Dear Paul:

A friend of mine who owns a considerable woods near Lake Forest, Illinois, is bothered by rabbits and desires to introduce red fox. Can you give me the name and address of one of the fox dealers in Iowa, and, if possible, some idea of his prices?

I have no funds in sight as yet for Gastrow, but of course want him to go ahead even if you and I have to stand behind it personally. Will you take up with him the necessary instructions for the beginning of his work this fall?

Yours sincerely,

Aldo
