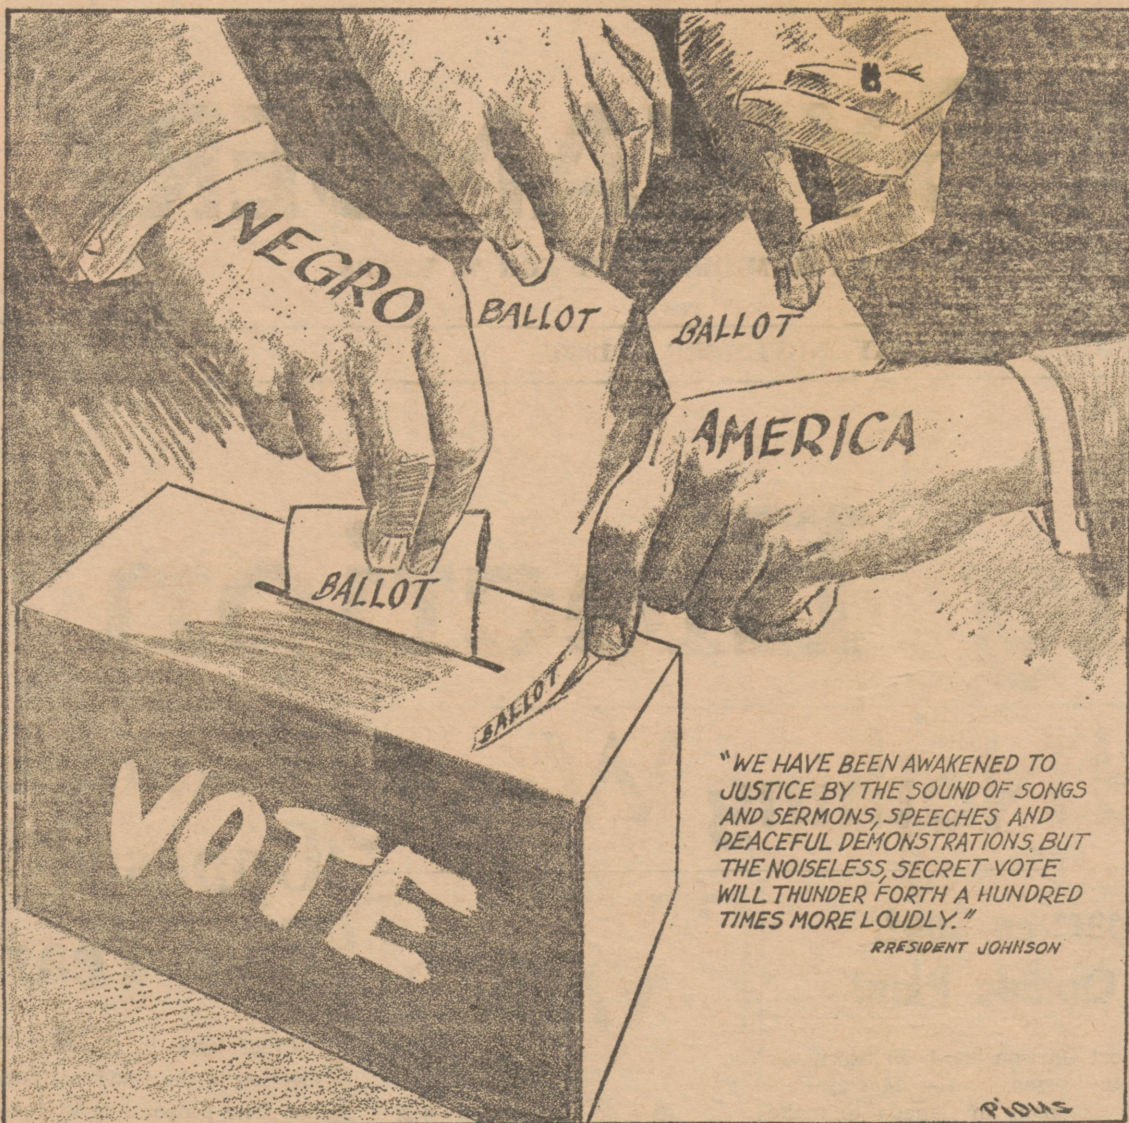

"But an amateur is billing himself, he has to prove that he's good, sometimes starting out with an amateur band until he can make it on his own.

