What's One Vote?

Well, ONE VOTE had a lot to do with a lot of things in this country! Thomas Jefferson was elected President by ONE VOTE in the electoral college. So was (John) Quincy Adams. Rutherford B. Hayes was elected President by ONE VOTE. His election was contested, and it was referred to an electoral college. Again he won by ONE VOTE.

The man who cast that deciding vote for President Hayes was a Congressman from Indiana, a lawyer who was elected to Congress by a margin of just ONE VOTE; and that ONE VOTE was cast by a client of his, who, though desperately ill, insisted upon being taken to the polls.

By just ONE VOTE there came into the nation the states of California, Idaho, Oregon, Texas, and Washington. That's a big chunk of territory, and, today, all the millions living in those states are Americans by just ONE VOTE.

Now, you may say that the ONE VOTE situation applies to the past. Well, don't forget that the draft act of World War II passed the House by just ONE VOTE. You can carry this ONE VOTE history on and on.

For example, ONE MORE ADDITIONAL DEMOCRATIC VOTE in each of Ohio's 8,800 precinct in 1944 would have defeated Mr. Taft. In 1948, ONE MORE ADDITIONAL REPUBLICAN VOTE in each of the 8,800 precincts would have carried the state for Mr. Dewey instead of Mr. Truman.

$500 Separates Three Friends

The sum of $500 has strained the relations of the trio shown above—John R. Williams, Miss Louise Brown and Joe Louis, former heavyweight champion of the world, all formerly of Detroit. The above picture was taken in Los Angeles when they were on more friendly terms.

Currently, Miss Brown is a defendant in a suit filed last week by Williams in which he is seeking the return of $500 which he claims she had him invest with a real estate broker. He claims this sum supposedly was a down payment on a hotel lease in Los Angeles because of a "sad, sad" story Miss Brown told him. Williams is asking his money from a real estate broker who supposedly represented Miss Brown.

Louis had nothing to do with this particular case. He was, however, connected with Williams in the past in a couple of unfortunate promotions.

Mother and Son Hurt In Accident

At 5:30 P.M. at the corner of Halstead and Shilliam Ave. last Monday, a collision took place between a passenger car driven by Mr. George A. Dunkley of 104 Jackson street and a truck belonging to the Waterloo Fuel Company driven by William Winklye.

In a statement to the Waterloo Post, Mr. Dunkley stated that he was driving east on Shilliam, when the truck driven by Winklye pulled out of the intersection at Halstead directly into the path of his car.

Injured in the collision were Fredrick Curtis, 10 month old and his mother, Mrs. Georgia Curtis of 240 Douglas street. Mr. Dunkley escaped without injury. Mrs. Curtis is a patient at Schoitz Memorial Hospital. Her son was rushed to the University Hospital at Iowa City.

Post Family Of The Week

We have selected as our family of the week: Mr. and Mrs. Charles "Dixie" Taylor and family of 512 North Barclay street. They are members of Mt. Carmel Baptist Church.

Mr. Taylor, an employee of the Illinois Central Shops, is Worshipful Master of St. Johns Lodge No. 35, a member of the A. J. Clark Consistory, a member of Bashir Temple, a Trustee at Mt. Carmel, and Past Commander of the V.F.W. Mr. Taylor is the announcer of the Mt. Carmel Radio Broadcast. Mr. Taylor also holds the welterweight championship of the state of Iowa, the middleweight championship of the state of Iowa, and the middleweight championship of the state of Colorado.

Mrs. Taylor, employed as a Nurse's Aide at St. Francis Hospital, is a daughter of Ises and President of the Women's Auxiliary of the VFW.

The Taylors have two children: Eugenia Louise, 9, and Charles Dixon III, 3.

Beating The Gun

by Al Moses

New York (ANP)—Such were the simple, undressed utterances that gushed forth from the torn-heart of Mrs. Arnold Cream, wife of one of the greatest ring warriors of the day, Jersey Joe Walcott. They were spoken to one of more news reporters following the defeat of her husband by powerful young Rocky Marciano in the recent world's heavy-weight bout held in Philadelphia's huge Municipal Stadium.

I would respectfully like to dissent, take the negative side with gracious Mrs. Cream by saying this: The team of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Cream won their greatest social and moral victory in their supposed hour of darkest defeat. No college or university can teach one to lose magnificently.

Like the great baseball leader, Cumberland (Cum) Posey of the Homestead Grays dynasty used to say: "All the world loves a winner and a loser merely goes along for the trolley ride." This is not entirely true we again rise to submit.

The Saviour of all Mankind for all practical purposes measured by the finite yardstick of man, was a complete loser on Calvary and bleak Golgotha's Hill 2,000 years ago. Historians one and all will tell you that he won his greatest victory in that hour, and so did Jersey Joe Walcott, a man beyond the recorded 38 years, loving father and outstanding American, in that historic title bout.

Mrs. Cream's humble thoughts live with me and others alongside Joe Louis' classic lines. "We will win the war because we're on God's side."

Attitude of Loved Ones

Mrs. Cream recalled the night when the father of her six fine children crushed champion Ezzard Charles to succeed to the most prized title in all sportdom. His lawn was overrun with sincere admirers, nosey bodies, reporters galore and neighborhood cronies.

A deserted village aspect followed the wire news that Marciano POST SEVEN—had crushed her husband into the ring resin. The world we live in is that way, Mrs. Cream.

You have won millions of new admirers to your now ex-champion hubby by the dynamic thought-impact your unhearsd words carried. They are strangely reminiscent of the words of the greatest man who ever tread this earth, Jesus of Nazareth.

