Voters to go to polls for primary Tuesday

August 1st is big day

It's time once again to go to the polls and cast your ballot. This Tuesday, August 1st, is the primary election to determine the candidates for the Nov. 4th elections. In addition to the gubernatorial race, 2 other contests are promising to be extremely interesting. The fight for the Senate District 31 seat between former Democratic State Representative, A. June Franklin, and Earl Willits is one. Mrs. Franklin is well known as a staunch supporter of human rights and has compiled a reputation for honesty and fearlessness in the State's political arena. Again the difference between success and failure for Mrs. Franklin lies with the Black vote.

The Polk County District 64 representative race promises to also provide some interest. Mary F. Parker has entered the combat zone of politics. She has already gotten misquoted by the daily press in a statement she made regarding the highly controversial issue of gambling in Iowa. Mrs. Parker was quoted as saying she was "in favor of all types of gambling." "In fact," Mrs. Parker told the Bystander, "I only meant that I was in favor of para-mutuel betting such as horse-racing and dog-racing." She also explained that, "This is one of the ways to generate additional revenue for the State of Iowa and reduce the tax burdens of all citizens."

Coup Foiled in Ghana

ACCRA, Ghana -- (NBNS) -- An attempt to overthrow the military government in the wake of former President Kwame Nkrumah's funeral has been thwarted according to the ruling National Redemption Council.

The council announced that it had foiled an effort to restore a deposed Prime Minister, Kofi A. Busia, masterminded by disgruntled businessmen and officials of the disbanded Progress Party.

Dr. Busia was overthrown by the army in January while he was in Britain for medical treatment. The former Prime Minister planned to return to Ghana, if the plot were successful, the government statement said.

The ruling council had been reluctant to permit the body of Nkrumah to be returned following his death in Rumania April 27. He had been exiled in Guinea after he was ousted in 1966 and had been in Rumania for medical treatment. The leader of the movement which achieved independence for Ghana in 1957, he remained an emotional symbol for the people of Ghana, and the present ruling council was reluctant to have the people stirred by his funeral. However, they permitted his burial earlier this month in his native town.

One-Man Rule Ends in Burundi

KAMPALA, Uganda --(NBNS) -- Neighboring Burundi appears to be relaxing the wave of terror in which an estimated 100,000 persons have been killed in the past four months.

Burundi's radio has announced that a new cabinet has been appointed, including both Tutsi and Hutu members, to end the one-man rule established by President Michel Micombero during the country's recent civil war.

Widespread slaughter of the majority Hutu tribe was reported following an attempt by Hutu rebels to overthrow the minority Tutsi who rule Burundi. President Micombero dismissed the government and ruled alone during the emergency.

South African Blacks Form New Party

South Africa's nonwhite majority has formed a new political party, the Black Peoples Convention, following a three-day conference attended by 100 delegates from all parts of the country. The object, according to a spokesman, is to enable South African blacks "to realize their liberation and emancipation from both psychological and physical oppression."

They toured Navy facilities

40 central Iowa youths toured the United States Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois July 17 and 18. The participants, ages 17 and 18, were the guests of the Des Moines Navy Recruiting Area as they looked at recruit training, the Navy's training school system, and sailors practicing their skills at the training center. The young men were treated to a pizza party where they engaged in a rap session with active-duty navymen who answered their questions about the naval service and discussed such topics as the drug problem among young people. Some of the participants from Des Moines were: Arzaina Williams, 1189 10th St.; Steve Wade, 1036 17th St.; Donnie Sheppard, 1429 Sampson; Paul Hunter, 1221 East 15th St.; Dennis Anderson, 1224 East 17th Ct.; Coleman Lawrence, 1255 East 21st Ct.; Larry Lewis, 1226 12th St.; LeRoy Kaiser, 1503 East 17th St.; David Green, 1311 East 15th St.

Tapscott: Ray Buck-passing on budgets

State Senator John Tapscott, in Council Bluffs last Saturday, criticized Governor Robert Ray for ordering ten per cent reductions in budget submissions from state department heads, and called it "an example of bureaucratic buck-passing."

Tapscott, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, said, "The Governor should be making priority decisions in public, not in the offices of self-serving bureaucrats — and he should cut out the garbage there is in state government entirely, not just by ten per cent."

Tapscott charged Ray with "trying to mislead the public, a la Ronald Reagan, into thinking he could possibly reduce the cost of government by ten per cent."

He added, "The people of Iowa won't stand for cut-backs in education, and the Departments of Public Health and Social Services are already severely hampered by underfunding."

