

47

Permanent Residents

The following species of birds are found as permanent residents in Iowa and a few individuals, at least, are- remain in some part of the state during all months of the year.

Common Mallard	Red-bellied Woodpecker
Sharp-shinned Hawk	Red-headed Woodpecker
Cooper's Hawk	Eastern Hairy Woodpecker
Eastern Red-tailed Hawk	Northern Downy Woodpecker
Northern Red-shouldered Hawk	Prairie Horned Lark
Marsh Hawk	Northern Blue Jay
Eastern Sparrow Hawk	Eastern Crow
Eastern Ruffed Grouse	Black-capped Chickadee
Greater Prairie Chicken	Tufted Titmouse
European Partridge	White-breasted Nuthatch
Eastern Bob-white	Carolina Wren ?
Ring-necked Pheasant	Eastern Robin
Western Mourning Dove	Eastern Bluebird
Eastern Mourning Dove	Cedar Waxwing
Barn Owl	Starling
Eastern Screech Owl	English Sparrow
Great Horned Owl	Rock Dove
Northern Barred Owl	Eastern Meadowlark
Long-eared Owl	Western Meadowlark
Short-eared Owl	Giant Red-winged Blackbird
Eastern Belted Kingfisher	Bronzed Grackle
Northern Flicker	Eastern Cardinal
Northern Pileated Woodpecker	Eastern Goldfinch
Mississippi Song Sparrow
Eastern Mockingbird	Common Canada Goose
Aiken's Screech Owl	Eastern Field Sparrow
Brown Thrasher	Broad-winged Hawk
Long-tailed Chickadee	Wilson's Snipe
	Pigeon Hawk sp. ?