KID POWER

Kid Power, an original musical comedy, based on the kid power cartoons show, will be presented at East High School at 8 pm on March 29 and 30 in the auditorium. The script was written by several students at the school under the direction of Miss Ruth Ann Gaines, who is also directing the play. The music is also original, adapted by students from the Kid Power album, under the direction of Charles Carnes. The theme is brotherhood—11 neighborhood kids, members of the Rainbow Club, prove to their parents that if left alone, kids can solve conflicts that many adults cannot. The price is $1.00.

Committee Formed to Back Candidate

A committee has been formed by Des Moines citizens, black and white, to back candidates for the City Council this Fall. The committee will select specific candidates in their next meeting which will be held on Sunday, March 25th. One member of the committee, Mr. Arzania Williams, was asked if the committee would sponsor more than one candidate. "Yes," he said "However we are not ready to state exactly how many at this time."

SUSPECTS HELD IN STENNIS SHOOTING

Washington — (NBNS) — Three young black men — two of whom are brothers — were arrested Tuesday night in connection with the Jan. 30 holdup and shooting of Sen. John C. Stennis (D-Miss.) in front of the senator's home. The arrests came after an intensive manhunt in which a 30-man team of police and FBI agents questioned hundreds of persons.

The suspects have been identified as Derrick Holloway, 18; Tyrone Marshall, 19, and his brother, John, 21, all of Washington. The three are charged with armed robbery and violation of the Congressional Assassination Act, a federal law making it illegal to shoot a member of Congress. They are being held on $100,000 bond each.

Gateway Scoutmaster

The Gateway Boy Scout Troop or the Capital District has recently been reorganized. Boys aged 10-15 are asked to meet at Gateway at 7:00 o'clock on Monday, March 26th. Scoutmaster for the troop will be George LeBlanc.

Julian Bond: Our Choice for '76

Bond visits Des Moines

To Georgia legislator Julian Bond, being president of the United States is not a position in which one caters only to Black people or only to whites, but instead offers solutions to effect all classes of people.

In fact, said Bond, who was in Des Moines Wednesday to speak at Drake University, there is "not a great deal" that a Black president can offer to Black people more so than a white one.

"The presidency is not so much whether the president is Black or white," Brother Bond said in an interview, "because the kind of Black person who gets elected to the presidency has to lose some of his racial identity."

"But it would matter whether he's a good person or a bad person," he said, and whether the individual is "someone who cares about people or someone who doesn't. The argument over the Black president is really an escapist argument. What we have to do is be ready to choose between white candidates for the presidency. A lot of us don't want to do that."

Many brothers and sisters "say it's just two white men" who may compete for the presidency at election time. "But one of those two white men is going to run our lives for four years and it's important who he is."

Brother Bond, who, when speaking out against the Vietnam war some years ago had to fight all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court to be seated in the Georgia legislature, was nominated for the vice-presidency in 1968 and now, he says, he would "jump on it in a minute" if he were nominated for the presidency.

Regardless of race, the president "is in the position of having to offer (solutions) to all of America."

However, Brother Bond

explained, "he (president) may do particular things for Black people" as affirmative action plans and enforcing them, improving minority hiring practices and eliminating poverty, which is Bond's main concern.

The Georgia legislator, who has lived in the south all his life, emphasized that the south "has been the reservoir for leadership both in the civil rights field as well as the professional Blacks."

Furthermore, the south is fertile ground for Black persons continuing in their professional fields.

For example, "A young Black doctor starting out probably has a better time economically" in the south than in New York, Chicago or Detroit, Brother Bond said.

"If you're tired of big city hustle and bustle, then you can come to Atlanta (Ga.) and have big city life without having to worry that someone is going to mug you, although they will mug you, though not as often as they will in New York."

The south is also a "less expensive place to live," Bro. Bond continued. "Someone making $10,000 in New York may be hard pressed. In Atlanta, they'd be able to have a little more money to spend, a little more cash in their pocket."