The State Senator said that he considered it "ironic" that Ray has not yet commented on Tapscott's proposal to save taxpayers seven million dollars a year in insurance premiums paid by government through the establishment of a state self-insurance pool.

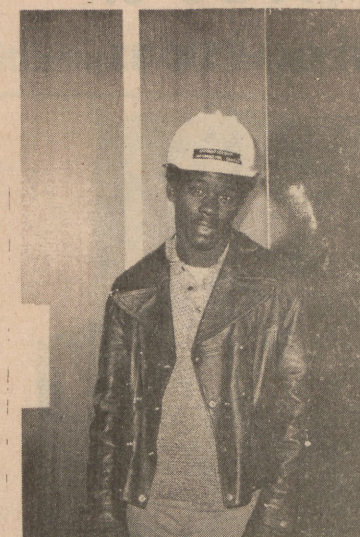

Tapscott also criticized Ray for "operating state government as though it were a private business," and called on the Governor to put into writing the rationale for his order. According to Tapscott, the order was given verbally by Ray to department heads in a meeting July 5th.

"I understand that the Governor has asked all departments to submit the reduced budgets as a means of setting priorities among the various programs and establishing a priority pool. But to arbitrarily ask everyone to find ways of cutting back, when people programs are already suffering, is confusing and demoralizing to state employees, to say the least," Tapscott said.

Czechs Ask Angela's Aid For Fair Trial

LONDON -- (NBNS)--- A group of political and cultural figures in Czechoslovakia have appealed to Angela Davis for help in insuring they receive a fair and open trial.

Signed by the Citizen's Freedom Movement of Prague, the appeal said Miss Davis' "against a seemingly all-powerful, arrogant bureaucratic machinery...is to us a source of inspiration in our own struggle."

She said a group of Czechoslovak citizens were being "persecuted for having questioned the wisdom of their rules, and their very competence to run the country."

However, they said they were not likely to receive the same treatment as Miss Davis during her recent trial in San Jose, California on murder, kidnap and conspiracy. "(We will not likely be given)" the elementary rights of defendants in court proceedings."

AS I DID A FEW CHORES AT UFS, chatted with Jennifer Bethel, who is busy in summer classes at Drake University as well as working as a bank teller! Leave it to Jennifer...she always has an "in" somewhere! She's very ambitious!

CHATTED WITH LOIS ABURAS, who graduated May 14 with a grade point average of 3.69, making the Dean's List. Lois worked at UFS, also, while attending Drake U. She expects to leave UFS August 19 to enroll at Iowa State University, to begin classes August 31st. She has a BA in sociology, will be working toward her masters degree and hopefully will continue and attain a Ph.D. and then a professorship in this field.

LOIS IS THE MOTHER OF FOUR CHILDREN: Adriana 11, Tracey 9, Gerald 9 and Katia 4½. Speaking of ambition! She is the daughter of Mrs. Bernice Welton. Lois will make her goal and will be successful with her children!

JANET TURNER SHARED WITH ME the story of the NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS MEETING held during the Democratic Convention in Miami. The dates were July 5 to 9 at the Coronet Hotel. Others there from Des Moines were Mrs. Katherine Bryson, delegate from the Polk County Mothers for Adequate Welfare; Mrs. Cleone Williams, alternate delegate; Mrs. Valdina McCray, an observer; Mrs. Barbara Simmons and Mrs. Sella Dayton, observer, also.

A PURPOSE OF THE RIGHTS CONFERENCE WAS TO PRESENT A Poor People's Platform. There was a coalition formed, consisting of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Rev. Ralph Abernathy's group with the people's coalition of Peace and Justice, headed by Rennie Davis, and the National Welfare Rights organization headed by Beulah Sanders! What a success! These women working against all odds! Going to Miami and working like soldiers to achieve such a union! So fine!

AT THE CONFERENCE, the women heard such speakers as Dr. Ralph Abernathy, Dr. George Wiley, who was in on the origin of the Welfare Rights Conference, and of which he is an executive director. Senator George McGovern spoke on the last night of the conference. Senator Fred Harris, of Oklahoma, was also one of the speakers.

THE NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION deserves the interest of the masses, including all of us. The main purpose of the body is to inform welfare recipients of their rights and laws pertaining to them such as Nixon's Family Assistance Plan, H.R. 1, and the Talmadge Amendment Law, which provides change in the WIN Program; it became effective July 1, 1972; one aspect of this change is that all participants on the AFDC Program will be required to register for work or training; many will have to accept jobs at the rate of ¾'s of the Federal minimum wage, I understand.