"I met the Upsetters in Denver, by chance. They didn't have a vocalist, so they took me. I had to leave them, though, because it's too rough for an amateur."

FAVORITES — MISTY, PLEASE, PLEASE, MO-HAIR SAM, HOLD ON, and anything by James Brown and Buddy Rich.

Hernandez Resignation Is Blemish on Pres. Adm.

Washington, D.C. — "Evidence is mounting that the Johnson Administration is giving only lip service to civil rights and to the whole cause of Negro progress. The Administration is high on promises and talk, and low on performance and results," said Clarence Townes, Jr., Special Republican Committee Assistant this week.

"The present Democratic Administration makes much of the civil rights measures that it has pushed through Congress, or has sponsored before Congress. But forgetfulness, lack of enthusiasm, and political manipulation seem to be the prevailing pattern for enforcement of civil rights measures that have passed by Congress.

In "Yankee Lawyers in Mississippi Courts" in the November issue of Harper's Magazine, Hammer reports on the heroic role which northern attorneys have played in the civil rights struggle the past two years.

IN THE NEWS

Viola Taylor, of 1056 10th street, reported a television set valued at $170 vanished while she was at work;

Mrs. Dorothy Manuel, of 1425 Maryland avenue, was reported in fair condition Friday afternoon at Broadlawn Polk County Hospital after suffering burns in a bed fire late that morning.

She suffered burns under her right arm and chest area.

Fire Department officials reported the blaze was restricted to the bed;

Pleading innocent before Municipal Judge Ray Harrison was William Franklin Gaines, 18, of 1437 11th street.

Gaines, whose hearing was scheduled for Nov. 17, and two young lads were arrested Thursday night after, according to police, they fled from a stolen car near E. 14th and Buchanan streets.

He was sent to Polk County jail in lieu of posting $1,000 bond, and the boys, ages 13 and 15, were referred to Polk County Juvenile Court.

"A few days ago Mrs. Aileen Hernandez, the senior member of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, resigned her job, which paid a handsome salary of $26,000 a year. She had been appointed for five years, a longer term than any other member of this key civil rights body.

"No one in official circles would say anything about why she quit. But news dispatches said she had resigned because she was dissatisfied with the rate at which the Commission was solving disputes with labor and management over equal employment opportunities.

"The resignation of Mrs. Hernandez left six top-level positions vacant on the Commission. Aside from the position vacated by Mrs. Hernandez, another commissioner-ship and four other major executive positions were unfilled.

"Here is a Government agency set up to see that the Negro has an equal opportunity in the competition for jobs, which everyone agrees is a primary need of the Negro if he is to break out of the ghetto and stand on an equal footing with white Americans. Yet this agency has idled along, unmanned to a large degree by top personnel, a neglected stepchild among the Government agencies over which the President himself presides."

Facts You Should Know About Job Corps

Job Corps is a voluntary national residential training program for out-of-school, out-of-work, underprivileged young men and women. Job Corps enrollees must be:

- (1) 16-21 years old
- (2) citizens or permanent residents of the United States
- (3) school dropouts for three years
- (4) unable to find or hold an adequate job
- (5) under privileged from having grown up in impoverished surroundings
- (6) in need of a change of environment in order to become useful and productive citizens

The primary goal of the Job Corps is to prepare young men and women for jobs in which they can earn a decent living.

Enrollees may be assigned to three types of residential training centers:

- (1) Conservation Centers — located on public lands operated by the Department of Interior and the

S. Party Candidate 'No' Barring Board

New York. — Paul Boutelle, Socialist Workers Party candidate for Attorney General, has called for "a resounding No vote on the Conservative-PBA proposition to bar civilian control of the police. 'We regard their drive as permeated with racism and reaction.'"

Mr. Boutelle said of the present board set up by Mayor Lindsay: "We consider this board a mockery of the concept of a civilian review board. It is a police board with a few 'respectable' upper-middle class civilian figures added for window dressing. The simple, incredible fact that members of the Police Department are assigned to investigate the complaints filed with this board underlines what a caricature of a real review board it is."

Department of Agriculture

(2) Urban Centers for Men — frequently located on demilitarized Federal installations, operated under contract

(3) Urban Centers for Women — located in urban areas, usually on leased facilities, also operated under contract

The Conservation Centers are primarily located in national parks, forests and grasslands. These centers accommodate 100 to 200 enrollees who perform long needed conservation work while acquiring basic education and work skills.

