Dr. L. H. Pammel,
 Station A.,
 Iowa State A. and M. College,
 Ames, Iowa

My dear Dr. Pammel:

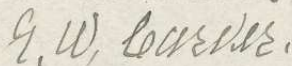

We have just recently passed through our Commencement, plus the opening of our Summer School which brings together some more than six hundred teachers to date, so that I can thoroughly appreciate how very busy you are.

I consider myself very fortunate indeed to get even a few lines from you, as I know how very busy you have to be.

What a pleasure it would be for me to be present when you complete your thirty-fifth anniversary. Please let me know when it will be and the Lord willing, I shall be present.

With kindest regards to Mrs. Pammel and with my prayers for many more years of devoted and unswerving service, I am

Yours most sincerely,

Geo. W. Carver,
 Research and Experiment Station.