At the same time, however, "though there was a time" when Bro. Bond would especially encourage Black people, including Black Iowans, to move to the south, particularly to Atlanta. "I wouldn't now, because Atlanta's already a majority Black city," with some 52 per cent of the more than one million residents being Black. "I wouldn't want my city to become another New York."

Roosevelt Includes Black Activities

By Venise Berry

Under the black studies curriculum adopted by the School Board in 1968 after pressure from blacks because of the relevance of classes to them, Roosevelt High School added a black studies class under the direction of Mr. Robert Williams.

Denvers black history structure was reworked by faculty, students, The Board of Education, and the community to fit Des Moines

Spencer, Julie Williams, Yolane Archer, Bobbie Mash, Georgain Jefferson, Edna Thomas.

Mrs. Joyce Fant, teacher schools, then Mr. Williams revised the program so as to fit all the high school students, since it was originally designed for seniors.

"The class focuses on the black identity crises of today. It has had a steady of English, Mr. Robert Williams, Black and American History, Mrs. Jona Mann, head of the Language Arts department, and Mr. Nevins Bruce, Math, Crafts, Social Science, and Councilor Coordinator, help the Committee in what growing student interest and is now close to 100 percent enrollment" commented Mr. Williams.

A Black Cultural Experience Committee has also been added to the extra-curricular activities at Roosevelt, which has been adopted as a branch of the Student Union.

The purpose of the group as written in their constitution is to establish correspondence between black and white students and to erase all misconceptions between races.

"In the beginning" stated Fae Brown, a member of the student body "too many people had too many hangups about themselves, to get together with any body else. There were also complaints that some people weren't black enough, and no one has the right to judge anyone elses blackness, but they've come a long way from there."

The Chairman of this committee is Kevin Edwards, and the executive committee consists of: Stephanie Micheal, Gaylene Narcisse, Cheryl Jackson, James Mozee, Edward Eves, Johnny Campbell, and Paula Brown.

Members of the Black student body include: Jan Archer, Thad Stewart, Kyle Kaiser, Fae Brown, Donnie Micheal, Straan Joseph, David Jackson, Debbie Edwards, Pam and Debbie

Committee, Kevin Edwards stated "One of the reasons for this group is to show the black people not only at Roosevelt but everywhere are very responsible and concerned about the attitude that America has adopted. The atmosphere at Roosevelt is included, but with this committee we're at least trying to do something about it."

Stephanie Micheal, a member of the Executive Committee added "Their making an effort to get something accomplished but I think there's still that feeling of distrust between minority and majority and a few of the members are getting restless because progress is so slow it hardly feels like we're moving".

During Black History week (11-16) which prompted the beginning of the committee they arranged for the group to see Sounder. Since then they have planned a Black Musical for March 27, which will take you through the field of black music, past to present and will also include black poetry.

Mr. Williams said that the "Relax, Bergen. When you call long distance, it doesn't cost much to keep on talking."

Charlie McCarthy is right. On any long distance call when you talk more than three minutes, the cost per minute never goes up and usually goes down.* So don't be afraid to talk a little longer.

A little money still goes a long way on the telephone.

*taxes not included.

By Ken Warren

If you have been reading the news of late, there have been many articles relating to police matters. I have never been able to accept that any mortal was above doing wrong. But we have been led to believe a certain segment of our society due to their exalted position in the community, were presumed to be right at all times. Once again life with all its cruel aspects has shown this fact to be another fable of our times. With all the careful selecting, training, supervision and modern techniques our police are still just mortal men and not super humans as they are sometimes portrayed.

It is too bad that local citizens and businessmen have to suffer losses because this theory of superman has been allowed to exist. Since these men represent the law, and you know the law can't be wrong (which is another joke), it does one no good whatsoever to contest their word.

I sincerely hope that this most recent event will help to illustrate that no man is infallible. The badge, gun and blackjack are not badges of honor merely the tools of their trade. In many incidents people have been fined, punished and humiliated because of the concept that if an officer of the law says something is true the accused is guilty as charged. It is time to be realistic and deal with the fact all humans are in error at one time or another.