Under the supervision of experienced members of the Forest Service, National Park Service, Bureau of Indian Affairs, and the Bureau of Land Management, Reclamation, Sports, Fisheries and Wildlife, enrollees learn basic skills such as surveying, forestry, weed and pest control, fire prevention and control, and hand and power tool operation. In addition to basic education courses conducted by experienced teachers and counselors, enrollees receive training in nutrition, personal Hygiene and physical fitness.

The Urban Centers for men offer intensive and specialized vocational training. These Centers accommodate 1,900 to 3,000 enrollees and are established on unused military bases and other facilities near urban areas.

Urban Centers are established and operated under contracts with businesses, educational and social service agencies and universities. These organizations recruit and employ all center staffs.

Re-Elect Jack

MILLER

U. S. Senator (REPUBLICAN)

Iowa's United States Senator Jack Miller wishes good luck to Attorney General Edward Brooke, Republican candidate for United States Senator from Massachusetts. "We need men like you in the Senate — keep fighting!" Senator Miller told him.

If elected, Brooke will be the first Negro member of the Senate since Reconstruction Days. At last report, he was leading in his bid for the Senate. He is a life-long Republican.

Your United States Senator, Jack Miller, has demonstrated courageous leadership in the cause of human rights during his legislative career. As a member of the Iowa State Senate, he drafted and introduced a bi-partisan bill to establish a Human Rights Commission for Iowa. He has been praised by such human rights leaders as Roy Wilkins and Doctor Martin Luther King (see last two issues of the Bystander) for his vote for cloture to stop the filibuster on the Civil Rights Act of 1964, for his vote for the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and for his vote for the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

Jack Miller's amendment to the Civil Rights Act of 1964 took partisan politics out of the Civil Rights Commission; and his amendment to the Voting Rights Act of 1965 will prevent vote frauds which could undermine the Act's effectiveness. "Education is the key to the poverty problem," he said, and backed up these words with his vote for the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, which will assist underprivileged children in obtaining a good education.

Of Des Moines, Iowa

Equity No. 146826

CITY OF DES MOINES, IOWA, Plaintiff,

vs.

THE MARRIC COMPANY,

UNKNOWN HEIRS OF WILLIAM

JOHN AND MARGARET RUMBAUGH,

DECEASED. Defendants.

TO THE ABOVE NAMED

You and each of you are hereby notified that the Petition of the above-named plaintiff, in the above entitled action is now on file in the office of the Clerk of the above-named Court, which Petition prays that the structure located on the premises located in Polk County, Iowa, legally described as follows, to-wit: The S 3/4 of Lot 3 Block 59 in Town of De Moines, now included in and forming a part of the City of Des Moines, Iowa, and locally known as 713 S. E. 6th, Des Moines, Iowa, be declared to be a public nuisance.

Said Petition prays (a) that the Court declare the structure situated on the above-described premises to be a public nuisance and enter an Order, directing the owners of said premises or those claiming an interest therein to immediately abate said public nuisance by demolishing and removing said structure at their own expense, and (b) that in the event such has not been done within 10 days from the date of said Order, to authorize and direct this plaintiff to abate said nuisance, by entering upon said premises and demolishing and removing said structure, and (c) to assess the cost thereof, including the costs of this action against said premises as provided in Sections 368.3 and 368.9, Code of Iowa, 1962.

For further particulars see said Petition now on file.

No personal judgement is sought against any defendant.

YOU ARE FURTHER NOTIFIED to appear before said Court at the Municipal Court House of the City of Des Moines, Iowa, located at East 1st and Court Avenue, Des Moines, Iowa, on or before November 30, 1966, and that unless you so appear, your default will be entered and judgment or decree will be rendered for the relief prayed for in said Petition.

Rev. Blake Celebrates Golden Anniversary in Ill.

Springfield, Ill.—Golden Anniversary services will be held for Rev. David A. Blake, well-known church and civic leader.

Rev. Blake, former pastor of St. Paul A.M.E. Church in Des Moines, and a former presiding elder in the Michigan conference of the A.M.E. Church, is now entering his sixth year as pastor of St. Paul A.M.E. Church here.

There will be two testimonial services, first one Thursday, Nov. 10, at St. Stephens A.M.E. Church, Detroit, Mich. The Rev. Martin Luther Simmons, pastor of St. Stephens, is general chairman of the anniversary services.

