Negro Business and Information Directory

FOREWORD

IN PROPORTION to the Negro population in Des Moines, there is a shortage in every line of business, with the single exception of places to eat. Much improvement could be made in most of these; and no doubt will be in the near future.

THE INABILITY on the part of Des Moines Negroes generally and particularly those in business to cooperate gives the MAIN but not whole answer to the lack of more and better business places.

THIS SMALL Directory is that FIRST STEP necessary for business improvement and expansion. We had hoped to have a 100% representation of Negro business, BIG and Little; and delayed the date of printing twice in the hope of getting every one in.

WE FEEL that the smallest possible benefit, in dollars and cents, to any business listed in this Directory, will be at least five dollars ($5.00) during a period of one year from date of publication. To say nothing of Goodwill, Community Spirit, etc.

WE HOPE those who stayed out this year will be with us in the 1940-41 edition.

IN OTHER states and cities, especially in the South and East, Negroes are holding their own in all the various lines of business, despite the depression. They have learned the value of improved techniques, and are co-operating as never before.

THROUGHOUT the United States we now have over 25 thousand successful businesses of all kinds. Have 23 Negro banks, 44 insurance companies. There are over 200 newspapers, magazines, etc.

TO ENCOURAGE and improve Negro business generally, there are now operating in the various states over 60 Negro Business Associations, Boards of Trade, Chambers of Commerce, etc.

WHAT NEW business in Des Moines will we have? What improvements and expansion will we make within the next 365 days? How much real co-operation will we record in the 1940-41 Edition of the "Negro Business and Information Directory?"

THIS DIRECTORY is circulated in every Negro home in Des Moines; and several hundred white homes and business places that have found and still find satisfaction in using one or more of the various services Negroes supply—whether Catering, Cosmetology, Carpentry or Printing, Paperhanging, Painting, General Clean-up Service or Law, Medicine, Music, entertaining, etc., etc.

To these several hundred white homes and businesses that PRACTICE the Democracy which they preach, we feel that this little Directory will aid you in finding and experiencing other Negro services which you may not have known. We appreciate and encourage the increased extension of your valued patronage.

ADDITIONAL Copies of this Directory may be had for 5c per copy at the following places:

Community Pharmacy, 1200 Center Street, Phone 3-9860.

Walker Street Pharmacy, 1554 Walker Street, Phone 6-1875.

Crocker Street Branch Y M C A, 1023 Crocker Street, Phone 3-5511.

Consumers Buying Club, 416 East 6th Street, Phone 3-6317.

R. E. Patten, 821 14th Street, Phone 4-9469.

The Directory Committee parades just a tiny bit of pardonable pride for this tiny effort. Lots of work! Oh boy, lots of work! But the worthwhileness of the effort is instantly seen by anyone. Plans are now underway for a bigger, better next edition. We thank you, one and all for both the "heat" of criticism and the fragrance of praise.

THERE are none PERFECT. All errors and omissions are unintentional. Kindly forgive.

IF YOU change your address or phone number before the 1940-41 edition notify Secretary of DIRECTORY COMMITTEE, R. E. Patten, 821 14th Street, Phone 4-9469.

FRIEND

A FRIEND is a person who is for you always under any circumstances. ∞ He never investigates you. ∞ When charges are made against you, he never asks proof, he asks the accuser to clear out. ∞ He likes you just as you are; he does not want to alter you. ∞ He likes your success, and your failure endears you to him more. ∞ He is better than a lover because he is never jealous of you. ∞ He wants nothing from you except that you be yourself. ∞ He is the one being with whom you can feel safe. ∞ With him you can utter your heart, its badness and its goodness. ∞ You don't have to be careful. ∞ In his presence you can be indiscreet: which means that you can rest. ∞ There are many faithful wives and husbands; there are few faithful friends. ∞ Anybody may stand by you when you are right; a friend stands by you even when you are wrong. ∞ The highest known form of friendship is that of the dog for his master. ∞ You're in luck if you can find one man or woman on earth who has that kind of affection for you and fidelity to you. ∞ It is he that keeps alive your faith in human nature, that makes you believe that it is a good universe. ∞ He is the antidote to despair, the elixir of hope, the tonic for depression, the medicine to cure suicide. ∞ When you are vigorous and spirited you like to take your pleasure with him. When you are sick you want to see him. When you are dying you want to have him near. ∞ You give to him without reluctance and borrow from him without embarrassment. ∞ If you can live fifty years and find one absolute friend you are fortunate, for of the thousands of human creatures that crawl the earth, few are of such stuff as friends are made of.