It is time we as citizens began to start to humanizing our law enforcements' agencies. Courts and all areas dealing with laws and their implementations or interpretations. When we over glorify our police this is a giant step towards a police state and I'm sure this isn't what we want, or is it?

I can see why there is a rising tide of Congressional sentiment against sending funds to North Vietnam but for different reasons.

One of the major reasons is that the United States is willing to rebuild a country two thousand miles away whereas, it isn't gutsy enough to rebuild its own backyard—mainly, D.C. There is another reason: Black soldiers (proportionately higher than whites) lost their lives in jungles on the other side of hell. Serving their country but what will the country do for the families that lost their sons or fathers. Likely, nothing except for what is provided in the G.I. Bill, but nothing else.

But they wouldn't hesitate to give money, hard earned, from the very families that they had killed or maimed.

On the other hand though, I feel sorry for the children of that country because they have to suffer the burden of their parent. But isn't that what most children have to do anyway?

I don't know what Nixon the first is going to do about that sticky problem or congress for that matter. But I hope that they will search their hearts (wherever they keep it) and find what they can do to get Black vets jobs.

If they do give Hanoi aid all us black folks should do is rise up and declare war. Then lose maybe we could get something more than we are getting now.

...this radio is a product of Watts...why not? Apparently in Rhodesia the government there is trying to get its sovereignty from Britain. But there is a hitch to the whole thing that is the Africans have to agree with the white minority for independence. So far they have not agreed with the whites—one reason is that the Africans figure that they will fare better under British rule than under independence of that country.

But recently the problem has come up again. This time Prime Minister Smith's regime is trying to court favor with the top African organization—African National Council (ANC). The leader of ANC isn't all that enthusiastic about the whole thing. The White regime thinks that England will cut corners in order to give Rhodesia independent status but if they do they'll hear about it.

African leader Muzorewa said that his people haven't got to the Black Power stage yet. But wouldn't be surprised if it came in the near future.

A funny thing though there have been guerillas fighting inside of the country and the government hasn't dealt with them as effectively as they thought they would.

Which goes to show that a mosquito can give an elephant one hell of a time.

Black Silent Majority Launches Anti-Crime Crusade

By National Black News Service

Washington — (NBNS) — Strongly denouncing what it termed "an apparent new wave of violent crime by radical black militants," The National Black Silent Majority Committee (NSMC) said it is organizing a National Crusade for Law and Order in black communities across the country and invited "responsible, grassroots black leaders and citizens" to participate in the all-expense paid project.

In extending the invitation, Clay Claiborne, founder and director of the BSMC, recalled recent incidents in several cities which he said "strongly indicate a renewed trend toward violence—including a possible radical conspiracy to kill policemen—that could accelerate into bloody urban upheavals such as the country experienced in 1964, 1967, and 1968."

He mentioned specifically the case of Mark Essex, the young black sniper who killed eight persons during a rooftop gunbattle with police in New Orleans last January before he was slain, whom Claiborne said "was completely overcome by hatred and radical idiology. He had become a racist in reverse, declaring he hated all whites and was fighting for violent revolution."

It is this type of "revolutionary" activity which Claiborne's organization deplores and hopes to counteract by its anti-crime crusade.

Blacks who have been "brainwashed and blinded to the simple truth that whatever their grievances against white people, the military, the Establishment or anything else," must realize that "they cannot do black people any good by barricading themselves in buildings and gunning down innocent citizens," Claiborne charged.

The BSMC Director said his group's crusade will attempt to develop a coalition of "law-abiding blacks" working in local communities to "demonstrate that the black community is neither apathetic toward, nor tolerant of, violent acts performed in the name of race advancement."

To accomplish this goal, Claiborne said the crusade will:

Publish and circulate pamphlets to expose "the harmful activities of revolutionaries in black communities."

Mobilize youths to prevent crime and "repudiate radical agitation."

Organize black citizens' groups to support police.

Denounce "destructive radical militancy" in the nation's major cities.

Urge cities to report "potential outbreaks of violence and to cooperate with police, firemen, and officials attempting to maintain order."

Noting that Black Americans have "huge stakes in the well-being of this nation," Claiborne said blacks must maintain "balanced emotions and realistic perspectives about black problems and the best ways to solve them."