Past Spummer's Leaders

Andy Stanfield and Mal Whitfield, American Olympic campaigners spearheaded a group of interracial United States who showed the world that colored and white teamed together, are well nigh unbeatable. Mae Faggs, was our idea of a modern Diana or Atlantis. She will one day be the fleetest 60 yard female — Harrison (Bones) Dillard, best of the hurdlers since Georgia's Forrest Towns put his spiked shoes in moth balls.

The raft of Negro Nationals from this and other countries whose performances along with their talented white brothers, made the '52 games at Helsinki, Finland the sports creme-de-creme of this year.—In minor league as well as big-time baseball, colored stars did a grand job.

Take Lucious (Luke) Easter, considered an utter liability to manager Al Lopez's pennant hopes for the Cleveland Indians. Sept. 30 saw Easter voted one of two outstanding American League players by that barometer of baseball, "The Sporting News." This was definitely the standout comeback of the past season.

Dave Hoskins, peerless moundsman of the Dallas, Texas club, is of unquestionable major league ability as the next season or two will prove — The name of Joe Black, former Morgan college grid and diamond ace, was on the lips of all baseball fans. He was not only MVP in the minds of all fair thinking fans, he was a sportsman to point to with pride.

Clarence Henry, stiff punching 23 year old California heavyweight prospect who was derailed for a while by the great Archie Moore, furnished a somber bit of news when the leak about his eye injury (cornea) sustained in the More fracas hit the daily papers a month ago. Marciano had named Henry for his next opponent even ahead of Rex Layne.

Junior Gilliam, Montreal Royals second baseman was voted the International league's most valuable player, with rumors that Jackie Robinson may quit, I can't see how Chuck Dressen can do other than bring to Brooklyn this most sought after minor league sensation. He is a switch hitter and 23 years old.

Fact and Fun

The preacher mumbled a few words in his throat and a friend of mine was married. A few months later this same friend mumbled a few words in his sleep and shortly after he was divorced.

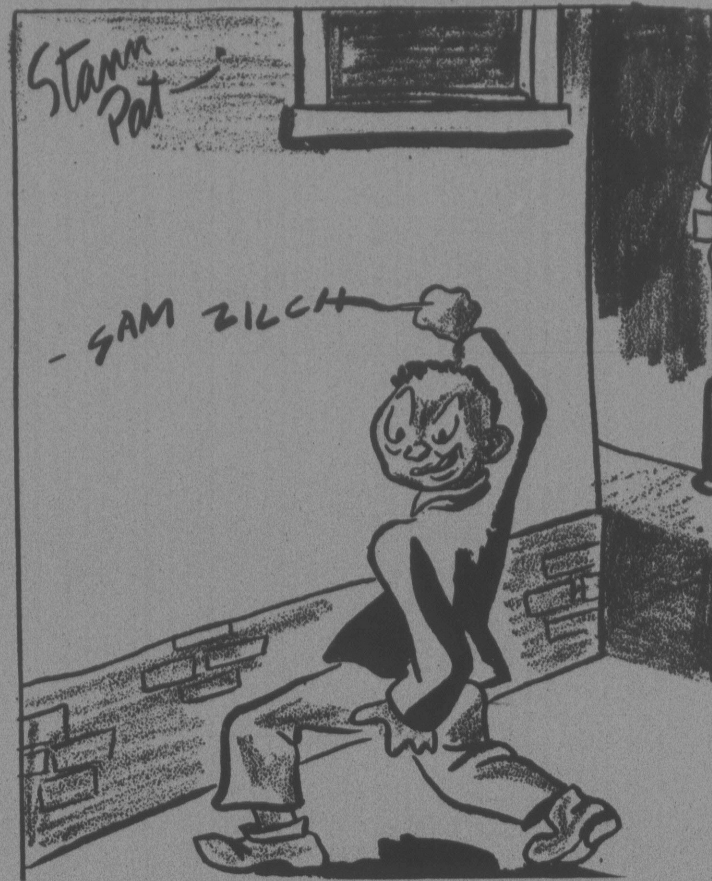

Dr. C. W. Muehlberger defined the six stages of drunkenness at a meeting of police officials in Toronto. He named them as this: 1. Dry and decent, 2. Delighted and devilish, 3. Dizzy and delirious, 4. Dazed and rejected, 5. Dead drunk, and 6. Dead.

When the question of cheating came up, one of the young students asked the teacher, "Mrs. Smith, what is your opinion of cheating and cheaters?"

"If you can cheat and live with yourself, that's your business," declared Mrs. Smith.

The next day report cards were sent home. Upon returning his, the student who had originally asked the question said, "Mrs. Smith, I've found I can cheat and live with myself much better than I can fail your course and live with my father."

Scout Troop No. 12 On Hike Trip

Troop No. 12 took an overnight camping trip for the second time this year, Saturday, October 11th. Leaving at 6 P.M. we had supper at Camp Ingawanis at 7:00 p.m. We were served navy beans with bacon and tomato paste and frankfurters nice and hot. The chief cook was Lee Phillips.

Scoutmaster—Robert E. Burt, Jr.

After supper we took a hike around the camp. Upon our return a large camp fire was made and group singing followed. The troop was led in song by Sr. Patrol leader, James Black.

Sunday morning at 6:45 a.m. we had breakfast. At 7:55 a.m. after policing up the area we went exploring the camp site. The Wapsipinicon area camp, the Ingawanis is very large and hilly. We expect to return again soon. Twenty-three boys were present on the camping trip. Rudolph Martin and sons carried us to the camp in their truck.

