

TOBIAS NEW NAACP CHAIRMAN

Our Leadership, 1953

The Waterloo Post has on many previous occasions belabored members of the white group for disregard of good human relations in the exercise of their official duties. We have criticized and berated vast numbers of them for their utter disregard of human dignity, opportunity and equality due non-white citizens.

The white man has come in for a major portion of our attacks largely because he dominates those positions and public offices which present him occasion and opportunity for practicing democratic principles.

With the beginning of this New Year, we vow never to cease what we consider our duty as Americans, to expose prejudicial acts with the hope that the citizenry will take proper corrective measures. However, today we are deeply concerned the role of the colored man in the advancement of democracy.

Specifically, we refer to those colored citizens of WATERLOO, who by good fortune in some cases and hard work in others are looked upon as leaders. There is far too much laxity in our leadership generally, even in those organizations whose main reason for being is to attack injustices wherever found.

It is time, in this New Year of 1953, for all the forces of right to mass their strength for a relentless assault against racial injustices.

We know there are among the leadership who for some petty and selfish reasons are leaders in name only. They bask in the ranks of leadership for the publicity and pseudo-prestige they can get.

For the job that lies ahead these persons cannot be allowed to linger longer with the reputation as leaders. They must either accept the responsibility or be sloughed from recognitions. Traitors and do-nothings are dangerous not only to the cause of non-whites but also the cause of the nation, for we are morally bound to live by our basic laws and precepts of and racial inequality is not one of them, traditions notwithstanding.

Mich. Senator Introduces Anti-Lynching Bill

Washington (ANP) — Sen Homer Ferguson (R., Mich.) introduced a bill in the Senate last week "making unlawful the requirement for the payment of a poll tax as a prerequisite to voting in a primary or other election for national officers."

In addition to this anti-poll tax bill, the Michigan senator introduced an anti-lynch bill "to provide for the better assurance of the protection of persons within the several states from lynchings, and for other purposes."

This bill makes lynching or conspiring to lynch a federal offense with punishment ranging up to 20 years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

Don McNeill Corrects Faux Pas On Radio

New York (ANP) — Radio listeners heard Don McNeill reprimand a guest Tuesday morning on his WHZ "Breakfast Club" after the little guest unwittingly insulted many who were listening in.

A little boy on the program had brought along a pet dog and the dog's puppies. In the course of the program, McNeill asked the dog's name and the boy replied "N----r."

Taken aback, McNeill chided the little boy, telling him to immediately change the animal's name.

The program was unrehearsed and the reply was so sudden, McNeill had to think quickly to cover up the faux pas.

Robert Kintner, president of WJZ and the American Broadcasting Company has repeatedly gone out of his way to prevent insults to minority groups and the station and its staff know this. That's why McNeill was so quick to call the child's hand in the matter.

Questions On F. E. P. C.

Answers by Mrs. Mary Fredricks, Chairman of Omaha Council for Equal Job Opportunity

Write your questions to her c/o The Waterloo Post.

What is F.E.P.C.

The initials F.E.P.C. stand for the words Fair Employment Practices Commission, not Federal. For there are states and cities with Fair Employment Practice commissions.

Religious, labor, veterans, women's and civic organizations throughout the country and in Waterloo support this type of legislation. The government of nearly one dozen states and 28 municipalities (in states which do not have this type of legislation) support it. The party platforms of both major political parties support it. Experience supports it.

How does F.E.P.C. overcome discrimination?

A local commission investigates complaints. Whenever complaints are well grounded, the commission seeks to adjust them by means of conference, conciliation, persuasion and education. If these methods fail, the commission may go to court to enforce compliance.

How do we know there is discrimination?

Just ask yourself how many employers ask about "religion" or "race." Look through the want-ads and see how many employers specify "white", "colored", "Anglo-Saxon", etc.

Is It Necessary in Waterloo?

Yes, School officials, private agencies and altogether too many applicants for jobs know that citizens have difficulty in finding jobs that measure up to their skills because of racial and religious discrimination.

Negro History Week Feb. 8-15

Washington, D.C. (ANP)—The annual observance of Negro History Week will be held Feb. 8-15, it was disclosed here this week by officials of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History with headquarters at 1538 9th Street, N. W. Washington.