"Violence and irrational hostility are not solutions, and the mainstream of blacks cannot remain passive while radicals conspire to make violence commonplace in out neighborhoods," Claiborne said.

The BSMC was formed here in 1970 with seed money from the Republican Party to "give a stronger national voice to the masses of black citizens who are concerned about disorder and violence perpetrated by so-called black 'revolutionaries,' and who disagree with the 'burn, baby, burn' philosophy."

by marri johnson

Finding my classmate, Mrs. Dorthea Sens, so involved in the progress of her students, I began to listen and ask questions from week to week and finally asked if I might visit her classes and meet some of the students. They were members of the New Horizon Program.

Mrs. Sens, a language arts instructor, displays genuine love for her students. She is a personal friend to them as well as being their instructor. Her two major goals are to improve the child's self-concept and reading ability.

She declares: "I work for ways through which everyone can be successful. This improves their self-concepts. They are used to being labeled failures! As soon as they meet with success, this changes the family's concept of school."

With a grade reading level raised several points in a semester, the child takes home a higher grade. He is eligible to try out for example, for cheer leading. He has the courage to engage in other school activities and he does!

I had experienced one such dedicated teacher once in life! Mrs. Sens brought her to mind. There was no failing in her class. Each day Mrs. Sens literally reaches out to each individual and beckons him and her forward. Literally draws the individual forward as though calling softly "Come on, you can do it. Come on!" She actually tells them "You can do it. I know you can."

This group of students were an inspiration even to me. They were charmed into action.

I tried to get a line or two from a number of them. This follows: Richard Canada, son of Redell and Wilma Canada, is not only a 9th grader but works at the Convalescent Home for Children from 7:30 am to 10:30 am, where he does maintenance work. He sometimes works on Saturdays or Sundays to do make-up work. Likes the work, likes being around the children because he feels of worth to them. He hopes to become a refrigerator or air conditioner repairman.

Kelly Wilson, 15 year old 9th grader, works at the Clarinda Clinic up by Broadlawn. She does secretarial work there, assisting the secretary. She enjoys the work.

Denise Frost, a 15 year old 9th grader, works at the Catholic Social Service Offices, on Woodland. She does clerical work. She works from 8:30 to 10:45, Monday through Friday. She really enjoys this.

Veva Butts, a niece of Melvin Butts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie, Jr. and Chlodine Butts, is a 16 year old 9th grader. Veva tried out for cheerleading, won and was elected cheerleading captain. This is an all school cheer leading group. She also was selected as representative of the Student Council. She is easy to get along with and states "I consider everyone my friend, black or white." She likes doing things and would like to be a gymnasium instructor because working would prevent her taking sign language and typing, she declined doing this. Which is very smart on her part. She is on Willkie House's basketball team.

James Bradley, 15 years old, is a 9th grader. Works at Drake University Library where he retrieves and shelves books. Likes the work very well. He works from 8:00 am to 11:00 am. He is my nephew by marriage.

Robert Diaz, is a 15 year old. Is most interested in history. It seems to be more fun and is something real. Robert likes to play basketball and to box and three years ago entered the Golden Gloves Tournament.

Gordon Butcher is another 15 year old. He works with his father weekends doing carpenter work in homes. He likes to run and play basketball either of which may gain him a scholarship!

Michael Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ward, 682 27th Street, works in Woodland Oakridge Opportunity Center, doing maintenance work. His hours are 2:30 to 4:30, Monday through Friday. Mrs. Sens introduced Michael as the person she places in charge of her class in her absence. She introduced him as a poet.

Avance Harden, Jr., is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Avance Harden, Sr., 714 31st Street. He works at Smouse Opportunity School in occupational therapy from 9:40 to 11:20, 2:10 until 3:30. In occupational therapy he assists children to the standing table, helps some with hand movements and assists them in learning to write. He hopes to become an artist. He is in sports; likes basketball and baseball.

