Dear Paul: territory

Cyril Kabat is compiling the survival histories of each ~~covey~~ back as many years as possible. He has gotten access to Albert's journals back to 1939-40. These, of course, are in Walter Scott's office. He would now like to see Albert's journals as much further back as they go, and I assume these are in your possession. Can you loan them to us for a temporary period?

I assume that a compiled record of survivals to date would be of value to all of us, and we will, of course, supply you with a copy.

Yours sincerely,

Aldo

*we are aware of the compilations in Bull
201. That much is done already*