THE GROUPS MEET ON MONDAYS. It is hoped that there will be groups in all parts of the City. All sections. The entire groups make up a State body.

IN SUMMING UP THE MIAMI MEETING, it was hard work and a success. There were representatives from Alaska, Canada, and all of the 50 states. The next conference will be held in New Orleans, Louisiana!

GREGG PERRY AND BRUCE TAYLOR went canoeing on the Des Moines River Saturday, July 15! It was a big venture! It seems the river is filled with debris! They began at Jester Park and went to an area at the Sixth Avenue Bridge. Canoeing in this fashion calls for mastery with the paddles and taxed the fellows' overall strength. They were ready! Prepared. What a healthy undertaking! Displays great sportsmanship!

THE T.A.B.'s 3rd Annual Dance Party turned out to be another smash. The formal affair was held again this year at the Val-Air Ballroom.

The built-in handle makes it easy to carry and easy to pour from. The plastic is translucent so you can always see how much milk is left. Of course, we wouldn't be so excited about the container if we weren't so sure about what we put inside it. It costs no more than milk in waxed cartons. And you pay no deposit. Police removed weapons witness says

CHICAGO --(NBNS)--Cook County State's Attorney Edward V. Hanrahan and his 13 co-defendants have waived their right to a jury trial and agreed to let a judge determine their guilt or innocence of conspiracy in the 1969 police raid which took the lives of two Black Panther leaders.

The trial finally began after a year of delays, the most recent a five-day postponement to allow a defense attorney to take a short vacation.

Opening the trial Prosecutor Barnabas Sears said he would prove that the police accounts of the raid on a Black Panther apartment on Chicago's West Side were false.

Sears told Judge Philip J. Romiti that he would present testimony to prove that only one shot was fired from inside the apartments. Police have contended that 10 to 15 shots were fired at them when they raided the apartment before dawn on December 4, 1969.

Two Panther leaders, Fred Hampton and Mark Clark, were killed in the raid. Panthers said they were killed while they slept when Mrs. Harold Richmond, has been released from Sacred Heart Hospital.

Mrs. George Harper, Sr. went to Tacoma, Wash. to visit her son Ernest and family.

The police shot their way into the apartment.

The first full day of the trial opened half an hour late because Judge Romiti, at the request of the prosecution, went to the apartment where the raid was staged to become familiar with its layout and the surrounding area.

State's Attorney Hanrahan and 13 co-defendants are charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice by blocking the prosecution of policemen who raided the apartment.

The 13 -- all members of Hanrahan's raiding party that night -- are charged with deliberately attempting to remove fingerprints from weapons used and intentionally throwing away the shells.

A FIVE-MINUTE TEST in which a blood sample is drawn is all that is needed to identify persons affected by sickle cell anemia or who are carriers. That is emphasized in Walter Lee's new film on the disease that is most prevalent among blacks. Here, Lee, with camera, observes nurse Deane Turner obtain blood sample from Regina Hayes at a Rochester, N.Y. hospital.

Afro-Americans should support The National Liberation Struggles of The African People!

Brothers & Sisters this warrior had the unique opportunity of joining with other Revolutionary Warriors and supporters from North America in Montreal, Quebec, for the 10th Anniversary celebration of the Mozambique (Southern Africa) Revolution. Brother Felipe Nhancale, a spokesman from the leading organization in Mozambique (FRELIMO) gave a inspiring talk concerning the level of struggle within the country and future of waging a protracted struggle for total liberation of a colonized people. After the main message -- solidarity messages were given by many representatives of THIRD WORLD organizations—among those were Mtshawa Noubé of Zimbabwe African Peoples Union (ZAPU), Hidipo Hamutenya, representative of South West Africa Peoples Organization (SWAPO), a representative of The Black Revolutionary Party (U.S.A.), and a representative of The Afro-Asian Latin American People's Solidarity Committee of Montreal (who also co-sponsored the program along with McGill University's - Black Cultural Club).

