March 30, 1910.

Miss Ada Hayden,

St. Louis, Missouri.

My dear Miss Hayden:-

Your favor of March 28th at hand and I had intended to write you before this in regard to some points with reference to the other letter.

I intended to write you asking whether it would be possible for you to be with us next year. I cannot say what the salary will be, but I expect Mr. Jeffs to leave and Mr. Campbell would like to come back again. We are "up in the air" as to what can be done owing to President Storms' resignation. I would like to say that we can pay at least five hundred dollars ($500), or perhaps a little bit better, but I cannot give you any definite information until a little later.

Yours truly,