Candidates Final Bids

Congressman John R. Schmidhauser Sunday told Davenport and Bettendorf housewives: "One of the significant issues dividing my opponent and myself is that I have been a strong supporter of legislation to protect the consumer from false or misleading advertising, from hidden interest charges in lending, and from the higher meat prices which result from monopolistic tendencies in cattle-feeding by chain stores and packing corporations."

"I believe Iowans are entitled to forthright direct representation and not a rubber stamp man. I am running for Fifth District Congressman to help bring about the change needed in Washington," Don Mahon, Fifth District Republican Candidate spoke to those in attendance at the opening of the Republican Headquarters in Zearing last Saturday.

"There is no reason to believe the administration will do any better in money matters in the next two years than it has in the past four years. Iowa cannot afford to waste another two years in getting its financial house in order."

"As governor, I will promote economic programs which will give Iowans much-needed property tax relief, increase state aid to schools and provide the funds to improve our roads and state institutions."

Street Disorder Problem of Church

Philadelphia, Pa. — Bishop Ozro T. Jones, Sr., senior bishop of the Church of God in Christ, made a pre-annual convocation challenge to all churches this week saying they should step up the application of spiritual guidance to correct the evils which cause ugliness and disorder in the streets of our cities. He issued the statement before leaving for official trips to New Orleans and Kansas City enroute to the annual general convocation of the Church of God in Christ which meets in Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 8-18.

Bishop Jones, who organized the huge and growing youth corps group of the church and also wrote the church manual, emphasized his goal at this convocation as bringing continued growth to the one million member affiliated denomination, absolute unity, and increased involvement in the affairs of the everyday life community which surround hundreds of churches within his entire denomination's jurisdiction.

Wedlock

"Family life among our people is in trouble," Bishop Jones told reporters at an interview at Holy Temple in Philadelphia. "The church must recognize its proper role and must not leave to state agencies the sole care, guidance and assistance of broken homes, fatherless children, and children born out of wedlock."

Headquarters for the convocation will be at the C. H. Mason Hall, named after the founder of the brotherhood, Bishop C. H. Mason.

Grenada Staff Stripped Of Garments and Beaten

ATLANTA, GA., — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Friday demanded that the U.S. Justice Department act immediately to halt brutal treatment and intimidation of Negro school children and adults in Grenada, Miss.

In a telegram to Acting Attorney General Ramsey Clark, Dr. King told how Negro students at two integrated schools in Grenada have been subjected to physical and verbal abuse. He also emphasized that parents and children have been mistreated in jails after being arrested in peaceful demonstrations.

Beaten

Seven arrested staff members of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference were taken outside jail in Grenada last week and beaten by local police and state troopers. They were denied medical attention.

More than 100 demonstrators were taken to a State penitentiary at Parchmann, Miss., where women prisoners were stripped of all but their undergarments and each male prisoner was issued a pair of pants. They were subjected to deliberate use of the prison air conditioning system. The prisoners also have been threatened and verbally abused.

Dr. King's telegram stated: "A Justice Department suit led to a federal court order to integrate Lizzie Horn Elementary School and John Rundle High School in Grenada last month. Ever since, more than 100 Negro students have endured, inside and outside these schools, constant harassment, taunts, profanities and threats from white students, teachers, principals, local police and State troopers."

Slapped

On Oct. 19, an official of Lizzie Horn School threw a Negro boy against a table and then expelled him because he refused to give up his seat in a lunchroom where he was eating with white students. On the same day a teacher at the school slapped a Negro girl for sitting at a lunch table with whites.

Negro parents, concerned about the safety of their children, withdrew the pupils from the integrated schools on Oct. 21. School authorities suspended the pupils until Nov. 1, and repeatedly refused to meet with the Negro parents.

WHAT ARE THE FACTS

ABOUT PUBLIC HOUSING IN DES MOINES?

LET'S CLEAR THE RECORD!

We gladly accept the social responsibility all of us in Des Moines share for doing what we can to house the indigent and the elderly. But the current proposal before the voters of Des Moines is so unrealistic that we must voice our opposition.

WHAT IS BEING PROPOSED?

This public housing proposal calls for 850 housing units, including 600 units of new construction, 50 units to be rehabilitated from existing structures and another 200 to be leased or subleased.

WHAT IS THE COST?

The 50 rehabilitated units carry a maximum cost of $875,000, or an average cost of $17,500 per unit. The 200 leased or subleased units have no price tag in this referendum. The 600 new units call for a maximum expenditure of $12 million. This averages $20,000 per family unit. Proponents hope the cost will be closer to $15,000 per unit, but even this compares with the fair market value of the average home in Des Moines of $11,630. These figures are from the city assessor's office.

