Dear Dr. Pammel: - For several years you have had two instructors in your division of botany who have no office desks. Sometimes a desk has been borrowed - again only an inadequate table was provided with no place whatsoever to keep papers.

This has interfered greatly with the efficiency of the instructors and systemizing of work.

Last year a request was made in the budget for an office desk to be permanently used by this division. The reply was made by Dean Buchanan that he had a roll top desk that I might use - at least so I was told in your office.

The roll-top desk has not been forthcoming - neither has the desk
requested in the budget.

May I ask that this matter again
be taken up and that I may be provided with a permanent desk.

As before stated two permanent desks are needed for the instructors of your division.

Very truly,

March 8, 1919.

Ada Hayden.
