state something that I sincerely regret which is this that some of our reputation heretofore seemed to make no hes-

Mr I would ask why there is no forward Movement on the Part of our Generals & Why do they not strike down Slavery at once & Again why is it that Genl. Fremont &
St. McKinstry has pass ed so far nearly un noticed & many other instances of a similar kind? Could it not be Answered Simply because of Free you is are I think this may be the whole Secret thus the very Lies that hold Society together utterly Corrupted & destroyed by the Prince of Darkness Himself truly it looks as though Satan had been loosed for a little Season

^{my} Big fat & Saucy I Should think might be called very Appropriately the Black Seal

Perhaps this is the last fibre the only Remining Link now Connecting the two Great Factions

I think it Possible

As for Gen Lane there is general Rejoicing here among the Union Troops that he has been made Brigadier in Choice they say could Suit their hot Strides is the man we need just now this is the Idea entertained by all Loyal men whilst I hear the Remarks made everywhere if it had been so 3 months ago on the other hand the other hand the Disunionist tremble tremble in their shoes at the very mention of his name they know that the time for the protection of them in their Persons and Effects by the So Called Union Troops is about played out that Old Gen has already inquired

A System of Warfare not so Palatable to them as that of his Predecessors. We will soon see if they will get to live so Big fat & Sauer. After Old Lin begins to shear them of their Strength as Delilah did Sampson of Old I think after he gets through Shearing there will not be
able them to shake themselves even as at other times but you say you cannot help but think Fremont was the right man I think he was on the right Principle as it regards Slavery as connected with this War but I believe it is the general impression that Gen Fremont was to blame for our Defeats at Wilson Creek & Lexington how The next Question is why is this & why is he not censured more in the Public Prints as well as that other Black-Hearted Miscreant McFins!

? Why is it that our Congress men are so Timorous about taking the final Action on Slavery so that they may preserve the Union as they say? Why is there no Forward Movement on the part of our Generals? Why do they not Strike down Slavery at once

The Edgeworth Reg is at Jeff City the Fifth is at Syracuse well so we have been importu-nate about getting our Reg Officers permanently we have but 2 Regimental Officers in our Reg worth any thing and there is none of them placed permanently in their office being only appointed to their places there has been two Officers removed from the Division
Scremon & McIntire
& some 5 or 6 from our Reg this rather a disagreeable state of affairs truly especially when we see that some of them are Bonds Traitors at heart

There is one matter I have omitted to mention heretofore that is I find that there is a Society in in Wash- Called the Vol^{to} Relief Society which is Authorized to furnish Aid in Grocers etc to those that are not very able to provide themselves with these things & Mr Orr of Granfordsville gave Sixteen Dollars to this besides upwards of 20 bus Wheat more if you feel inclined to draw your Groceries in this way & has Opportunity you have a Right^{so} to do