Diane Forney, daughter of Mrs. Virginia Pearson, 970 27th Street, is an office worker in Callanan Junior High School. She is 15 years old. She really wants to go into modeling. She is in the New Horizons Program and believes that this will help in finding employment. She sews, crochets and knits; she likes to read and belongs to the Black Culture Club and helped to put on this show recently. She likes roller skating; likes basketball, photography and dancing.

Albert Clayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fletcher Claytor, 648 25th Street is a 14 year-old 9th grader. He has been elected vice president of the 9th grade. He works in the gymnasium at Callanan. He plays football, wrestles, plays basketball and throws the shot put. He gets good grades and hopes to be a printer. He will be going to Tech High to a special class in printing. He would like to leave some money for New Horizons, so they will have something to do, other projects.

A look at sports in retrospect

With Allen Ashby

To continue with my argument of last week. Before the advent of integrated schools, the black athletes had their own football setup. I will never get over my surprise at the big fast giants I saw when Bishop College played Arkansas AM&N when I was down there. And they were well coached, doing things all the schools up the country did. But if a fellow were to tell of the big men who could run like little guys and insome cases were as quick, nobody would have believed him. There were several conferences, and we had our own all American Team. I was once chosen for the All America Board for Negro Colleges. I declined, telling them that I didn't feel qualified to pick players from teams that I had never seen, and had heard of only through the black press. So I suppose my place was given to someone else, who just had to be better qualified than I was. Then after the college all star game in Chicago, black sports writers and other people just would not rest until they had a black college all star football game. I don't know how the players were selected, but I do know that the black team had simply too many players weighing less than one sixty to have a chance with any pro club, even in the thirties. So they played the New York Giants, and the game was cut short, and so were the quarters, and still the score was so big that they needed computers to total it, and there weren't any then, so we never did know the final score. Some angry writers who had been against the game from the start, argued that it set back black college football twenty years. But, do you know, it really brought it along that much faster. The coaches and people interested in the game saw what they had to do in order to have a chance at big time football, and they did it. So you have Grambling, Alcorn, Florida A&M, Morgan State, Tennessee State, and a whole lot of others you can see the results of the coaching and the buildup of players every time you look at the roster of professional football teams. You will find all fo the schools I have named above and others you may have never heard of.

RAYDELL QUINN FINISHES MARINE CORPS TRAINING

San Diego March 8—Marine Pvt. Raydell M. Quinn, of 2814 School St., Des Moines, Iowa, graduated from basic training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego.

And then on to boxing. People go with the era they happen to live in. So because there weren't very many sports writers around who were writing when Jack Johnson was in his day, you just don't hear much about him. To those who wrote during the Joe Louis Era, he was the greatest. And so on down the line until you reach Mohammed Ali, Joe Frazier, and George Foreman. I talked to an old timer who remembers Johnson. He said the guy was the greatest of them all. Said that when the man was in his fifties, he had an offer of ten bucks to any boxer who could hit him in the face in three minutes of boxing. He said Johnson would stand up and catch punches like a baseball catcher catching balls and at other times would move his head just enough to make a man miss. And he could take a guy out with either hand if he wanted to. Then our hero brought out the other men of Johnson's day, Sam Langford, who wasn't much more than a big middleweight, but fought everybody including Jack himself and beat most of them. It was often said that Johnson didn't care to meet Langford after he became champ, because he knew that win or lose, he would have one heluva fight, and didn't have to win. Then, there was Joe Jeanette, who was a big fast heavyweight who was dodged by most of the name battlers of his day. These men had to fight each other because white fighters wanted no part of them until after they were long past their prime, and then sometimes they got fooled. And, to digress, that is why I never could see Rocky Marciano as the greatest, because he fought his best fights against fighters who were only shells of themselves when he met them. Archie Moore, Joe Wolcott, and Ezzard Charles cut him to ribbons and nearly beat him. Wolcott had him on the floor a couple of times, and they were old men. What if they had been Rocky's age! But the biggest laugh was the fight held in Texas between George Godfrey and somebody for what was called the black championship of the world. And who was the champion then? Joe Louis. What did they propose to do about him?

