Davison Named Brigadier General

Third Negro in U.S. To Achieve Honor

The former captain of the 1940's famous Negro B Company, 371st infantry, 92nd Division, Col. Frederic E. Davison, was promoted to Brigadier General this week, becoming the third Negro in history of the United States to achieve such a rank.

In Viet Nam, where Davison was cited as having performed the best in his career, Davison had been the head as deputy commanding officer of the 199th Light Infantry Brigade last November.

As Brigadier General Davison ranks next below a major general and above a colonel.

Like the first Negro general, Davison came up from the ranks. B. O. Davis was the first to reach the rank of general. He was followed by his son, a West Pointer, who is now a Lieutenant General serving in the air force.

African Dance Number Turns Tide for Sandra Williams, Miss Black Am.

Atlantic City, N.J.—Saundra Williams, 19, of Philadelphia, who would have liked to compete in the Miss America Pageant, was chosen Miss Black America of 1968 early Sunday.

The talented Maryland State college junior expressed a desire to "someday" enter the Miss America competition.

African Dance

A major factor in Miss Williams' victory over seven other finalists was her interpretation of an African dance.

Some 200 spectators applauded the winner as she walked from the stage down a red-carpeted ramp. She wore a white evening dress with a sequined bodice and a regal robe, crown and sceptre.

Theresa Claytor, 20, of Washington, D.C., was chosen first runnerup. Second runnerup was Linda Johnson, 21, of Philadelphia.

Trip

Miss Williams is accomplished on the violin, piano and drums and teaches modern ballet, African, interpretative and tap dancing.

Her prizes included an all expense paid week in Puerto Rico, a complete

Detect Rare Disease In 2 Negro Children

Nashville, Tenn. — The first diagnosis in America of an extremely rare form of hereditary blindness was made recently at Meharry Medical College in Nashville as reported in the August edition of the American Journal of Ophthalmology.

Dr. Axel C. Hansen, head of the Division of Ophthalmology, reported on two cases of the disease which he encountered in two Negro children seen at the eye clinic at Meharry's teaching hospital, George W. Hubbard.

The two brothers both were afflicted with a disease called Norrie's Disease after a Danish ophthalmologist, who first described the syndrome in 1927. Since then, and until 1966, 35 cases were reported in six families around the world.

The syndrome is characterized by tumors of the retina of both eyes and is found only in males and is sometimes accompanied by mental retardation and loss of hearing or deafness.

Philly's Cecil Moore Suspended By NAACP

New York — Cecil B. Moore has been suspended from the "office of president of the North Philadelphia Branch of the NAACP" for the balance of his term as such officer and has been disqualified from holding any elective or appointive office in the NAACP for a period of three years from the effective date of his suspension by the Executive Director.

Robert Wright of Des Moines is a member of the committee and in the decision the controversial Philadelphian was taken by the NAACP Board of Directors at its quarterly meeting here, Sept. 9. The Board approved the recommendations of the Association's Committee on Branches which, after a series of hearings, found Mr. Moore "guilty of conduct not in accordance with the principles, aims and purposes of the NAACP and of conduct which is causing the NAACP irreparable harm and damage to its reputation, good name and integrity."

Walkout Comes When Agnew's Remarks Are Quoted in KC, Mo.

Kansas City, Mo.—About 50 Negro delegates attending a luncheon meeting Tuesday staged a walkout about half-through the address being made by Congressman Clark MacGregor of Minnesota when the Congressman began to quote from the acceptance remarks of GOP Vice Presidential Candidate Spiro Agnew.

The luncheon session was a part of a conference on "Rural Poverty and Community Development" held here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday under the sponsorship of the National Association for Community Development.

Lectures Series by Dr. George E. LaMore

Some two thousand students and adults are expected to attend a series of fall lectures on A New Style of Life and Community to be given by Dr. George E. LaMore, Jr., professor of Religion and Philosophy at Iowa Wesleyan College, starting Oct. 7, the four lectures will be held on successive Mondays at 7:45 p.m. in the Des Moines Technical High School auditorium.

The series is to be sponsored by the Center for Human Growth, of which Dr. LaMore is the director and Cecil R. Murrow of Des Moines is the executive secretary. Murrow and a team of local representatives will be taking advance registrations through civic and business organizations and Protestant and Catholic church congregations in Des Moines and the surrounding communities. Registration also may be made by contacting the Center for Human Growth, 277-4113.

Two books are to be used as aids in this self and community discovery series: Psycho-Cybernetics by Maxwell Maltz, M.D., and The Future of Man by Teilhard de Chardin.