WILL DES MOINES TAX MONEY BE USED TO BUILD THE PUBLIC HOUSING UNITS?

No... not to build the units. Government-guaranteed, tax-exempt bonds will be used to pay construction and site acquisition costs. But all federal taxpayers help retire these bonds... you and me. But what about the sewer and water mains that have to be extended to these units? What about the street rebuilding program that will be necessary. What about the shift in population of the school children and the additions or new schools that will have to be built in these areas? What about the cost of redistribution of police and fire protection, of garbage pickup, of street cleaning and snow removal? HOW CAN THE CITY DO ALL THIS WITHOUT SPENDING CITY TAX MONEY?

WILL THE CITY LOSE TAX REVENUE FROM THE PROPERTIES TO BE TAKEN?

No one knows exactly how much property will be taken to build these public housing units, but no matter what it is, it will come off the city tax rolls. The properties within the project boundaries have a valuation of approximately $800,000, and now pay about $28,000 annually in taxes.

The properties within the referendum area (more inclusive than the project area because of the possibilities of new streets, recreational areas, etc.) have an approximate valuation of almost $3 million. This area brings to the city $102,000 annually in taxes. So for the 600 new units proposed, the city will lose somewhere between $28,000 and $102,000 annually in taxes.

DO PUBLIC HOUSING UNITS PAY TAXES?

The public housing agency will be permitted to make a payment to the city in lieu of taxes of not more than 10 per cent of its bare shelter rental income. Shelter rent means what is left after utilities are paid. Average rent in public housing units across the country have been about $45 a month. This leaves about $35 a month bare shelter rent. On this basis, the 600 new units could make token payments to the city of about $25,000 a year. But this is not mandatory, as other taxes are. It is not mandatory to pay anything to the city for city services.

ARE PUBLIC HOUSING UNITS REALLY NEEDED?

There have been some guesses. A city report by an out-of-town expert said there is a need for a minimum of 2,000 public housing units. This 2,000 figure conveniently matches the number of families in Des Moines with $3,000 or less annual income, according to the 1960 census. This information was gathered in 1958 and 1959, and personal incomes have risen considerably in the last 7 or 8 years. The needs of the displaced families in the River Hills urban renewal project were met without public housing.

WHAT ARE THE INCOME LIMITS FOR THOSE WHO LIVE IN PUBLIC HOUSING?

Combined man and wife income may not exceed $3,600 per year ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME (that's the final figure you pay federal income tax on after certain deductions) PLUS $500 a child may earn while attending school, PLUS $100 for each dependent PLUS additional earnings permitted of $600. For a family of 4, with one child working, this would permit a maximum of $5,000 adjusted gross income before they become ineligible for public housing.

WHAT ARE THE ALTERNATIVES? We feel the city can best help the elderly and the indigent with a local rent supplement program. There has been and is now available such a program in the city which currently carries a fund of $13,000 a year, and has never been completely used. This rent supplement, together with continued code enforcement can be used to help people to decent housing when they have been displaced by any government action. If people are living in substandard housing, it can be condemned by the city (a government action) and supplemental rent payments can be made for better housing. And these housing units will still be on the tax rolls. The new federal housing law also permits rent supplements between 25% of the tenant's income and necessary economic rental, and new construction and rehabilitated multi-family projects by private enterprise may be used under 40-year F. H. A. contracts.

We believe these are better plans!

VOTE NO! VOTE AGAINST PUBLIC HOUSING!

Negro V.N. Trooper Not Fully Honored

"Few Negro GI's get the credit that due them for their daily heroic feats and sacrifices" in Viet Nam — and, "ironically," one reason is "top brass belief that too much emphasis on the extensive utilization of Negroes at home," says Ebony magazine.

In the Little Rock of 1957, Negro troopers were "prudently" kept in the rear of the action. But times have changed. Today, Negro paratroopers who compose more than a third of the 101st's crack 1st Brigade in Viet Nam, were on the front lines among the gut fighters of the jungle war.

Racial Files From Cross the Country

Oakland, Calif. — About 8,000 pupils stayed away from Oakland's Junior and Senior high schools last Friday.

About 10 per cent of the absentees turned up at the University of California for "freedom classes" on civil rights and job opportunities. After being denied access to meeting rooms on campus by authorities, they left in two hours.

