Dear Dr. Pammel:-

Enclosed you will find a letter from Prof. Bolley of N. W. Agricultural College offering me a salary of 1800⁰⁰ as Asst. Prof. of Botany and Bacteriology.

I have a particular interest in Iowa State College and enjoy my work in your department, but do not feel that I can afford to sacrifice such an opportunity to increase my income. I have spent more than I have earned above expenses in training myself at universities (Chicago, Washington, Colorado and elsewhere). Furthermore, I am not merely supporting myself but have other responsibilities.

Nov. 14, 1919.

Very truly,
 Ada Hayden.
