Dear Paul:

Thanks for the Prairie du Sac data.

I would like to merge my 1935-36 die-off data with yours, but I doubt if it would be feasible to include Hicks, though we should doubtless exchange manuscripts with him in advance.

My data are scattered among my whole group of students. We had decided "the group" should appear as author, but just how to do this? Now that we may join with you, I suppose you and I will have to sign jointly.

I am committed to giving my paper to the Wisconsin Academy--would this be O.K. with you?

If so, shall we start by separate drafts--then try to combine?

Best regards,

Yours sincerely,

Aldo
