Dear Herbert:

Ed Ochsner has been in the hospital a second time, and has successfully come out of a rather severe operation on his leg. He went home on Monday. He asks about you every time I see him, and I know would be immensely pleased if you would drop him a postal card or note. It will be a long drag for Ed to sit in the house waiting to recover his usual nimbleness.

I am sending a copy of this to Paul, thinking he might also wish to drop him a line.

With personal regards,

Aldo Leopold