Files for Divorce

Filing suit for divorce in Polk County District Court from her husband is Mrs. Bonnie Herman.

According to the petition, the Hermans reside at 7205 S.E. 32nd Street, and were married Oct. 25, 1965. They have no children, though Mrs. Herman has three children through a previous marriage.

Mrs. Herman in the petition accused Dr. Herman of cruel and inhuman treatment.

She asked for title to the residence and furniture, alimony, one of two cars and rental property on 1300 E. 16th street. Dr. Herman is an osteopathic physician.

Establishes Million Dollar Fund by Ford for Students

New York — The Ford Foundation Sept. 20 announced establishment of a program of Doctoral Fellowships for Negro Students, designed to help more young Negro men and women enter the field of college teaching. It will be initially funded at $1 million.

In circulars being distributed this week to some 2,000 officials of liberal-arts colleges, universities, and graduate schools, the Foundation invited inquiries and stressed the importance of prompt action by prospective candidates for the 1969-70 academic year.

Less than 1%

The Foundation said the new program is intended to supplement, not replace, existing college-teacher fellowship programs which operate on a "color-blind" basis. The program was prompted by evidence that these do not assist enough young Negro students. Less than 1 per cent of doctorates are held by Negroes, and less than 1 per cent of doctoral candidates now in graduate school are Negroes. The new program would double the number of Negro doctoral candidates sponsored by private fellowship programs, according to James Armsey, a Foundation program officer.

Requirements

The program each year will award full support for full-time graduate study leading to the doctorate in the humanities, social sciences, or natural sciences, for between thirty-five and forty black college seniors or recent graduates beginning in the fall of 1969. Candidates must be interested in a career in college teaching. Their fellowships will be renewable annually for up to five years to complete degree requirements. They must arrange to take entrance examinations, apply for graduate school admission, and submit completed fellowship applications by Jan. 1, 1969 in order to qualify for consideration under the program.

Applicants must have received their bachelor's degree in 1967 or 1968 or expect to receive it by September, 1969. They may not have engaged in graduate study prior to applying.

Who Owns Harlem's Stores? Survey Shows Negro Merchants Do

New York — A survey of business ownership in a 20-block area in the heart of Harlem shows that Negroes comprise nearly 60 per cent of all merchants in the area and that their share of the total is rising, the American Jewish Congress reported Sunday.

The findings refute charges that Jews own most of the stores in the ghetto and are piling up profits at the expense of black residents, Prof. Naomi Levine of Long Island Uni-

City Under Curfew After Disturbance Following Football Game at East

Waterloo, Ia. — At least $100,000 in damages was estimated here this week and National Guardsmen were placed on alert to quiet this city which was rocked in racial disturbances last week. Seven policemen were reported injured.

Immediate trouble stemmed, it was reported, from a football game Friday during halftime at Sloane-Wallace football stadium between Waterloo East and an Illinois school when police and a Negro youth scuffled.

Some two hours of demonstration followed. During the disturbance, thirteen Negro youngsters were arrested then released to their parents.

Fracture

One patrolman suffered a hairline fracture when a bullet bounced off his helmet. A Negro was accused of shooting at him, having fired about five shots, the first of which glanced off the helmet.

Patrolman Bud Tanner was hospitalized with a shoulder and back injury. Police said he was "stomped" at the stadium.

Although four buses were provided to return students from the game, about 75 Negroes walked home, and a group of about 30 to 40 were followed across town by police, sheriff's deputies, sheriff reservists and auxiliary police.

Windows were broken out of virtually every store in the two-block stretch on E. 4th Street between 10:30 and 11:15 p.m. Friday. Passing vehicles were pelted with rocks and bricks.

Fire, which firemen and police said was set by arsonists, destroyed the Shepherd Lumber Co., 1162 E. 4th Street, and spread to three houses in the same block, destroying all of them.

Mrs. John Shannon, of 117 Linn Street, was one of those losing her home. The shell of the house was kept intact, but the inside was damaged so severely to be rebuilt. Jim Dunnington's home was practically demolished. He lived alone. George Mister, of 122 Sumner Street, also lost his home.

Classes resumed Tuesday, Sept. 17 at East High, after being closed since last Thursday. About 40 Negroes walked out of class repeatedly last week, heightening tension.

The Board of Education, in a released statement, said, the "students who walked out of class shall be placed on probation." The probation will be for one semester.