"Satch" and Steve on CBS Radio

One of the world's all time great trumpeters, Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong, was the featured guest star, Saturday, October 4 on the CBS Steve Allen Show. The Steve Allen Show is a new hour long weekly network show, 9:30-10:30 p.m. EST on Saturday nights. Allen is on the left apparently "sent" by Louis' trumpet as he blows in typical fashion on the right. Also a guest was Velma Middleton, singer with Armstrong's famed All-Star combo. — (ANP)

THOUGHT FOR THE WEAK

If you drive, don't drink.
If you drink, don't drive
That's a very good way
To stay alive.

BATTLE SCARS

Walking down the streets of Waterloo, you would think you were near the battlefields of Korea. Everywhere you look, you see people swathed in bandages. You see some with their heads bandaged, some with their arms bandaged, some with their hands bandaged, some with their legs bandaged, and some with their feet wrapped up. Some are walking with canes, some with crutches, and some aren't able to walk at all. Some have their eyes blacked, their lips cracked, and their bodies hacked. I asked one battered fellow what had happened to him. "Oh, I ran into a door," he said. Friends, they don't make those kind of doors. Which reminds me of a recent incident. A fellow with swollen eyes, a busted nose was asked the cause of his casualties. "Oh, I got caught in a swinging door," he said. Yes sir, folks! He's right. And the guy who caught him in that swinging door darn near beat him to death.

WHAT STRONG TEETH YOU HAVE

Eddie Lee Phillips was playing with his baby a while ago. At that time she was just three months and a few days old. Suddenly he jumped to his feet and yelled,

"Hey, Stella, this baby's got two teeth already. She just bit me."
The baby winked aside, and said to herself, "Don't play me cheap, big boy."

THERE'S THAT SWAN MAN AGAIN

There are some fellows around here who you wouldn't think could win a foot race with a snail, but who can break all speed records getting away when they see the bill collector coming. I just saw a demonstration of this down near Cliff's Supper Club.

ROMAN CANDLES AND EVERYTHING

It is no where near the Fourth of July, but there's going to be a whole lot of fireworks around here very soon. And I'm going to get myself a ring side seat to watch the display.

FOUR ALARM FIRE

There was a big fire at "Brother" Allen's residence last Saturday evening around 3 p.m. A large crowd was attracted by the conflagration. The fire department was out in force. Mr. Allen's summer house burned down.

ENTERTAINMENT NEWS

Cliff's Supper Club is now offering entertainment for its partons. Mr. Smith has booked a tap dancer, lately from Chicago, New York, and not very far from Independence. He also has a vocalist imported from St. Louis — or should I say deported.

NOW THEY'RE INTELLECTUALS

Mr. Wilson Baker and Mr. Frank Reed were absorbing a bit of culture, Saturday night. They were out with two university girls.

VERY PLEASED TO MEET YOU

Waterloo had a very gracious visitor, Saturday. Miss Monzelle Lewis, a student at the University of Iowa, at Iowa City, was in the city as a guest of Miss Kay Smith, a Waterloo girl, also a student at the University of Iowa. It's ladies like Miss Lewis that make men seek after the higher learning.

SPEAKING OF HIGHER LEARNING

Nowadays when you speak of the higher learning, you're saying a mouthful. Learning is really higher than it used to be. About a couple of hundred dollars or so more.

A MILLION DOLLAR BABY

A young lady recently told me that she was looking for a husband. One with about a million dollars. She preferred a man around 75 years old, and tottering on the brink of the grave. Of course, this part is optional. This young lady is very lovely, and delectable. She has real long curly hair that cascades over her shoulders and down her back. She is real small and cute, but she has everything placed in just the right places in the correct proportions. Boy, oh boy, oh boy, I wish I was a millionaire.

HOME FOR AWHILE

Miss Lorraine Baker has been visiting the home town folks in Waterloo and creating quite a stir amongst the male population. Boy, I still wish I was a millionaire.

I WONDER IF HE MEANS IT

A certain young man told me that when he saw a certain young lady, he was going to put a whole lot of his fist up under her chin. He says that he's getting sick and tired of her neglecting and ignoring him. He says that he now knows why she doesn't come out anymore. She's afraid.

THE WATERLOO STOMP

A fellow was thrown out of an all night eating establishment about three o'clock Saturday morning. When he hit the ground, he slid along on his stomach like Jackie Robinson sliding into second base. Four fellows tossed coins to decide who should stomp him. Not being able to agree, they all joined in stomping him. In the course of their stomping, one of the fellows got his foot stepped on. This started a fight amongst the four fellows as to who stomped on whose foot. It was quite a while before the air cleared.

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

Mrs. E. Roberts and Mrs. L. Ambrose got jobs in Mason City. About a month ago they came back to Waterloo for a visit, and have been visiting ever since. They couldn't get around so well in Mason City.

IT WASN'T LIKE THIS IN KOREA

A young man, a discharged soldier, recently returned to America and to Waterloo, says that he felt safer on the battlefields of Korea. There, he said, you, at least knew who your enemies were, who you were fighting, and what you were fighting about. Here, you are liable to get your block knocked off, anywhere, anytime, by anybody, about just any little thing.

BON JOUR

Well, I'll let you go now, so you can go down to the city hall, and register. Adios! I'll be seeing you.

Soldier's Cheer

So many times, I lose track of people, but through the Waterloo Post I've been able to keep in contact with my friends of Waterloo. I usually read the Post before I go to bed each night from cover to cover, even the advertising. I think that it is far superior to a lot of papers that we read in the West.

Your sending the Waterloo Post and verses helps me to keep me up to date on the home front and the verses ease my mind. Your important letters which bear the helpful news of home and abroad pulls me through. Tell all hello.

Camp Crowder, Mo.