Lodge Cancels Golf Meet

Simon Roberts

A planned "Golf Get-Together" that was to have been sponsored by the Davenport Board of Park Commissioners and held at the Davenport Moose Lodge has been canceled by lodge officials in the face of strongly worded protest by the board concerning the Moose's membership policy.

The Davenport Moose Lodge, 6509 N. Pine St., conforms to a national policy of that organization prohibiting the membership of blacks and other minorities.

The controversy started today when the board issued a statement over what it called a "matter of grave concern" relating to the policy.

Prior to the cancellation, Parks Commissioner Simon Roberts said, "As a black citizen of this community, I cannot in good conscience lend support to any organization which includes such a policy of discrimination, and I will not be in attendance at the function."

Roberts said he brought the membership issue to the attention of the other commissioners after "several people in the community voiced concern" over the situation.

Clarence Martens, secretary of the local lodge, said "the party has been canceled. I'd rather not give any reasons." He refused further comment.

ERICH THOENSEN, Governor of the Davenport Moose Lodge, said he was aware of the board of park commissioners' statement condemning membership practices of the Moose.

"We were willing to go along but something turned up and we had to cancel," said Thoensen in reference to the board's protest.

The "Golf Get-Together," which was scheduled for next Tuesday night, would have been an opportunity for area golfers to get together for social purposes and to view new golf equipment, said Emil Plambeck, parks director.

No city funds were to have been used to sponsor the golf night, he said.

IN THE statement the board decried "the organizational policy (of the Moose) which restricts its membership to caucasians only and, although the lodge has indicated that all golfers are welcome for the special golf night, we feel all Davenport golfers should be aware of the policy of the lodge."

Plambeck said the board had voted Wednesday to go ahead with plans for the event despite the lodge's discriminatory membership policy.

"After all, they did offer us the use of the lodge for free," he said.

"He (Martens) just called me and said he'd canceled the golf night — he said it was just too much adverse publicity," Plambeck said.

Scott Supports Minority Business

U. S. Senator Hugh Scott (R-Pa.) today supported legislation to give minority businessmen greater access to major sources of private investment capital.

The proposed measure would authorize the Small Business Administration to guarantee up to 70 per cent of the purchase price paid by investment companies and other private investors for securities issued by minority businesses. The new program would be similar to other programs under which the Federal Government now guarantees loans, but it would directly benefit minority businesses by making capital investments in them more attractive.

The Senate Republican Leader said the proposed federal guarantees would "greatly reduce the risk factor" which has heretofore hindered the efforts of minority businesses to seek private financing.

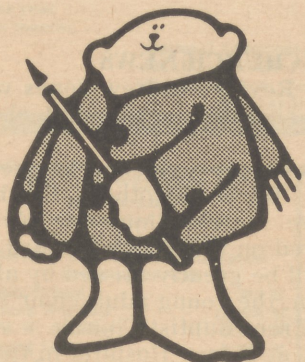

"The result of minority businesses," he predicted, "would be a new access to wider forms of investment opportunities."

The Republican Leader noted that most Federal programs in the minority business area have been limited to assistance in the form of grants or low interest loans. He emphasized, however, that equity financing is often "far more sensible since it does not impose on a new enterprise an excessive debt burden which is often the cause for business failure."

The proposed bill, known as "The Minority Business Equity Investment Act of 1973," is to be introduced this Friday by Senator James L. Buckley (C-R-N.Y.).

Senator Scott said he would hope for early enactment, "so that minority businesses may participate more readily in the nation's total economic life."

The bear facts about saving money on heating & cooling.

You'll call insulation the year around money saver because it keeps the heat inside in winter and the cool inside in the summer. Proper insulation helps conserve energy and saves you money on heating and cooling. If you're not properly insulated... think about it. It will pay for itself in just a few years.