"The events of Friday night seemed to indicate that an underlying problem in Waterloo is more than a problem of educational policy and is one that will require the efforts of the total community to resolve," the statement continued. Since last week, Negro parents have been meeting with educational officials of Waterloo and of East High in an effort to rectify and to explain grievances at Waterloo. "The school board should not have waited until the Negro community demanded it," the group said in a prepared statement.

Pilot Program at Ia. St. To Help College Student

Ames, Iowa — Seventeen Negro students from Des Moines and Chicago are enrolled this fall in a pilot program at Iowa State University to provide an opportunity for higher education to youths who come from an educationally limited background.

A year ago various University staff members began the discussion of the development of the program for minority-group youths and the first interviews with Chicago students were held last May.

Training

The Chicago students received pre-college training in a summer program conducted by the Ecumenical Institute. Organized by several religious denominations, the institute serves ghetto areas of Chicago. It locates students who show promise of being capable of college study, prepares them in a 13-week pre-college summer program, and assists them in entering Midwest universities and colleges.

Of the 17 students, nine are men, eight are women. Eleven are enrolled in the College of Sciences and Humanities, four in the College of Home Economics, one in the College of Agriculture, and one in the Technical Institute which offers two-year non-degree programs.

Five of the Chicago students have had some higher education in Chicago institutions.

The experimental program seeks to identify students who are educationally limited by the boundaries of the environment they come from. Admission to the University was determined through the use of normal criteria, and non-intellective factors of personal interview, citizenship record and supportive recommendations of school officials.

The pilot program embodies assistance in financial support, counseling and personal adjustment.

Ninety percent of the financial support for the students is derived from federal funds available through Educational Opportunity Grants, National Defense Education Act Loans, and the Work-Study Program. The students will be working in University offices on individually arranged schedules during the year. Other funds are being supplied by the Alumni Achievement Fund.

Each student meets once a week with members of the University staff coordinating the program. Members of the Counseling Service meet regularly with the students on an informal basis. Some of the students are enrolled in a study-skills course to improve their study habits.

The men are housed in University residence facilities. The women, who were enrolled after all space for coeds in University dormitories had been filled, are living in Ames homes. When the committee sought housing for the women, it received more offers from Ames residents than it could fill.

Franklin Speaks at Hoover High School

Guest speaker at Hoover High School's Humanities class recently was Mrs. A. June Franklin, state legislator seeking re-election. Mrs. Franklin touched on Negro history and the black man's struggle for freedom in the twentieth century.

Approximately seventy-five persons attended.

Nixon Speaks in Des Moines; Introduces Senator Brooke

Des Moines was host to Republican candidate Richard M. Nixon Saturday on his campaign swing through the middle west.

Greeted by a large enthusiastic crowd at the airport, he circulated among the people and finally mounted a platform where he made an impromptu speech.

He praised Iowa Republican members in Congress, implored the voters to elect Iowa candidates for Congress so that if he, if elected, would have a Republican Congress to help make a successful administration.

Senator Brooke in Party

Mr. Nixon introduced Senator Brooke of Massachusetts who is traveling on the campaign staff. He said Senator Brooke was a great American and was making a distinct contribution to the campaign as he has always done in office both as attorney general and United States Senator.

The Nixon party, along with newsmen and active Republicans, made a tour of the Goode, farm where he learned something about an Iowa farm.

Mr. Nixon spoke to a crowd estimated a more than 20,000 people at Merle Hay Plaza where he renewed his pledge to work for law and order, an early peace in Vietnam and a farm program which would raise the income of the farmer and help the small town.

It is generally conceded that Nixon reception was enthusiastic and that the voters who supported Gov. Rockefeller at the convention joined in the big push to make this a Republican year.

Harry Belafonte: Living Composition on Stage

New York — Everytime Harry Belafonte walks out from the wings onto the stage of a theatre, his audiences are immediately made aware of the fact that here is an artist who cares. The performer who spares no effort to assure those that see and hear him that they will always view something new, something worthwhile, exciting and memorable.

Belafonte will be in Des Moines Oct. 3 at Veterans Auditorium. For a Belafonte appearance has become a "theatrical event", whether it be staged in the vast confines of a huge stadium, in the intimate surroundings of a theatre in the round, or the more "standard" form of the proscenium stage. The songs the man sings, and the way he sings them, evoke a responsiveness and a sense of belonging seldom, if ever, experienced through any musical medium.

Life

In this appearance, Belafonte will once again sing of all our experiences on the trip through the theatre of life.

His songs show that life is full and rich, a bit of self-reflection, a recalling of good times as well as bad.