Please accept my double thanks for the wonderful candy you sent me and for the fine verses I get with my paper. They make me think a lot about life and my position in the vast scheme of things. The coming election will affect us all and all the servicemen take a vast interest in what changes it will have on him as an individual. We are all tired in mind and body of the senseless bloodshed. The bickering on both sides is costing a lot of fine men their future happiness and in the end their lives. What I would personally like to see is peace for once in my life. Both my friends and myself would feel happier if the folks at home would send up some prayers for peace and joyous living a little while in our lifetime.

Clowns Win Negro World Series

CLOWNS BEAT BLACK BARONS TO TAKE NAL CHAMPIONSHIP

New Orleans (ANP)—The Indianapolis Clowns claimed the world championship of Negro baseball last week as they shut out the Birmingham Black Barons 5 to 0 in the final game of the 1952 Negro "world series."

This gave the Clowns a margin of 7 games to 5 in the 12-tilt series. A crowd of 5,000 fans saw the Clowns win their third straight Negro American league championship.

The Funmakers won the first half of the split NAL season, and the Black Barons, the second half. To take the crown, the Clowns had to win four straight games after trailing by a 5-3 margin.

Henry Aaron, the fabulous rookie sold to the Boston Braves farm system earlier this season, played with the club during this post-season series to lead the Clowns to victory. He batted .402 and slammed out five home runs.

Hot Stove League Notes

1952 WORLD SERIES GREATEST FOR DRAMA

Fans will always remember the 1952 World Series in which the New York Yankees whipped the Brooklyn Dodgers four games to three for the world's baseball championship as probably the most dramatic series of all time.

The underdog Dodgers featuring almost a one-man pitching staff in rookie OJ Black with stout aid by Preacher Roe and Carl Erskine fought the perennial champion Yankees down to the last out before they gave up.

Jackie Robinson tied a record for the number of walks in one game-four. Although Jackie did not hit much for percentage, he was rated potentially the most dangerous man on the Brooklyn nine.

Catcher Roy Campanella of the Dodgers proved himself the peer of all backstops with his superb play. His arm defied all Yankee attempts to steal bases. He was a steady influence on Brooklyn's wobbly mound staff.

The hero of the Dodgers in defeat, however, was Duke Snider, whose four homeruns tied a world series record. He drove in crucial runs that helped the Dodgers win three games. Captain Pee Wee Reese of Brooklyn also hit consistently and fielded superbly.

First baseman Gil Hodges of Brooklyn probably had the most disappointing series record, no hits in 21 times at bat.

For the winners, an ancient slugger who is as old as the father of the Yankee's greatest current hitting star, Mickey Mantle, was the most dramatic figure. This slugger was Johnny Mize.

Mize belted three homers and was robbed of another. Pitcher Allie Reynolds came through when he was needed. The team as a whole, however, were the Yankees—which is enough in baseball. Abiding by the old Yankee tradition, the Bronx Bombers blasted 10 home runs for a new record.

Probably the biggest question in the minds of Brooklyn fans is why did the Dodgers lose after taking a 3-2 game lead?

The answer seems to be in the old Yankee principle—to win you must come through in the clutch when the chips are down. The Dodgers could not come through when the runs were needed.

Rarely did the power expected from Robinson, Campanella and Hodges come through. Along with Snider, these men are expected to deliver when the runs are needed. They did not. In one game, Jackie struck out three times with his bat on his shoulder.

On the field, the Dodgers were great—they made impossible catches and brilliant stops. Their play on the diamond held them up.

Nevertheless, the Dodgers surprised by playing great, fighting, spiritual ball which saw them almost upset the form charts which predicted them as sure losers. Now that 1952 is over, all they can say is "Wait 'til next year."

In the meantime, Jackie will devote full time to his duties as an executive vice-president of the National Broadcasting company and his radio and television programs to help youth. He also is opening a department store in Harlem.

SPORTS . . . SHORTS

SADDLER TRYING TO MAKE $$ ON FURLOUGH

New York (CNS)—Sandy Saddler, featherweight champion now serving in the army, is trying to make his 18 day furlough a most profitable one. Sandy is seeking a fight during the time off so as to help supplement his army pay.

DILLARD GET ANOTHER HONOR

Cleveland, Ohio (CNS)—Harrison Dillard, who gave such a good accounting of himself at the recent Olympics, was awarded the John Thornton trophy by the British Amateur Athletic Association. Dillard gets the trophy for his high hurdling performance in London's White City Stadium on August 4th when his time was 13.9—the best recorded in Great Britain this year.

CLAIM INDIANS WOULD HAVE WON IF THEY HUSTLED AS DODGERS

Cleveland, Ohio (CNS)—Cleveland Indian fans, on watching the World Series via television, constantly marvelled at the hustle of the Dodgers. Many times you could hear the comment: "If the Indians had only half that hustle, we'd be in this series right now."

For the argument was that the Indians had the edge on the Yankees in pitching—what with three 20 game winners. And they had the edge on power. It was in the fielding that they managed to blow a pennant that so many had won for them on paper.

Many Cleveland fans mumbled here: "If our boys had only a fraction of Jackie Robinson's daring on the base paths — If the Indians only slid in a few more bases like those Dodgers, and take a few extra bases. Man, look at those Dodgers go." . . .

It was interesting to note, that these Cleveland fans deserted the American League in the Series. Nine out of ten went against their arch enemy — "the damn Yankees." And when the Dodgers lost the brilliant series, Cleveland poured out its sympathy for it knew so well the bitterness of losing to the Yankees.