ARITIA SCHULTZ, POLK COUNTY, IOWA

You are hereby notified that the petition of the plaintiff in the above entitled cause of action is now on file in the office of the Clerk of the District Court of the State of Iowa, in and for Polk County, asking judgment against the defendants named in the caption hereto, and against the mortgaged property hereinafter described, for:

(1) The sum of $22,985.76 with interest at 8 1/2 per cent from March 1, 1973, being the amount due plus interest upon the promissory note in the principal sum of $23,000.00, dated December 21, 1970, which note was made and executed by the defendants, Jack L. Schultz and Aritia G. Schultz payable to this plaintiff, which note this plaintiff has declared due and payable forthwith because of the default of the defendants in failing to make payment of monthly sums of principal and interest due. The said sum includes delinquent interest and advancements to and including March 1, 1973, and represents the total sum due after allowing defendants all just credits; also asking for judgment for any further or future advancements plaintiff may be required to make for continuing abstract of title or for any other purpose authorized by the terms of said note and mortgage and by Iowa law.

(2) Also asking judgment for costs including statutory attorney's fees.

(3) Also asking as against the defendants above named a decree of foreclosure of the mortgage made and given by the defendants, Jack L. Schultz and Aritia G. Schultz, which mortgage is dated December 21, 1970, recorded in Book 4186, Page 387 of the records of the office of the Recorder of Polk County, Iowa, said mortgage being given to secure the above mentioned note and other sums claimed, which mortgage covers the following described real estate, to-wit:

Lot 23 in Tufts Acres Plat No. 1, an Official Plat, now included in and forming a part of the Town of Bondurant, Iowa.

Plaintiff also asks for the appointment of a receiver to take charge of the mortgaged premises and to collect the rents, issues and profits arising or which may be had therefrom and to apply them as by court directed. Plaintiff waives any deficiency judgment and asks that the period of redemption be reduced to 60 days. No money judgment is asked except against such persons who executed said note and mortgage.

For further particulars see the petition now on file.

You are also hereby notified to appear before said court at the Polk County Court House, Des Moines, Iowa, by April 13, 1973, and that unless you so appear before said court at the Polk County Court House, Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa by April 13, 1973, your default will be entered against you and judgment and decree rendered therein as prayed.

TO THE ABOVE NAMED
DEFENDANTS:

You are hereby notified that the Petition of the Plaintiff in the above entitled action is now on file in the Office of the Clerk of the District Court of Iowa in and for Polk County, claiming personal judgment against David C. DeCarlo and Ann H. DeCarlo, and judgment in rem against the property hereinafter described in the sum of $24,046.05, with interest at the rate of 7 1/2% from and after March 1st, 1972 on the promissory note of Ronald E. Campbell and Delores M. Campbell, executed and delivered to the Plaintiff, who is the absolute owner thereof, and said note and mortgage given to secure said note are due and payable by reason of the failure of the Defendants to pay the installments of principal and interest when due. The Petition further asks for foreclosure of said mortgage of even date and the note of May 6, 1971 on the following described real estate, to-wit:

Lot 13 in Westwind Plat No. 2, an Official Plat, now included in and forming a part of the City of Urbandale, Iowa and also asking that said mortgage be declared a prior and paramount lien to that of each and all Defendants and further praying for the appointment of a receiver, and for the amount paid by the Plaintiff for legal attorney fees, abstract expenses and all accruing costs of action and for such other relief, as may be just and equitable in the premises.

You are further notified that the mortgage herein provides that in the event of foreclosure and sale of the property by Sheriff's sale, the time of one year redemption shall be reduced to six months provided that the mortgagee waives any right to take a deficiency judgment. Plaintiff reserves the right to waive all rights to a deficiency judgment prior to Sheriff's sale.

You are further notified that mortgage herein provides that in the event the Court finds in the Decree that the titleholders who are personally liable on the mortgage have abandoned the premises and the mortgagee has waived any right to a deficiency judgment, the redemption period shall be reduced from one year to sixty (60) days.

The foreclosure petition of the Plaintiff prays for a writ of possession in the event that any part of the mortgaged premises be sold under foreclosure decree and not redeemed from Sheriff's sale as provided by law without any other additional proceedings.

You are further notified to appear before said Court at Des Moines, in Polk County, Iowa, on or before the 12th day of April, 1973, and that unless you do so appear, your default will be entered and judgment or decree rendered against you for the relief demanded in the Petition.