REAL SPIRIT OF UNITY

Stand off by yourself in your dreaming,
And all of your dreams are vain;
No grandeur of soul or spirit
Can man by himself attain.
It is willed we shall dwell as brothers
As brothers then we must toil;
We must act with a common purpose
As we work in a common soil.
And each who would see accomplished
The dreams that He's proud to own,
Must strive for the goal with his fellows
For no man can do it alone.

OTHER ITEMS ON FACTS ABOUT NEGROES

NEGRO INVENTIVE genius has been applied successfully from the ground up—from mining tools to flying machines; from cotton pickers to piano players; and some of the largest industries in the country are built upon the basic patents of Negro inventors—notably, a twenty-odd million dollars shoe machinery industry founded upon Jan E. Matzlinger's invention for lasting shoes.

THE NEGRO WOMAN is a shining star in all high lights of Negro history. From cooking—catering to music and manufacturing—entertaining and education.

Mrs. E. C. Berry, hotel; Marion Anderson, music. Madam C. J. Walker and A. M. Malone, toilet preparations manufacturing.

Ethel Waters, Ella Fitzgerald, Josephine Baker, entertainers.

Maudelle Brown of Chicago, first Negro woman dean of Girls in mixed schools; first Negro principal of mixed high school.

Mary McLeod Bethune founder and builder of school in Florida. Both high types in the field of education.

Still others, many others, in education and unselfish service, Nannie H. Burroughs, Maggie L. Walker, Fanny Jackson Coppin, Maria L. Baldwin, Lucy Laney, Charlotte Hawkins Brown and more than we have space to name.

LESSON IN RIGHT LIVING

"Do you wish for kindness? Be kind.
Do you ask for truth? Be true.
What you give of yourself you find;
Your world is a reflex of you."

If thou would'st right the world,
And banish all its evils and its woes,
Make its wild places bloom,
And its drear deserts blossom as the rose,—
THEN RIGHT THYSELF.

If thou would'st turn the world
From its long, lone captivity in sin,
Restore all broken hearts,
Slay grief, and let sweet consolation
in,—
TURN THOU THYSELF.

If thou would'st cure the world
Of its long sickness, end its grief and pain;
Bring in all-healing Joy,
And give to the afflicted rest again,—
THEN CURE THYSELF.

If thou would'st wake the world
Out of its dream of death and dark'
ning strife
Bring it to Love and Peace
And Light and brightness of immortal
Life,—
WAKE THOU THYSELF.

—James Allen.

HE CANNOT READ HIS TOMB-STONE WHEN HE'S DEAD

If with pleasure you are viewing any
work a man is doing,

If you like him or you love him, tell him now.

Don't withhold your approbation till
the parson makes oration.

And he lies with wreaths of lilies o'er his brow.

For no matter how you shout it, he
won't really care about it,

He won't know how many teardrops
you have shed.

If you think some praise is due him,
now's the time to slip it to him,

For he cannot read his tombstone
when he's dead.

More than fame and more than money is the comment kind and
sunny,

And the hearty, warm approval of a
friend;

For it gives to life a savor and it makes you stronger—braver—

And it fills your soul with courage to
the end,

If he earns your praise, bestow it;
if you like him, let him know it.

Let the words of true encouragement
be said.

Do not wait till life is over and he's underneath the clover,

For he cannot read his tombstone

when he's dead.

Down the ways of truth and beauty,
you can bless the deeds of duty,

If you'll give a hearty handshake
when you can;

For no matter what your station,
there's unmeasured inspiration,

In the words of honest praising you

can give your fellowman,
If he needs your help befriend him,
you can always love extend
him;

You can lift his load a little, ere the light of life is fled;

Do not wait till he is sleeping, where
the broken hearts are weeping,

For he cannot read his tombstone
when he's dead.