The consummate skill of the international artist surmounts any language barrier that might exist, for he gets to the heart of the matter with a sense of reality and a sincere swatch of the proper mood. In this all-new show, Belafonte will be backed with voices, and his own core of key accompanists, rather than working with a full orchestra.

The physical stage setting serving as the "scene" of Belafonte's productions is always simple, never intrusive, constantly in keeping with the vast panorama of a Belafonte presentation. Platforms on varying levels carefully placed on the stage and utilizing meticulously planned lighting, afford the artists a setting that is at once simple yet dramatic, uncomplicated yet exciting, and one that has a chameleon-like trait, allowing it to change its moods in accordance with the songs that come forth to embrace the ears of the audience.

and Perkins Elementary schools. Concentrated instructional, psychological, social, medical, and nutritional services are major factors in the program, now in its second full year of operation.

"Happening" Sat. by Model Cities Assn.

There will be a "happening" Saturday, Sept. 21, 8-11:30 p.m. at the Dowling Field, 10th and Washington, according to Richard Thomas, chairman of the Des Moines Model City Citizens' Committee on Youth Activities.

The happening will be sponsored by the Urban Extension Youth of the Model City Area, Thomas said. All residents of the area are invited to join in. There will be music, dancing, an automobile display, a style show and a chance to learn a more about Model City planning activities.

Vibrations

Two combos will perform, the "Soul Vibrations" and the "Excitations." Five boys and soloist Cookie Martin make up the "Soul" group and four girls perform as the "Excitations," according to Thomas.

New cars and customized cars will be on display, donated by area car dealers and custom car buffs. The fashions will be creations of area youth. Information will be available

C.I.I. Takes Over "New Horizons" '68 Project

Community Improvement, Inc. placed 607 youth during the course of the summer program, Operation Youth Opportunity, which ran from June 24th through Aug. 16. The number in employment fluctuated somewhat from week to week, due to illness, separation or change of jobs, and other reasons. During the last weeks of the program a number of youth used the money they had earned to attend camps in Iowa.

Of the 607 youth placed, 83 or 13.7 per cent terminated before the program closed. Four percent were terminated by the employer and three percent by the employees.

524 youth worked through the last day of the program. Of the 524 youths, 263 were Negro, 261 were white.

Approximately 58 percent of the youth employed were under 16 years of age.

$180,966 was contributed by the local community to support this work-experience project.

An additional $20,445 in special vocational funds were received through the State Department of Public Instruction to support in part the staff and supportive educational program.

Kate Goldman, President of Community Improvement, Inc. said, "The program this summer moved us closer to developing long range values for many young people in Greater Des Moines." "The YMCA", she said, "did a highly commendable job in providing space and program assistance to C.I.I. Wayne Fieldhouse, Director of Youth Programs at the YMCA, provided a great deal of leadership for Operation Youth Opportunity."

This winter, C.I.I. will be placing its primary effort in support of New Horizons a junior high school program aimed at preventing school drop out and encouraging continued education and vocational training. New Horizons has 300 young people enrolled in the program at Washington Irving and Amos Hiatt.

On the Campaign Trail

Fort Madison — In a statement prepared for delivery here, Congressman Fred Schwengel said that much of the student unrest on college campuses has been caused by a lack of confidence in the ability of our political system to adapt to changing conditions.

Schwengel, who was here for the Fort Madison Mexican Fiesta, said, "Many of our young people have mistakenly placed the blame for our Vietnam policy and our failure to meet urban problems on the political system when it more properly rests with our present leadership."

on Urban 4-H Extension programs and the Model City planning process.

There will be a refreshment stand.

Warns Negroes Not To Sit Out Elections

New York—Roy Wilkins this week said that in view of the challenge of George Wallace and the radical right "Negroes can ill afford to sit out this year's Presidential and Congressional elections."

At a news conference held on September 12, Wilkins said that even though the former Alabama Governor only has a "ghost of a chance" of becoming President, "the support he has mustered throughout America bodes ill for the need of poor Negroes for improved employment, housing and education opportunities."

Although it was gratifying to see two brothers competing for the world championship in heavyweight boxing, it was just as humiliating to see them beating each other's brains out for white European and American enjoyment. Even the brothers over here were yelling "kill him" etc. Perhaps this, too, is a form of genocide.

Now they're bombing us—heard about the Man in helicopters tossing teargas down at the brothers below. Too bad nobody thought of that in Chicago . . . or would that have been too brutal?

