*P.S. Just to think this article is written by my beloved teacher
 Dr. S. H. Pennell.*

My dear Dr. Pennell:-

Imagine my astonishment this morning upon receiving a copy of the Times Daily Tribune, and reading your wonderfully illuminating article, its meaning to me cannot be expressed in words.

God evidently arranged it so that I should fall into your hands for training, and I am simply carrying out in my poor way just the things you endeavored so earnestly and patiently to teach me.

You give me entirely too much credit in your article.

I have been feeling good and more like work ever since you were here.

much love to all. Sincerely yours,
 G. W. Carver.