It is very important that we Black Americans show our support of National Liberation Struggles of Oppressed People the World over--because we are fighting the same enemy the oppressive government of the United States -- which is corrupt to the core and totally unworkable and unsavable. A victory of an oppressed people in either Africa, Asia or Latin America against the U.S. means a victory for Black people in the U.S. because we are also fighting against being further colonized and totally repressed by this fascist government. We can and must learn from the struggles of other oppressed people in the world. One thing that definitely stands out above all -- is that violent armed struggle together with the correct political line is the only solution toward winning complete emancipation and overthrowing the enemy of all mankind--the U. S. government. For whether it is in Des Moines, Chicago, Cairo, Ill., New York City, Waterloo, Iowa, Davenport, Iowa, Omaha, Nebr., Kansas City, Mo. or Mozambique (Southern Africa) or Viet Nam or Latin America or India -- it is the same enemy -- the U.S. government, and we must recognize this as a basic fact of reality and begin to chart a definite course of action in accordance with the concrete conditions of this country that will and can defeat the enemy in total; so that we can actively start re-constructing a humane system ran by the People. By concretely doing the afore-mentioned--we really show our support of other National Liberation Struggles, for we are (then) definitely a part of those struggles. Long Live The National Liberation Struggles Of The People Of Africa, Asia & Latin America. Long Live The Unity Between Afro-Americans & The Heroic Fighting Oppressed People Of The World.

Free Health care program

WASHINGTON --(NBNS)-- The federal government, under increasing pressure from the conservative American Hospital Association, has backed down from regulations it proposed which would have increased the amount of free care hundreds of thousands of poor people.

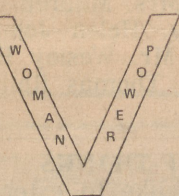

Last April, the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare issued regulations which would have required most of the nation's hospitals who have received funding under the federal Hill-Burton Act to spend at least 5 per cent of their operating costs or 25 per cent of their net income on free medical care for the poor. State Health agencies could even require the hospitals to spend more.

With Allen Ashby

By the time you read this, our twenty fourth annual Hilltop Open tennis meet will be under way. Our Hilltop club may not be the oldest tennis club in the state, but if we go back to the days when we were the Midwest Tennis Club, we would have to be one of the oldest, if not the oldest in Iowa. We started in 1930, and have had a meet of some sort every year except one, during World War II. We had to promote tennis among ourselves because we couldn't get the best to play us. Don't know how much paper I wasted writing to various clubs around the state trying to get matches, and they didn't even answer the letters! So we organized intra club play, having probably the first ladder competition in the city. Then we got some white players who were not the best, and made up a league. Union Park had a team, as did McHenry, and there was a bunch out around Waveland, and some fellows around Drake Park, and we arranged dual meets with them. What made these meets popular was the fact that we got the results in the sports pages of the daily papers each Monday, and had the lineup of matches. So fellows began to look for these writeups in the papers, and were glad to play us because of that, for that was just about the only way most of them would have gotten their names in the paper without committing a crime. But we couldn't get the out of town teams to come in, and sometime after the thirties, we changed our name to the Hilltop club because Good Park was on a hilltop. We continued with this annual meet, making forty three years that we have held a meet of some sort without a break. Maybe we would have to count the one war year.

In the meanwhile tennis in the city among the white players was hitting a new low. The best players in the city were the white girls, and there weren't too many of them, but they were good enough to win state honor something the fellows couldn't begin to do. Then, the centennial meet was held here in honor of Iowa's one hundredth year as a state, and the state tennis meet was shifted to Cedar Rapids, and it has been there ever since. Well, our Hilltop club was invited to join the newly formed Des Moines Tennis association to help promote better tennis in the city. We should have been wary, but jumped on it. Then, after the people saw our setup at Good Park they asked us to make our meet an open one so everybody could get in, and we did. The Des Moines Association wanted to include us in its membership, but the Missouri Valley branch of the USLTA said no, they did not recognize black clubs. It was suggested that we get out of the thing. But by then we had become a part of the Iowa Tennis Association, and the fight began all over again. The guy in charge of the Kansas City office of the USLTA hinted that unless we were dropped, the Iowa club might be out in the cold. Well, there was a really fine gentleman named Sterling Lord at Burlington, and an equally fine guy heading our Des Moines chapter. These two fellows told the KC outfit what they could do with their club if we couldn't get in, and the USLTA backed down on the principal that each club had the right to determine its own membership.

After the first year our meet got so big that we couldn't begin to hold all the matches at the park. Nobody ever mentioned it, but I suspect that the reason we insisted on the finals being held at Good Park where they have always been, was that we wanted to retain control of our meet. The University of Iowa tennis coach, Don Klotz, made our meet. He had a fine bunch of junior players, some of who went on to national prominence, and he used our meet to get his team experience, and helped us with a lot of pointers about other players. We have had several young players who have used our meet to get off into bigger competition.