And Waterloo. Shame, brothers, shame. Naughty. Makes Waterloo look bigger than anything D. M. could do.

Harvey

Harvey and Gertrude — Says, Harve — "think I'll run for president." Says Gert — "why"? Says Harve — "well, I know words like dissenters and militants and far left and far right. I figure I can make a pretty high falutin' speech, as well as the major contenders are." says Gert — "you just learned those words today, Harve, you didn't even know what they meant a week ago." Says Harve, "yeah, and I don't want to find out — I don't want to get ahead of the pack and know what I'm talking about. More fun to say: ladies and gentlemen and my fellow Americans, these militants and dissenters are corrupting our forgotten American society — ". Says Gert: "what's a forgotten American?" Says Harve — "a forgotten American is one who forgot he is his brother's keeper. Anyway, as I was saying..."

Take it slow.

(Marrie Johnson is vacationing. Guest columnist Cecil Reed of the Iowa Employment Security Commission is reporting on the first national convention of the American Foundation for Negro Affairs (AFNA) in Philadelphia.)

Along with my fellow Iowans Dean Phil Hubbard, Frank Robinson and Mrs. Marguerite Cothone, I recently joined some 800 black leaders from all over the nation in what I believe was a history-making convention. For the first time the monumental project of cataloging American Negro progress has been instituted to chart goals for the next 10 years in all areas of Afro-American life.

Vice-president Humphrey in addressing us said, "That in a sense what you are doing here is writing a whole new bill of rights, a bill of privileges, a bill of obligation, a bill of responsibilities for yourself and all America."

The keynote speaker for this meeting was Dr. Horace Mann Bond, former president of Lincoln University for 12 years and the father of Democratic vice-president nominee Julian Bond. He paid tribute to Samuel L. Evans for setting up and founding the new organization.

"Mr. Evans' idea is a stroke of genius," he said. "Part of its genius is that no one ever thought of it before. Another part of its genius is its simplicity." He added that the AFNA plan is a scientific definitive indepth project for every Negro problem, with a priority on social opportunities.

This is to be formerly stated in terms of properly establishing set goals which couldn't be realized before when Negro endeavors were 50 to 75 years behind frontier knowledge. AFNA must earnestly seek to harness efforts to establish priorities and methods and ways of implementation.

"In short, Mr. Evans is giving all of us an opportunity to plan and control our destiny... draw a course and steer by it," Dr. Bond concluded.

Convention workshops covered these topics: science, judiciary and law, religion, health and welfare, sports and athletic development, business and commerce, civil liberties, transportation, housing and urban development, culture and performing arts, government affairs and communications.

Through this forward-thinking organization we can hope that the participation of forward-thinking black leaders from all over the country, meaningful directed goals, will be established and implemented for the some 25 million Afro-Americans in the United States.

I hope that Dean Phillip Hubbard will take over the Iowa state chairmanship.

In welcoming the delegates to the convention Judge A. Leon Higginbotham made reference to the 55 men who assembled in Philadelphia during the summer of 1787. They were only able to get a consensus of 39 who were willing to sign what is now the Constitution of the United States.

He said, "I want all of the remaining barriers to be eradicated rather than have barriers continued or voluntarily extended by the Black Community."

The American Foundation for Negro Affairs is a positive step for eradicating these barriers and some day this first gathering in Philadelphia may have as much meaning for Americans as that meeting of 1787.

It's Peach Jam Time

Put a little of summer's golden sunshine in jars in the form of jam made from fresh peaches. You can add your own special touch of spices in making Spiced Peach Jam, an elegant one for later gift-giving. The recipe is made by the short-boil method using Certo Fruit Pectin, and the jam is assured of a perfect set.

Spiced Peach Jam

Yield: about 11 medium glasses

4 cups prepared fruit (about 3 lb. fully ripe peaches)
¼ cup lemon juice (2 lemons)
7½ cups (¾ lb.) sugar

½ to 1 teaspoon each cinnamon, cloves, and allspice*
½ bottle liquid fruit pectin
*Or use any desired combination of spices.

First prepare the fruit. Peel and pit about 3 pounds peaches; chop very fine or grind. Measure 4 cups into a very large saucepan. Squeeze the juice from 2 lemons; add ¼ cup to peaches.

Then make the jam. Thoroughly mix sugar and spices into fruit in saucepan. Place over high heat, bring to a full rolling boil, and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and at once stir in fruit pectin. Skim off foam with metal spoon. Then stir and skim for 5 minutes to cool slightly and prevent floating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover at once with ¼ inch hot paraffin.