Detroit, Mich. — The Afro-American Unity Movement said last Thursday that teams of "Black Panther patrols" are being recruited to keep an eye on Detroit policemen.

That Negro organization, blamed by police for racial disturbances here last summer, produced what it said was a list of abuses by policemen against Negroes. Al Harrison, executive secretary of the group, said he could document his charges, and a grand jury investigation will be sought.

Washington, D.C. — A federal judge here rejected a complaint by Alabama Negro tenant farmers that white officials controlled farm committee elections while the U.S. Agriculture Department loitered.

The farmers returned to court, but Judge Alexander Holtzoff threw out the case, noting that the courts cannot "act as overseers" in cases where administrative agencies apparently are acting within their authority.

GEORGE J. BARBOUR, Chief of Social Work Service at Veterans Administration Center was given a silver Revere Bowl inscribed "To George J. Barbour in grateful recognition for very able and dedicated services as Editor of the Iowa Welfare News, 1952-1966." The occasion was this week's 1966 Iowa Welfare Conference held at Hotel Savary. (For those of you not "in the know", Mr. Barbour is Charles Holmes' and Edward Harris' boss! Mine, too!)

JIM BETHEL, Program Chairman of the 1966 Iowa Welfare Conference, is owner of the most celebrity-gilded collection of rejection notes of any I've heard about. This is what it is all about — Jim wrote various personalities asking each to serve as banquet speaker. Each responded "No" and gave the same reason, "a previous commitment." The celebrities were Dr. Martin Luther King the great civil rights leader; Dr. Howard R. Bowen, President of State University of Iowa; Robert C. Weaver, head of the Department of Housing and Urban Development and Iowa U.S. Representative H. R. Gross. Says Bethel, "They are such nice, friendly little notes, I plan keeping them".

POLK COUNTY COMMUNITY ACTION COUNCIL was represented by six of its supervisors at last week's NASW Meetings held at Holiday Inn South. They were Don McKenzie, Council Director; Mrs. Rhoda Kreamer, Educational Specialist; Neighborhood Opportunity Centers' Supervisors — Mrs. Cynthia Turner (Chesterfield and Roadside NOCs); Howard McVey (Forest Hills NOC); Joe Robertson (Norwoodville NOC, Frank Holbert (Woodland and Oakridge NOCs), and Paul Wilson (Greater Logan Area and Walnut Hill NOCs).

Negro Conductor is Still not Accepted

The United States still won't accept a Negro symphony conductor, contends Dean Dixon — who had to go to Australia and Europe to win recognition — in the current issue of Ebony magazine.

"America still cannot stand to have a Negro as the permanent head of a symphony orchestra, a post which implies absolute authority based on intellect, leadership, continuity and organizational ability," he charged.

Dixon, who is conductor of the Sydney Symphony Orchestra and chief conductor and general music director of the Frankfurt Radio Symphony, is "recognized as one of the world's top conductors. Today his services are in demand everywhere but at home."

The Harlem-born Dixon, a "Conductor without a country," left the United States 16 years ago, but has never given up his American citizenship, although half a dozen countries have offered him passports.

"Three years ago a leading international recording company had me lined up for a series of classical recordings" he recalled. "But an embarrassed European woman told me their American home office would not accept me. Beethoven is verboten. But if I turned to jazz or spirituals, I'd make millions."

Doesn't Live There, Tracks Down Cause

The troubles Mrs. Sadie Peters, of 1449 Buchanan, had Tuesday are a good example of the tangled web of red tape.

Mrs. Peters, after reading in a paper that her address had been listed for that of Phillip C. Devan, 28, who said he also lived at 1449 Buchanan, and who was fined $200 for driving while his license was suspended, called down to that paper for an explanation.

They referred her to the register clerk who referred her to the city clerk who referred her to the driving court. The people there said the license had been issued back about 1962.

"I don't know how my address got on his driver's license," Mrs. Peters said, "for he surely doesn't live here."

CARMICHAEL HURTS
AT EVERY UTTERANCE

Fourteen thousand students at the University of California (Berkeley) cheered Stokely Carmichael when, in a speech Saturday night, said,

"The only power we have to stop the war in Vietnam is to reject the draft. No one has the right to take a man for two years and train him as a killer."

"And I am saying, 'to hell with the draft,'" he shouted."

This poses a big problem among our young and college people for it was they, who in World War I and II, joined up and provided leadership and did a good job helping to win the war. Just what has happened to these college students. Do they really mean it?