FAVORITE JOEY BROWN GETS BELTED IN N.Y. DEBUT

New York (CNS)—Joey Brown, though the betting favorite and the expert's choice had his New York debut as a top lightweight spoiled by one George Araujo. Before 2,099 at the St. Nicholas Arena, Araujo KO'd the New Orleans Negro in the 7th round with a mean left hook.

Up until the knockout, Brown had appeared to have Araujo's number. He certainly had the sharper punching and scored in the 6th what appeared to be a knockdown, though the ref later ruled it a slip. But came the 7th and it was all over in 1:24 of the round. This was Brown's 12th defeat against 42 victories that included wins over ex-champ Jimmy Carter, Luther Rawlings and Virgil Akins.

CLEVELAND'S MANAGER DENIES RUMORS OF TRADING DOBY

New York (CNS)—This comes straight from the boss' mouth. And he ought to know. To the persistent rumors that Larry Doby is on the block and may go to the St. Louis Browns or the Detroit Tigers or the Boston Red Sox, the answer is no, as far as Hank Greenberg is concerned. He's the general manager of the Cleveland Indians. At a dinner this week at the Toots Shor restaurant in the presence of Bill Veeck, manager and owner of the St. Louis Browns and Mrs. Greenberg, Greenberg said most emphatically, "You can safely write any time, that Larry Doby will not be traded or sold this winter."

RICKEY CALLS DODGERS STILL HIS TEAM

New York (CNS)—To Branch Rickey, the Dodgers are still his Dodgers. He swelled with pride as he talked about them and was especially thrilled about the first game. "A great team. Matured now. Veteranized. High morale. Eight men in the lineup who can hit home runs." When asked if they were better now than when they played for Rickey in the '49 series, Rickey commented: "These are my Dodgers. But developed now. Veteranized . . ."

Rev. D. O. Bell Honored at Mt. Carmel

Huge Crowd Honors Pastor at 5th Anniversary Services

Pastors and members of four churches participated in a program last Sunday commemorating the Fifth Anniversary of Dr. D. O. Bell's pastorage at Mt. Carmel Baptist Church. Unlike most celebrations there was a special reverence that remained throughout the service. Pride and appreciation was shown on the faces of the members of Dr. Bell making the service a heart warming one that gave everyone present a thought to carry home with them.

Mr. Augustus Anderson, chairman of the Trustee Board and a Deacon of Mt. Carmel, was program chairman of the service. Choirs from Payne AME Church and Union Baptist Church joined with the Mt. Carmel choir in providing music for the afternoon. Rev. A. N. Fox, pastor of Union Baptist rendered vocal selections and dedicated Dr. Bell's favorite song to him, "He'll Understand And Say, Well Done."

Rev. Samuel Davis, pastor of Antioch Baptist Church, read the scripture and made impromptu remarks. Mrs. Rainey Mae Burgess of Antioch sang a selection and the Southern Travelers quintet of Union Baptist helped to keep the service musically inspired. Mrs. William McDonald, wife of Rev. McDonald presented a paper entitled, "How To Have Cooperation."

Rev. E. M. Taylor introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Rev. George T. Stinson, Jr., pastor of Payne AME. Rev. Stinson's text was: "Art Thou The Christ Or Shall We Look For Another?"

One of the highlights of the afternoon was a "Pen Party" given by his members and friends. Paper dollars were pinned on the clothing of Dr. and Mrs. Bell. The protruding dollars were then joined together thus linking the Bells together. This ceremony conducted with a serenity that was breathtaking, took place beneath an archway covered with seasonal flowers.

Dr. D. O. Bell, well known to most Waterlooans, was born in Erie, Pa. He attended St. Catherine's High School in Ontario, Canada, from which he graduated. He then entered McMasters University in Toronto, Canada where he received his Bachelor of Arts Degree. Dr. Bell enrolled next in the Moody Bible Institute. Graduating from there with a Bachelor of Theology Degree, he entered Northwestern University where he received a Masters Degree. Dr. Bell then attended Chicago University. He emerged from there with his Doctor's Degree.

Dr. and Mrs. Bell were married June 1, 1924 in Kentucky. Dr. Bell previously pastored at the Mt. Mariah Baptist Church in Chicago, the Union Baptist Church in Burlington, Iowa and the Mt. Zion Church in Cedar Rapids where he remained for ten years.

During his pastorage at Mt. Carmel, seventy-five new members have been added to the roll. Remodeling amounting to $5,000 has been done on the outside and inside of the church during the past five years. Dr. Bell and his church have been broadcasting each Sunday at 11:00 a.m. over KBOK for the past five years. Dr. Bell gained a host of friends and listeners when he conducted a twelve week Bible Class last year.

Active in community and civic work, Dr. Bell has been Deputy Assessor for one year. He has held the position of Grand Chaplain of Prince Hall of the Masonic Lodge for five years.

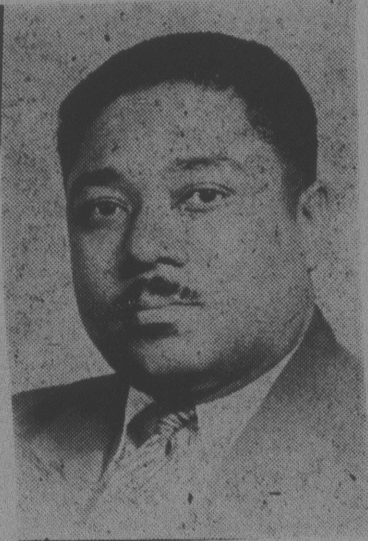

Highlight of the Anniversary Services was Rev. D. O. Bell accepting the Anniversary gift.