Note: Jam may set slowly—allow about 2 weeks.

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Why does some hair break off when combing?

Your hair is precious and delicate... and none of us like to see it break off for any reason. Scientists tell us that excessive use of hot combs and over-processing of hair with chemicals often are major causes of brittleness resulting in hair breakage. But hair that is naturally curly and tangles easily frequently breaks off in everyday combing. Notice how irritated your scalp becomes when you comb in contrast to the way your beautician does?

Your professional beautician knows that curly hair mats and tangles so easily that it should be softened before combing. Otherwise, unnecessary irritation to the scalp and damage to the shaft and ends of the hair occurs. To achieve this needed softening and a temporary relaxing effect that prevents breakage on all human hair (including wigs), most beauticians rely on Clairol® Hair-So-New® spray-on creme rinse. For combing ease and for beautifying your hair in many other ways, trained beauticians stock a complete family of fine Clairol products for your specific needs.

WE SUPPORT NIXON
IN THIS CAMPAIGN

There are those who seem on the fence as to whom they should support for President. Liberal Republicans, supported Gov. Rockefeller before the convention while many Negro Democrats supported McCarthy only to find that their opponents won.

Negro Democrats and Republicans are faced with candidates about whom there is some doubt. But we are convinced that either has ability and the question is "what does he stand for?"

Both Nixon and Humphrey leaned heavily on delegations from the South in reaching their convention goals. But neither will go too far in the direction of the extreme southern viewpoint just as President Johnson has done.

We must realize, of course, that this country is governed by parties and not individuals. Therefore we must choose sides and enter the proper road that brings us out to what is best for the country.

This country is faced with two difficult problems which the Democrats have not been able to solve—so far. We are mired down in Viet Nam with little prospect of an early victory, if one at all, and then we are faced with crime in and out of the streets that is tearing the moral fiber out of the people.

Maybe Nixon, if elected, won't solve them either. But the country is in the mood for a change; a chance to let someone also try to reverse the trend. Surely, a country that has produced the American way can find a way out of the dilemma.

Thus, we believe in party government and responsibility. We believe that with a change of administration, although many of the Johnson policies we have supported, the country can take on a new look and tackle the situation with a new outlook.

Former Gov. Wallace is making a strong bid for his third party and undoubtedly will make a credible showing. His campaigning on "giving the government back to the people and allowing the states to operate as they used to do: elimination of crime in the streets and opposition to the Supreme Court.

Nobody ever heard of Gov. Wallace trying to eliminate crime against Negroes, of securing them a chance to vote or providing adequate health, education and welfare. In fact, he has done everything he could against it, headed by interfering with a federal marshal in the exercise of the orders of the court.

Most people who support him are lulled to sleep by his appeals for law and order and yet his record has been on the other side.

Gov. Rockefeller and a host of his supporters have joined the Nixon forces believing him to be the candidate best able to get us back on the right track.

Thus we shall lend our support to the Republican ticket believing the overall reader is making Nixon the choice.

WISE MEN HONOR
THEIR BENEFACTORS

Responding to the decision of the NAACP to deposit $75,000 in the Harlem bank of which he is a vice president, Jackie Robinson said:

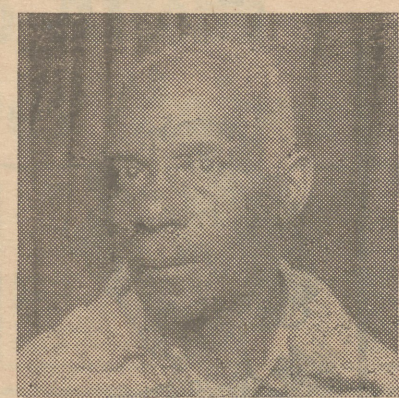

"Had it not been for the NAACP laying the groundwork down through the years, Freedom Bank could not have come into being. The NAACP built the bridges across which many organizations and individuals have come to the status which they enjoy today. The NAACP has instilled pride in over-all citizenship which included the desire to own and operate one's own business and own one's home."

And Jackie knows that these bridges have been built by the orderly process provided for in the Constitution which has not created bitterness unduly and will last longer.

With Allen Ashby

We watched and listened with interest Sunday at Lt. Arther Ash talked on TV's Face the Nation. Ash, in case you haven't heard, is the holder of both the U.S. Amateur and Open Tennis Titles in the Men's singles division. We recalled the project he mentioned in Chicago. The fellow there reasons that since Negroes develop into such fine athletes in other sports, tennis is missing a bet by not trying for some of this talent.