As for Carmichael, he is simply nuts. Just how does a person live in a country, enjoy its opportunities and protection and then refuse to fight when the country needs him.

Like any other draft dodger, if Carmichael carries out his threats, he will wind up in Leavenworth or some other federal prison where these fellows are sent and, of course, where he belongs.

The Bystander has no patience or sympathy with such foolish notions.

WHERE WE STAND IN THE ELECTION

Voters of the nation go to the polls November 8th to select members of Congress, Governors and lesser officers over the country. It has been an unusual campaign tempered somewhat by the war in Viet Nam; sparring for position by the Democrats to hold on to their gains in 1964 and the Republicans to recover from the ignominious defeat that year, due to the opposition to Senator Goldwater, the candidate for President.

Our observations about a candidate are two-fold: first, they must meet the test with reference to their attitude toward civil rights and employment, both public and private with particular emphasis toward that portion of the population that has been denied most, and (2) their economic, their attitude toward foreign affairs, taxes and the general growth of the state.

As to the Iowa election, the Bystander believes that the two candidates for the United States Senate are able men. However, it supports Jack Miller on the strength of his consistent vote for civil rights. And while he did not vote to break the filibuster of the 1966 civil rights bill, we support him on his overall record on civil rights, his overall support and right thinking on national affairs and his consistent support of financial responsibility of the government.

The governor's race presents a different situation for the record shows that Gov. Hughes has not made one appointment of a Negro during his four years in office. On the other hand, he failed to replace the only ranking officeholder, William Parker, who resigned as a member of the Board of Parole. The governor has talked about equal opportunity but his actions have not squared with these pronouncements.

Like the Congress, the Iowa legislature should be more equally divided as to parties. Undoubtedly both bodies will see some change here. In many instances, able men went down to defeat in 1964 with the Goldwater crash.

All elections are important and the voters should go to the polls and express their opinions.

Included in the voting Tuesday is a proposal which would authorize Des Moines to construct low cost housing facilities. The project was defeated in 1961. Everybody was for it, but the votes went another way.

It seems foolish that Des Moines would sit idly by watching other communities build facilities for their citizens, help pay for them and still never enjoy them. The opposition, led by the real estate board interest, then and now, much to our surprise, said that fair housing can be met by private enterprise but they do nothing about it; they have used sly stinky tactics, inject the race issue in the campaign when every sensible person knows that it is a poor man's problem—black or white.

In the 1961 elections, voters in the areas which would benefit most, opposed the measure. Some did so because they failed to understand what is involved; some because of the dirty campaign which repeats itself in 1966.

The committee which carried on the study of low cost housing and learned just how it has worked in other cities, has done an excellent job getting the issue before the people and have been the backbone of the affirmative forces.

Des Moines needs these facilities. If the measure is defeated, it will set Des Moines back 10 years and the realtors can boast another obstruction to the growth of the city.

The voters should approve this measure by all means.

They just about tore the stadium down at IOWA CITY last Saturday when that field goal went through for IOWA UNIVERSITY'S first conference win in NINETEEN games. The kicker could have maybe been deleted MAYOR or even governor if only the fans present were allowed to vote. This year's IOWA team differed from last year's, we thought, in that those guys kept insisting they could win and finally proved it. Also they got a couple of timely breaks which last year's team never did get.

Maybe our two game prediction will stand up after all.

IOWA STATE played another one of those ties that they thought they should have won. If those guys only had more reserves!

DRAKE upset a team that beat LOUISVILLE, which, you recall, was the team that really whopped DRAKE a couple of weeks ago. So the BULLDOG'S got even in a roundabout way.

HERE AT HOME our high schools closed out their seasons with EAST fumbling away the city series title to ROOSEVELT.

EAST had trouble all season with mistakes that cost them, and Saturday was just another of those days.

NORTH put up a great battle against DOWLING and passed up a chance to tie in order to go for a win. Everyone in the ball park knew KIRBY was going to carry the ball on that last play for NORTH. Most Monday morning quarterbacks think the play should have been something else. Possibly a fake to KIRBY and someone else carrying. But the guys who are supposed to know say, when in a pinch, go to your best bet. That was KIRBY.

Oldtimers Lite

We got to discussing football in the early twenties the other day, and a guy brought up what he thought was one of the greatest NORTH HIGH teams in the school history. Certainly it was the most unusual team of its day.