Sermon of The Week

by Rev. A. N. Fox

Pastor, Union Baptist Church

We are commanded to live soberly, righteous and Godly. The first has reference to ourselves; the second to our fellow-man; the third our relation to God. Godliness that is profitable is first of all founded upon knowledge, positive knowledge. Open thou my eyes that I may see the wondrous things of thy law. "Thy word is lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path." It is said, "This is life eternal to know thee, to know Jesus Christ."

Another characteristic of Godliness is sincerity. Sincerity is one of the severest tests of Godliness. Where it is present there may be Godliness; Where it is absent there can be none. There is just as much difference between the form of Godliness and the power of Godliness as there is between counterfeit money and genuine money. There is a form of Godliness that is not Godliness any more than a stuffed animal is a real animal. It may have the form and appearance, but it lacks the life and power. The form of Godliness is policy, but the power of it is honesty. The form of Godliness is on the lips, but the power of it is in the heart.

Do you know why the community is scandalized by the exposure of some citizen? It is not his christianity, but his lack of it. A christian and a hypocrite are not traveling in the same direction and, of course, they could not be in each others way. The only way a fellow can be in the way is for him to be ahead of me, and for me to confess that sinners and hypocrites are in my way. No, you never stumble over an object that is behind you. A plug dollar will attract more attention than a whole plate of genuine ones. so a plug christian attracts more attention than a whole church full of sincere men and women.

Some one tells the story of a man who made a bee, with some automatic arrangement, went around so naturally that he challenged his friends to distinguish when the real and the counterfeit were placed together. But some one brought in a bunch of clover, and immediately one of the bees went for the clover in order to extract the honey; the other one simply kept on buzzing. Here we find the real and the artificial Christian. You cannot tell much difference in the professing they make. The presence of duty, the immediate obligation is the test. The real Christian is drawn to it, while the false one keeps on buzzing.

The wise man writes "The fear of the Lord prolongeth days." Godliness is a fountain of life to guard us from the sanres of death. The way of the transgressor is hard, but the end of it is harder still. I commend Godliness as the best mental discipline better than etiquette to purify the taste, better than mathematics to harness the mind, better than logic to marshal the intellectual forces.

Some years ago, an infidel lecturing against Christianity and declared that the Gospel was a myth. A mill hand who was present asked leave to ask a question. He said "Thirty years ago I was a curse to this town, a slave to drink. Now you said that Christ is a myth. But when I tried and my friends tried and the police and the magistrates and the warden of the prisons tried. They all tried in vain to help me. But Christ took hold of me, touched my heart, and made me a new man. Now I am a member of a church and I ask If Christ is a myth, how is it that the myth is stronger than all the others put together? Say what you will, "Godliness is power even for a drunkard.

PROPHET TO SPEAK AT CHURCH OF GOD

YOUR TEETH AND YOUR LIFE

by Dr. Robert F. Harve
Waterloo Dentist

Mouth Rehabilitation

By the above caption we mean, in the simplest terms, the restoration of the mouth to an efficient masticating and speech organ. Esthetics is an important but secondary consideration.

A person's dental problems may range all the way from a simple toothache to a full mouth extraction. This may demand a simple extraction, removal of several teeth, one or several fillings, a bridge, partial denture, or full denture.

The placement of one or more of the above may solve the immediate problem, but the neglect of the rest of the mouth will only result in the progressive and continued breakdown of the hard and soft tissues of the mouth.

The important point is that you cannot afford to neglect the health of your mouth because the mouth and every structure in it is as much a part—and a very vital part—of your body as any one of your other organs or body system. You cannot afford to continuously neglect mouth disorders hygienically or economically. Begin now. Do as much as you can immediately and then continue as fast as you can to complete the necessary work.

It will be better to have a conference with your own dentist for a discussion of your particular problem, for each is an individual one and must be handled on its merits.

"A tooth for every child" is a common saying by many mothers. It is a statement that must be examined because it leads one to believe that her pregnancy per se is the cause of her dental troubles. To what would you attribute the dental troubles of the male?

The truth of the matter is that at the time the prospective mother is as concerned with her pregnancy and its attendant problems that she forgets all about the mouth and completely neglects it. Your teeth are as important to you as your fingers and toes. You go to your physician for frequent check-ups and to take care of every ailment except your teeth. You should continue to go to your dentist for regular mouth care. Take care of your mouth and do not blame the condition of your mouth on your child.

... Fact and Fun ...

Dick Wright for ANP

In a school speech class a potential Frederick Douglas was giving a speech about the national debt:

"It's too bad," he said, "that the future generations cannot be here at this time to see the magnificent things we are doing with its money."

"That man has bird's eyes," declared Mamie, speaking of a gentleman she found to be slightly repulsive.

"What do you mean bird's eyes?"

"What else can you call them?" said Mamie. "They're always swinging from limb to limb."

A middle-aged man whose fat comfortable look attested to the fact that he was married, was wheeled into the operating room. Just before he was put to sleep, he raised his head and asked how long his incision would be when it was over.

"I can't say," said the doctor.

"Well, doctor," said the patient, "do this for me, will you?" My wife's incision is four and a half inches long, and her sister's is four and a quarter inches. I want mine longer than both of them put together so I won't have to listen to any more of their nonsense."

They were in the beauty shop getting the works when one said to the other:

"Why did you drop your boyfriend? I thought he was the salt of the earth."

"He is," agreed the second, "but I'm on a salt-free diet."

Not only are women taking over the pursestrings of the nation, but the fact is they are now making steady increases into the once exclusive male prerogative of sitting at the head of the dinner table.

This fact was brought out by the Census Bureau, who revealed there are 7,300,000 women as heads of households, an increase of 25 percent since 1947.

Man, better beware.

"If you do I'll scream."