Then we were very much interested in his comment about the prospective match with South Africa in the Davis Cup semi-finals. He thought the match could not have been held anywhere in America except at an Army post without causing trouble. But he was more than willing to journey to South Africa and beat them in their own backyard. And this would have had to let him play or else. These were the two outstanding comments that we thought made the whole half-hour worth seeing.

Boxing

We also saw the fight Saturday between Jimmy Ellis, champion heavyweight in forty-five states and Floyd Patterson, former champion.

Ellis got the referee's nod, but we will never understand how. We thought Patterson got a bum deal when he fought Jerry Quarry. But there were two knock downs that were against him. Still he whaled the tar out of Quarry and should have won.

But this thing Saturday—no one will ever be able to figure how, the man arrived at nine rounds to six. And that knockdown late in the fight was called a slip. It was the first time we ever saw a boxer slip and fall on the seat of his pants and Ellis did. Then the man was led to his corner for the mandatory eight count. Oh well, why get worked up over something we can't change? But we don't have to like it and we don't.

Football

And back at the ranch the football season was on with a bang. Drake stayed in its league for an opener and the Bulldogs may have their best season in several years.

Iowa State got some fine play from the sophomores and staged an upset. Names that were high school greats two years ago, Jeff Allen, Overt Tisdale and Jock Johnson appeared in the Cyclones lineup, and may stage a series of upsets as the years roll on. We hope so.

And here North High could be the team to watch this year. The Polar Bears have a pair of jack rabbits for running backs and are capable of scoring from anywhere on the field. Dowling looked as rough and rugged as ever. The rest of the guys play this week.

They may be having trouble in Waterloo, but not with the East Waterloo football team. They save that for their opponents and could end up number one again.

Many 200-plus Games
For Forty and One

Art McCune was high game man Monday night for the Forty and One Men's Bowling League. He rolled 269-613 for his team. Second highest was Bill Lowery with 237; then Jim Bethel, 235; and Jerry Carl, 230. Al Brewer rolled 226 high game.

The league bowls each Monday night at Grand Lanes. President is Elmer Tolson.

Bowls Tuesday Night
At Capitol Lanes

Team Four of the Tri-Hard Women's Bowling League had a game of 866 on Tuesday, Sept. 10. Dorothy McCune is captain of the Team. Five, of which Francis Morrison is captain, had an 828 and a 868 high game series.

Gwen Stubbs is president of the League which bowls each Tuesday night at Capitol Bowling League.

Cyclones' Johnson, Allen
And Tisdale Pace Buffalo

Iowa State Cyclones won their first game of the season Saturday over Buffalo, 28-10, with Des Moines' Jock Johnson one of the touchdown scorers late in the first quarter. Adding to it were Jeff Allen's and Overt Tisdale's TDs.

Johnson, a sophomore, weighs 195, and is 6 feet tall. He is the son of Mrs. Gwen Johnson, 1111 9th Street in Des Moines. He graduated from East in 1967 with eight letters: three in football, three in track, and two in basketball. He was football and basketball captain, and All State in football. He was the state high hurdles champion and co-recorder holder at 14.2. Johnson's major will be history.

Sammy Davis, nicknamed "The Man" is a junior wingback. Born in Rolling Fork, Miss. and now living in Chicago, Ill. Jimmy Ellis, Bloody, Wins Heavyweight Title

Stockholm, Sweden—WBA Heavyweight boxing champion Jimmy Ellis looked as if he had run up against a stone wall Saturday after defending his title in a controversial decision over former champion Floyd Patterson.

Ellis suffered a fractured nose, cuts above his eyes and a perpetually bloody nose in the fight which went fifteen rounds in less than fifty degree weather in the outside ring, while Patterson reportedly was unscathed, save for a slightly bleeding mouth.

Almost immediately in the second round, after Patterson's blow to Ellis's nose in the first, Ellis began to bleed from a good right by Patterson, who later slipped. In the third round, blood was reported coming from Ellis's lip, and Patterson slipped again. By the fifth round, there was blood splattered on Ellis's white trunks, and he was bleeding profusely from his right nostril. Patterson slipped again in the sixth round, and Ellis, trying to fake Patterson out of his so-called "peek-a-boo" stance, stamped his feet. The fake did no good, for Patterson caught Ellis with a left that knocked the champ against the ropes.

By the ninth round Ellis's left eye was partially closed, and his nose, as usual, was bleeding. Commentators said Patterson was fighting with more confidence and landing more blows than he had in other matches for the last several years. It was in the eleventh round that Patterson suffered a cut inside his mouth.