The theme of this year's celebration is "Negro History and Human Relations." In addition to discussions and addresses on various aspects of the theme, association clubs, other civic groups and individuals can help by sending to the associations headquarters any important documents, letters, records and other materials bearing on the Negro's past and present achievements.

The ASNLH has listed eight topics to be studied during Negro History Week. They are:

"The Church and Negro Progress," Sunday; "Educating the Negro for Human Progress," Monday; "Civic Associations and Community Improvements," Tuesday; "Fraternal Organizations Serve Negro Progress," Wednesday; "Organizations Promoting Economic Advancement of Negroes," Thursday; "Equality of Opportunity and the New Day of Social Action," Friday; "Charity Affairs and Contributions of Social Groups," Saturday, and "Greek Letter Day in the Churches" on the closing day of the observance, Sunday, Feb. 15.

Tobias Former U. N. Delegate; Takes Dr. L. T. Wright's Place

New York (ANP) — Dr. Channing H. Tobias was elected last week to succeed the late Dr. Louis T. Wright as chairman of the board of directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Powell Introduces New FEPC Bill

Washington (ANP) — Adam Clayton Powell (D., N. Y.) has introduced a new fair employment practices bill in congress.

Powell, senior member of the House of Representatives from Manhattan, dropped the bill which he has authored during his preceding eight years in congress and introduced a bill patterned after the bi-partisan senate bill which was reported out of the senate labor committee.

The new bill, entitled "Federal Equality of Opportunity," can no longer be phased "FEPC."

In keeping with President-Elect Eisenhower's pledge to eradicate segregation in the District of Columbia, Powell introduced the necessary accompanying legislation which was referred to the committee on the District of Columbia.

The New York representative also introduced bills to give the District of Columbia the vote, making unlawful transportation of defamatory matters, anti-poll tax, anti-lynching, anti-segregation in the Army and anti-segregation in inter-state travel.

Dr. Robert C. Weaver, director of opportunity fellowship of the John Hay Whitney Foundation, was elected vice-chairman. Four new members and 12 incumbent members also were named to the board.

At the annual meeting of the NAACP in the Wilkie Memorial building, Walter White, executive secretary, headed a list of association officials giving annual reports.

White reported that 1952 was a year of progress in fighting discrimination with the battle to end segregation in public schools the top activity of the year. For 1953 he recommended:

"With our goal — elimination of enforced segregation — at last in sight, our greatest need for 1953 will be expansion so that we can develop public opinion at the community level to assist the process of integration."

Thurgood Marshall, chief counsel of the NAACP, called for a legal program to end "every semblance of segregation in transportation and allied facilities."

Roy Wilkins, administrator, revealed that the NAACP still is operating on a deficit. Others making reports included Gloster B. Current, director of branches; Clarence Mitchell, director of the Washington bureau; the Rev. Walter P. Offutt Jr., church secretary; Rufus W. Smith, director of fund raising; James W. Ivy, editor of Crisis; Herbert Hill, labor relations assistant, and Henry Lee Moon, director of public relations.

Dr. Tobias, the NAACP boards new chairman, is director of the Phelps-Stokes Fund and a former United States alternate delegate to the United Nations General Assembly. He is the winner of the 1948 Singam Medal given by the NAACP for distinguished achievement.

New board members elected by national referendum of NAACP branches for three years terms are Walter Carington, Everett, Mass., student at Harvard Law School and NAACP delegate to the Young Adult Council and the World Assembly of Youth; Dr. Buell Gallagher, New York City, president of the College of the City of New York; Earl B. Harrison, Philadelphia, former Dean of the Law School of the University of Pennsylvania; and John G. Lewis, Jr., Baton Rouge, La., chairman of the Legal Redress Committee of the Louisiana State Conference of NAACP branches.

Re-elected to the board were Kelly M. Alexander, Charlotte, N. C.; Dr. Allen Knight Chalmers, Boston; Dr. W. Montague Cobb, Washington, D. C.; Dr. Nathan K. Christopher, Cleveland, Ohio; Earl B. Dirksen, Chicago; Dr. George D. Flemings, Fort Worth, Texas; Dr. Henry J. Greene, Philadelphia; Mrs. Lillie M. Jackson, Baltimore; Carl R. Johnson, Kansas City, Mo.; W. W. Law, Savannah, Ga.; Theodore Spalding, Philadelphia and Dr. Robert C. Weaver, New York City.