"Do what?"

"Well, aren't you going to do something?"

It's a fact: Just as her mother did, the modern girl loves spinning wheels. The only difference is that the modern girl wants four of them and a spare.

The wonders of science never cease. Now astronomers are making an attempt to weigh light. They might get some valuable pointers from some of the grocers who have been doing it for years.

A ladyfriend of mine doesn't believe she will ever be able to drive a car. Recently she decided to take lessons from another friend but had to give it up because this was what she was told during her first and last lesson:

"Now you're all set to learn to drive. Just turn the jigger over and push on the dohickey with your left hand and pull down on the other little jimdad with your right hand.

"At the same time press down on the doodad with your foot and pul the thingumagig. When it starts push down on the foot thing and put your other foot on the hiekeydo.

"Don't forget to push down on the hootninny everytime you move the whatyoumaycallit."

A memorable period at Howard was the time a language professor said, "I shall now illustrate what I have in mind."

Immediately he proceeded to erase everything from the blackboard.

Evangelist Merichia Johnson In Excelsior Springs, Missouri

Mrs. Merichia Johnson, Waterloo's only colored Evangelist, left Monday to take treatments at Excelsior Spring, Mo. for an indefinite period of time. She has been suffering with arthritis for the past five years and has found it necessary to take treatment periodically in order to continue her church work.

Mrs. Johnson, the former wife of Rev. H. J. Parker who pastored at Payne AME Church for five years, took her evangelistic training at Denver, Colorado. During her training she gained a wide reputation as a prayer leader and soloist. Upon completion of her training Mrs. Johnson appeared before the Episcopal Committee to make application for an Evangelist Certificate. When the Northwestern Annual Conference was held September 1, 1952 at Payne AME Bishop Arshibald Carey presented Mrs. Johnson with a certificate acknowledging her as an evangelist.

Mrs. Johnson formerly pastored at the Bethel AME Church of Washington, Iowa and has assisted many ministers in their services throughout the state of Iowa. She has been an active worker in the Missionary Society at Payne AME.

Commenting on her work Mrs. Johnson stated: "Although, I've been in the ministry for 24 years

I feel that there's still work to be done. I have a deep interest in the young people. I hope to inspire some youth to take over when I must stop for its a great field and a beautiful field. There's much to be done."

Her great love of music has been passed on to her two children, Mrs. Julia Oliver, 615 Mobile street, and Mr. Ben Turner of Des Moines. Mrs. Oliver, also an active church worker is a well known soloist serving Payne AME of which she is a member and other churches throughout the city. The inspiration received by the audiences from Mrs. Johnson and her singing daughter has proven that they are really an outstanding gospel team in our community. Mr. Turner is an accomplished pianist.

Mrs. Johnson's friendly counsel has brought christianity into the homes of many who previously professed to be sinners. Many couples can say that their marriage escaped tragedy through the help of Mrs. Johnson who talked with them and helped them solve their problems as if they were her own. An honorary member of the

NATIONAL SCARF WEEK STIMULATES FASHION IDEALS

The scarf and Neckware Guild designated Sept. 29-Oct. 4 as National Scarf Week. To the fashion industry it was just another "gimmick" to stimulate the promotion of scarfs, stoles and other types of neckware, but to the consumer it awakened a whole new store of new fashion possibilities.

One thing in favor of the little scarf is that it permits a lady to be chic and well groomed without being "well heeled." Yes, the most striking, yet inexpensive way to give a "lift" to a wardrobe is to invest in a whimsical bit of silk and color that has come to be called a scarf.

The scarf isn't by any means a new item in the feminine wardrobe. It was worn as early as the classical period, as can be seen from the following lines from the Illiad: "—part o'er her shoulders rolled like melted gold; Around her neck a heavenly mantle flowed."

Since the days when the early Grecian women wore it to the present time, the scarf has made intermittent appearances on the fashion scene.

Perhaps never before has there been such a wide variety of colors, shapes, and fabrics, nor has there been such ingenuity in thinking of novel ways to wear scarfs as there are today.

Gone are the days when the scarf is worn solely to keep the neck warm. In fact its major purpose now is more one of beauty than of function.

And scarfs crop up in the most unexpected places! It isn't at all unusual to find one sticking out provocatively from underneath a turtle neck sweater; or tucked into the cuff of a sleeve; or into a pocket; or just tucked under the belt of a casual dress.

They sometimes replace jewelry and are tied jauntily around the neck or around the wrists. The long ones can be found tied around tiny waistlines, or draped around hips, or just falling from belt to hemline in a glowing cascade of color. And we almost forgot to say that they can be worn around the neck to substitute for a blouse with a suit.

Yes, it seems that scarfs, teamed with imagination, can lift a dull wardrobe right out into the smartest of fashions. It may not be a bad idea to invest in a few varied colors and sizes and try your hand at adding that touch of "dash" to a costume which makes it individually your own.

1st Lt. Elizabeth Cook Home on Furlough

First Lt. Elizabeth Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Cook, 415 Beech street, has motored from Camp Stoneman, California to spend a 25 day leave with her parents.

Recently promoted to First Lt., she arrived in Waterloo wearing the new Hattie Carnegie uniform called "The Taupe Uniform." First Lt. Cook is a Personnel Officer, responsible for re-assignment of all troops returning from the Far East Command through the Port of Embarkation at Camp Stoneman. When asked by the Post her feeling toward the work, Lt. Cook replied, "It is a very vital type of work in that the soldier's morale depends upon how quickly he can be processed and sent home after having spent so long overseas. I feel that I'm doing something valuable." This is Lt. Cook's fourth year in the service.