The knockdown which the referee termed a slip came in the eleventh round though Ellis was led to his corner for the mandatory count. Patterson floored Ellis, who pulled Patterson down with him.

New York — Notre Dame, Southern Cal and Minnesota have placed two players each on the 22nd annual All-America Preview Football team named in the current issue of SPORT Magazine.

Keyes

Completing SPORT's Preview All-America backfield, alongside Hanratty and Simpson, are Purdue halfback Leroy Keyes and Oregon State fullback Bill Eynart. Keyes, the "do-everything" back who rushed for 989 yards, caught 45 passes for 758 yards, and completed eight of 13 passes for 106 yards and five touchdowns, led the nation in scoring with 114 points. Eynart, a bruising power-runner, was an important cog in OSU's upsets of Southern Cal and Purdue, and its tie with UCLA.

Man will never really conquer the atom until he conquers his fear of the atom — his fear of annihilation. He needs a spiritual understanding of himself, of the universe, and of God. You are invited to hear a one-hour public lecture on this subject by Jules Cern of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship. The title is "Christian Science: Dominion Over the Atom."

In the Service

Navy Airman Ronald W. Bayles has left the city after visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Bayles, Sr. of 3004 Bowdoin. Airman Bayles has just finished a 15 week course at the Naval Air Technical Training Command at Lakehurst, New Jersey. He successfully completed a course of instruction in the Aircrew Survival Equipmentman School, Class A.

Shipmate

The Aircrew Survival Equipmentman is responsible for all kinds of airborne survival equipment. He must know how, where, and when to use this equipment. It is his job to ensure that aircraft and aircrewmembers carry with them the proper equipment to enable men to cope with whatever environmental conditions they will encounter. The Aircrew Survival Equipmentman's job is important. They must do their job not only well—they must do it perfectly. Upon his skill, integrity, and knowledge depend the very lives of his shipmates.

In his training, Ron made a premeditated Free Fall Parachute Jump from 3300 feet.

Yearbook

Navy Airman Bayles, who has now reported for duty at Cecil Field, Jacksonville, Fla., graduated from Des Moines Tech in 1965. After completing school at Grandview College where he was Viking Yearbook photographer and President of the Grandview Circle "K" Club, he was photographer for the Des Moines Register and Tribune.

To Mardeen

As a baby, you were a joy, I've never regretted you weren't a boy.
Your starting school just added more pleasure;
And your enthusiasm went beyond measure.

Junior made me realize that you soon would be

Breaking your mother's ties.
High school next—and, oh, did that hurt. (In hiding, tears I shed)
My heart was full and with pride, nearly burst.

I must share you now with another world. Go forth my daughter, so others may know a real, live pearl,

Reach for the top, stand straight and walk tall.

Trust in God as you go and you'll grow stronger with each fall.

And on your way up, take time to look back at another you may help on the upward track.

Thank you for accepting me as a person—and as your mother;

Thank you for recognizing, that I, too, have faults,

Thank you for helping me live a happy life.

Thank you for seeing when I'm wrong (and loving me enough to say),

Thank you for the talks we've had—both the good and the bad.

Thank you for comfort when I've felt low,

Thank you for being trustworthy, honest and sweet,

Thank you for sharing your marvelous sense of humor with me,

Thank you for your teamwork,

Thank you for being your brother's sister,
Thank you for being my daughter, and—
Thank you for your love.

36 Gold Medals For US
In Mexico Olympics

New York — The U.S. Olympic team will capture 36 gold medals, more than any other country, in the 1968 Games in Mexico, according to a detailed analysis of every event by track and field expert Frank Litsky of the N.Y. Times in an article appearing in the current issue of SPORT Magazine.

The U. S. will win 13 of the 24 men's track and field titles, 10 of the 17 men's swimming events, and 11 of the 16 women's swimming tests to account for the majority of its medals.

The one disappointing area seems to be basketball, in which the U.S. has won all of its previous 66 Olympic games. This year, with such players as Lew Alcindor, Elvin Hayes and Wes Unseld choosing not to compete, the U.S. will be lucky to finish better than third, according to Litsky.

The Russians are expected to do well also, in the international competition. The SPORT article picks the Russians to win the most medals overall, as they did in the '64 Olympics, with their main strength coming in such sports as gymnastics, wrestling, fencing, weightlifting, boxing and canoeing. The final unofficial team standings should show Russia on top, concludes the SPORT article.