Race, Labor Issue Is Outlawed At Meeting

New York—The right of minority stockholders to have a voice in the racial and labor policies of corporations in which they hold stock was unobtrusively outlawed by the Securities & Exchange Commission, which amended its proxy rules effective December 11.

No publicity in the daily press was given to this drastic curtailment of minority stockholders' right of free speech. News of it did appear in the December 17 issue of Prentice-Hall Securities Regulation Service, a business newsletter.

The amended regulations state: "The management may omit a proposal and any support thereof from its proxy statement and form of proxy if it clearly appears that the proposal is submitted by the security holder primarily for the purpose of promoting general economic, political, racial, social or similar causes."

One factor behind the SEC crackdown is a 4-year-old campaign by a group of 12 Greyhound Corp. minority stockholders (of whom are members of the Congress of Racial Equality) to get on the stockholders meeting agenda: "A recommendation that the management consider the advisability of abolishing the segregated seating system in the south." Although the SEC originally upheld this proposal, it subsequently reversed itself and supported the position of Greyhound that the issue is not a proper one for action by the stockholders thereupon, appealed to the courts.

The amended proxy rules, protested in a brief filed by the American Jewish Congress, will prevent such cases from even getting started. They will also make it impossible for minority stockholders to protest a corporation's lily-white employment policy or though such practices may result in anti-union labor policy — even in business reverses at the expense of corporations with FAIR Employment and labor policies.

SEEIN' STARS

New York (CNS) — Lionel Hampton has announced that he'll remain in the East a great deal of '53. With New York as home base (where the Hamptons have kept an apartment through the years), the No. 1 orchestra will do less cross country hops, have more time off and still make more money! That's the new master plan.

Biggest money making film for '52 was none other than "The Greatest Show on Earth" Thus follows that Cecil B. DeMille, producer of "Greatest Show" should be acknowledged biggest money making producer for '52. And speaking of films making "$", our Hollywood correspondent says "Members of the Wedding"—starring Ethel Waters — though an artistic triumph will probably be one of the poor money makers.

We hear Stephen Fetchit will be Satchel Paige in a movie version of ole Satch's colorful career . . . Ertha Kitt, already star of "New Faces" on Broadway, is slated for the lead in young Truman Capote's drama, "House of Flowers" . . . Filming of Joe Louis Story to start February 1st after being delayed a month . . . Script writers of "Beulah" pull down $400 per wee which is more than the star of the show gets . . .

Billy Eckstine turned in a thrilling performance of "Ole Man River" on the Ed Sullivan Show last Sunday. How we're plugging for Bill yto have his own TV outlet in '53.

SPORTS . . . SHORTS

TOWLER, MATSON, FORD, WILLIS, TUNNELL MAKE ALL-PRO ELEVEN

New York (ANP)—Five Negro stars were among the 22 men named to the Associated Press All-Pro football team announced last week. They were:

Dan (Deacon) Towler, the National league's leading ground gainer, of the Los Angeles Rams at a starting offensive backfield post.

Len Ford, Cleveland Browns, defensive end; Bill Willis, Cleveland Browns, defensive guard; Ollie Matson, Chicago Cardinals, defensive back, and Emlen Tunnell, New York Giants, safety.

During the season, Towler was the main cog in the ground attack of the Rams. Ford and Willis were mainstays of a strong defense for the Browns. Tunnell was a key man in the New York Giants' famed umbrella defense. Matson, although selected for the defensive eleven, was a leader for the Cardinals on both offense and defense.

Tunnell was one of the two men who recieved the most votes for the squad. Matson was one of only two rookies to make the all-star first eleven.

Receiving honorable mention for their excellent play during the 1952 season were George Taliaferro o fthe hapless Dallas Texans and Joe Perry of the San Francisco 49ers, both on offense.

TURPIN WANTS TO FIGHT BUT ONLY FOR TITLE

London (ANP) — Randy Turpin of London, rated the No. 1 challenger for the middleweight title recently vacated by Ray (Sugar) Robinson, said here last week that he willing to fight any middleweight in the world, but only for the world's championship.

He said, "I am not interested in any offers that may come from the states to fight the winner of the Bobo Olson-Norman Hayes bout in Boston, Feb. 7."

His manager, George Middleton, commented:

"We are sticking to our ground that Turpin is the leading contender for the championship, and we are ready to meet anyone on the understanding that it is for the title."

