DEPARTMENT SONG

A song I'll sing to you
Of men both good and true,
Who labored, battling for the right.
In righteousness and truth,
They started in their youth;
And never fainted in the fight.

Chorus:

Oh! the church is moving on,
The church is moving on.
From lowland and from valley,
From mountain top they rally.
The battle bow is strung,
The banner is outflung;
And Giant Wrong, no more is strong
For the church is moving on.

'Twas Richard Allen brave,
A legacy he gave
Of freedom and of courage too.
Then Brown and Waters came,
Of heart and mind the same;
And laid down work for us to do.

(Chorus)

The western work begun,
There Quinn, our noble son,
Did labor preaching night and day.
Then Nazery took the field,
And Payne with mighty zeal,
Did go forth lighting up the way.

(Chorus)

Then Wayman he stepped in;
And Campbell did begin,
To send forth words of truth and might;
Then Shorter, Ward and Brown
Did labor for the crown
And ceased not battling for the right.

(Chorus)
