Dear Paul:

In working on the Prairie du Sac paper, I find that I have no copy of your draft of March 11, 1942.

I need this, not only for references to the text, but because it contains the list of references to which my draft of February 18, 1943 refers. My draft lists only an extension of your references, hence there are many which I cannot run down.

If you do not have, or cannot spare the draft as a whole, can you have the references typed off for my use?

I expect to send you shortly a proposed revision of the first part of the paper. This is in conformance with my idea that we should check up with each other rather frequently to make sure we are not getting off on tangents unsatisfactory to the co-author.

With best regards,

Aldo

Aldo Leopold

P.S. I am pleased to note the favorable reviews of the mink bulletin.