At a time when one NEGRO was a rare sight on a high school football team, these fellows had what they called an nations team. Five NEGROES, four IRISH lads, one ITALIAN fellow and a JEWISH player. How integrated can you get.

They played in the years of 1917-1918. We don't know, but we think they were unbeaten. They won every game in 1918 and then played MASON CITY, another unbeaten team for what was billed as a state title game. MASON CITY won that one — 6-0. We aren't sure, but we think CECIL BREWTON, SR., father of the Good Park Pool director, played in that game for Mason City.

NORTH HIGH'S NEGROES in that team were RALPH JONES, JOE BROWN, CURTIS MORTON, JANKS HUNTER and JOHN DREW.

JONES and MORTON still live here. BROWN IS DEAD and we believe HUNTER is also deceased. We don't know where DREW is or if he is still alive. But that was truly a great ball club.

Sports Nutshell

World middle-weight champion Emilio Griffith will defend his title for the second time Nov. 10, at Madison Square Garden in New York against Joey Archer.

WILLIE DAVIS of the GREEN BAY PACKERS, was named defensive player of the week last Wednesday.

Prison Term in Sight For Carter, Middleweight

Rubin Carter has spent ten of his twenty-nine years in reformatories and the New Jersey State Prison.

His life has been violence by fists, cobbstones, guns and sometimes knives.

And now he is a suspect in the murder of three people, who were gunned to death following a holdup of a tavern last June in Paterson, N.J. A truck driver, John Artis, 21, who also arrested on a triple murder charge.

Last June 17, the two, one carrying a shotgun, burst into the Lafayette Bar and Grill in Paterson and opened fire in an apparent attempt to stage a holdup and leave no witnesses.

Killed
The bartender and patron were killed instantly. A month later a day in the National Football League.

Davis, seeking a master's degree at the University of Chicago, is 32, weighs 245 pounds, and is 6 foot 3.

The entire PACKER defense leads the N.F.L. in pass and total defense.

MEADOWLARK LEMON, the clown prince of basketball and star of the HARLEM GLOBETROTTERS for the past 10 seasons, has been signed to a recording contract by R.S.V.P. records. His first record, released this week, is the hit song of a few years back, "personality" backed with a new teen-age dance created by MEADOWLARK, called "SHOOT-A-BASKET".

woman died of gunshot wounds. Another customer suffered head and shoulder wounds and was the only survivor.

"My partner and me," Carter told a feature sports writer, "we used to get up and put our guns in our pockets . . . then we'd go out in the streets and start fighting — anybody, everybody. We used to shoot at folks."

"My family was saying I'm a bum. If I got the name, I play the game."

Carter, a native of Clifton, N.J., once was a strong contender for the middleweight title and fought a championship bout against titlist Joey Giardello in 1964, but lost the fifteen-round decision.

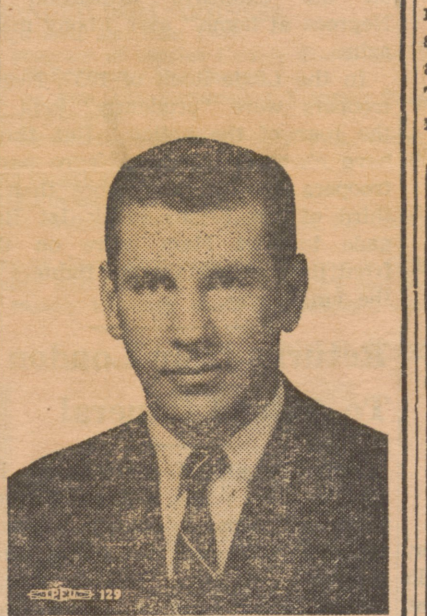

As late as last year, Carter was ranked fourth in the middleweight division.

The following poem, written by Dennis McAdams, appeared in the first edition of the John F. Kennedy College paper, "Profile."

An Artist's Hopes

An artist's hopes, a makeshift dream
Blasted and shattered by society's scheme

To write or paint, an image, a flame
Just for beaut yand not for name.

"A flower be yellow" he's heard to say

"And bless that fellow," he's heard to pray

That isn't life, that's dreams my friend

And dreams can bring an early end.
But life is a sleep, of nightmare dreams

With augers, and monsters, or so it seems.

Whose eyes could close with dreams as these,

and sleep so long without a tease?

An artist hopes an answer be found

Be it far-fetched or even profound
To write of God and peace, of life
Not of war, or death and strife.