Enroute to Waterloo, First Lt. Cook stopped in Denver, Colorado to visit her sister, Mrs. Vernetta Selman. She plans to stop in Denver on her return to Camp Stoneman. Her brother Jack, will return with her as far as Denver.

VERA DOUGLAS GUEST OF AD-LOY-HO CLUB

Miss Vera Douglas, 600 Cottage street appeared, last Friday, Oct. 10, as guest artist of the Ad-Loy-Ho Literary Club. Miss Douglas selected such masters as Bach, Beethoven and Chopin. She began with early European Composers and narrated a little about the life of each before she rendered their composition. She began with the earliest composers whose music was written without the benefit of ornamentation and contrasted them with later composers who used grace notes and the like to make their music more appealing to the ear. Miss Douglas spoke sympathetically of Chopin's tragic life. She held the group spell-bound with her renditions which proved her a master of the keyboard.

She also played a selection from contemporary composer Jean Sibelius, whom she said was one of her favorites and who according to last accounts she had read was behind the iron curtain. Miss Douglas topped her program with the familiar "Clare de Lune" by Debussy. Mrs. Sylvester Haughton 308 Douglas was hostess.

Some club members and friends are planning a trip to scenic McGregor, Iowa for Sunday Oct. 19.

CHERYL MARTIN FETED AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Cheryl Kay Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Martin, 320 Cottage street, was honored at a birthday party given by her parents at their home. Those attending to celebrate Cheryl's fourth birthday were: Thomas and Steven Butler, Barbara Jo Burkett, Alan Terry Bradford, Alice Mae Tyson, Kay Francis Walker, Michel and Terry More, Beverly Sue and Dianna Ross, Alice Marie Burt, Cathy and Inez White, Watson Eugene Hutchinson, Shelia Mae Burt, and Robert Rudolph Jr., and Deborah Martin.

CLUB NEWS

The Pastor's Aid club of the Church of God in Christ, 309 Shilham Ave., will sponsor a tea Sunday, October 19th from 2 to 5 p.m., in the Church dining room. The public is invited. Mrs. Lillie C. Young is president of the club. Mrs. Earl McFalls is in charge of the tea.

The first meeting of the Young Matron's Club since its reorganization will be held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Ona Anderson, 91 Adams street. Officers of the club are: President, Mrs. Julia Oliver; vice-president, Mrs. Nadine Furgerson; Secretary, Mrs. Margaret Vanarsdale; assistant secretary, Mrs. Ona Anderson; treasurer, Mrs. Bertha Joyce; and chaplain, Mrs. Merichia Johnson.

The purpose of the club is to assist the minister and church where ever it is needed. Any member of Payne AME interested in joining is invited to attend Friday's meeting.

The Social Improvement club will meet October 23 at the home of Mrs. R. G. Potter, 821 Fowler street. Mrs. Minnie London, honorary president will give a talk on "National Monuments."

Carnation Company Announces

DEFINITE DAY DELIVERY

FOR WATERLOO STARTING OCTOBER 12, 1952

The Carnation Company is discontinuing retail milk deliveries on SUNDAYS. For years, it has been necessary for our retail route salesmen making home deliveries to work every Sunday. Now, with the fine Grade A Milk Carnation serves its customers, it is going to be possible (with our customers' cooperation) for our retail salesmen to join their families each Sunday... to attend Church and to otherwise enjoy the relaxation and rest on the day universally set aside for that purpose.

All Carnation customers have been contacted either personally or by letter explaining more in detail DEFINITE DAY DELIVERY and have been left a suggestion card on how to order their milk in such a way that they will have enough Carnation Milk for their daily needs.

STARTING OCTOBER 12, 1952, instead of delivering your milk every other day, your Carnation retail route salesman will deliver milk to you THREE DEFINITE DAYS EACH WEEK—TUESDAY, THURSDAY AND SATURDAY or MONDAY, WEDNESDAY AND FRIDAY.

Comments from Carnation Retail Route Salesmen...

- "My favorite way of spending Sunday will be going to Church." —Vernon Baker
- "My favorite way of spending Sunday will be Church and visiting my relatives." —Clarence Brown
- "My favorite way of spending Sunday will be Sunday School and Church with my family." —Theron M. Lowe
- "My favorite way of spending Sunday will be going to Church." —Robert E. Fry
- "My favorite way of spending Sunday will be going to Church, hunting, fishing and just plain relaxing." —Robert V. Tegeter
- "My favorite way of spending Sunday will be going to Church and resting." —Loren L. Spates
- "My favorite way of spending Sunday will be going to Church and picnics." —Al LaPlount
- "My favorite way of spending Sunday will be going to Church." —Lloyd H. Eversding

Comments from Clergymen...

- "Nothing short of remarkable! You are to be commended for this step. It is to be regretted that all businesses are not able to arrange their work schedule in similar fashion." —Rev. Quentin C. Lausman, First Evang. United Brethren
- "The plan is fine. I suggest that now you urge your employees to worship regularly in the church of their choice." —Rev. W. C. Stoll, Concordia Lutheran Church
- "You are to be highly commended. Your plan of giving your employees Sundays off is good. It is right and more than that, it is Scriptural, which will prove a blessing to all concerned." —Rev. Victor A. Clocksin, Grace Bible Church, Evansdale
- "Very good. It would be wonderful if every industry would do the same." —Father E. J. O'Hagan, Sacred Heart Cath. Church
- "It is a plan that has my hearty approval." —Rev. Warren K. Martin, Westminster Presbyterian
- "We regard this as a progressive action by a progressive firm. Every workman has a right to obtain rest and spiritual refreshment." —Rev. O. J. Gummel, B.D., Christ Episcopal Church