American promoters prefer an elimination series to be climaxed by a title bout between the winner of a proposed Turpin-Charles Humez bout and the winner of a tentative American tourney.

Turpin, who is British middleweight champion, owns a victory over Robinson. He recently gave up his light heavyweight championship, British version, to concentrate on the middleweight division.

GLOBETROTTERS ANNOUNCE SCHEDULE FOR FOURTH CAGE 'WORLD SERIES'

Chicago (ANP) — The fabulous Harlem Globetrotters, unbeaten this season in more than 90 games, last week announced their schedule for the fourth annual "world series" of basketball.

In this series, the Trotters play an All-Star aggregation of college aces. The Globetrotters have won all three previous series.

The 1953 games will open Mar. 29 at Madison Square Garden and close April 16 in Boston. The two teams will play 19 games in as many different cities.

Past series have attracted 599,389 fans. The 1953 schedule is as follows:

Mar. 29, New York; Mar. 30, Toronto, Canada; Mar. 31, Philadelphia; April 1, Raleigh, N.C.; April 2, Hershey, Pa.; April 3, Indianapolis; April 4, Milwaukee; April 5, Chicago.

April 6, Laramie, Wyo.; April 7, San Francisco; April 8, Los Angeles; April 9, Denver; April 10, Kansas City, Mo.; April 11, St. Louis; April 12, Cincinnati; April 13, Cleveland; April 14, Detroit; April 15, Buffalo, and April 16, Boston.

BOYD, POSEY GREAT IN SERVICE BOWL TILT

New York (ANP) — Will all the bowls accounted for, Negro fans can look back with pleasure at one of the lesser games in which the "tan stars" sparkled. That was the Salad Bowl at Phoenix, Ariz., played by a Naval base outfit and an Army base unit. Some 18,000 fans saw the Navy outfit pile up the heaviest score of the day, 81-14, and they also saw three terrific tan stalwarts do their stuff for both teams.

For the winners, Bob Boyd, stellar end from the Los Angeles Ram hot-footed it 88 yards for a touchdown after taking a lateral from a teammate in a total dual run of 102 yards. Boyd had had good seasons with the Rams before he went into the service this fall. His loss was seriously felt by the Rams.

Another ex-Ram, of whom little had been previously heard, Odie Posey, was a dashing figure in the navy backfield, scoring a touchdown too.

So the Bowl Games weren't a total loss after all. Tan stars as usual stole the show when they got the chance.

JAY WALKING

This is just another modern term, used to wake folks up before they meet with harm.

Even long years ago when the world was young and men were crude and strong, God had to mark a two-way road, that divided right from wrong.

But some insisted upon following their own way, and many have followed evil practices to this day.

Even intelligent men seem unable to put down evil and follow things right . . . all because their blinded eyes shut God out of sight.

No life, though ever so high and apparently bountiful in things material, can afford to shut out God whose virtues are eternal.

Just as men make laws to guide the fact of careless people, so God anticipates with love his children's needs and treats all of them equal.

He therefore demands that all alike keep His commandments and walk therein; for it is the only definite course for lasting peace, and the sure conqueror of sin.

But some, to their own liking, try to make short cuts, and start "JAY WALKING," only to fall into dangerous ruts.

Yet God still pleads that they continue His everlasting course . . . but despite His kind entreaties, some continue to get worse.

Still He sympathetically stands at the crossroads, urging men to stop their JAY WALKING, and follow His directions for eternal life . . . beyond the pale of foolish jesting and talking.

This is the voice to which all men should give ear; for it brings joy out of confusion and banishes fear.

David heard it one day while "JAY WALKING" with his adversary, when he toward God was acting contrary; but finally realizing how miserable such a life would be, he began a new course that set his soul free . . . and it was then he exclaimed, "yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me."

Richmond, Va. (ANP) — The Rev. Irvin Elligan, former pastor of First United Presbyterian church, Norfolk, Va., and an ex-member of the faculty at Knoxville college, Knoxville, Tenn., has organized a new Presbyterian church here to advance the interests of the denoimnation among Negroes.

It is the All Soul Presbyterian church. Officers are now undergoing training for their duties. They will be officially inducted into their positions after the training period is over.

Meanwhile, services are being held in the A. V. Norrell school until permanent quarters can be secured. The plan is to establish the new church as a recruiting center to strengthen the position of the denomination among Negroes.
