

YOU Are Invited
2nd Annual RIVERS & BLUFFS
FALL BIRDING FESTIVAL
November 7, 8 & 9, 2003

Peak Season for Close-up Views of Thousands of Elegant Tundra Swans
Hundreds of Thousands of Colorful Ducks and Geese, Numerous Bald Eagles and Hawks
Search for Golden Eagles + Other Interesting & Unusual Species
Majestic Mississippi River Ecosystem + Beautiful Bluff Overlooks
Explore Mother Nature's Best Kept Secret - the Rivers & Bluffs Where 3 States Meet
Field Trips Discover Hidden Treasures in: Minnesota, Wisconsin & Iowa
Just 40 miles downriver from La Crosse, WI; 30 miles upriver from Prairie du Chien, WI
Or, 35 miles east of Decorah, IA

"Identifying, Enjoying and Understanding All Birds Around Us"

H I G H L I G H T S:

- 2 Half-Day Field Trips + Bird Education Programs Friday through Sunday
- Back by Popular Demand - LIVE BALD EAGLE PROGRAM - via National Eagle Center
- Cruise Mississippi River, Get Close to Birds in Unique Glass-covered Tour Boat
- Live Hawks and Owls at Interpretive Activities with Expert Naturalists
- Great Hospitality - Meals TOGETHER at the Best Local Restaurants
- Numerous Door-Prizes & Gift Certificates
- Live Music and Special Fun on Saturday Nite

Headquarters: KBSB Community Center, 395 Main Street, Lansing, Iowa

Festival Co-Sponsors:

Lansing Chamber of Commerce, Lansing City Council, Audubon Iowa - Important Bird Area (IBA) Program,
Alliant Energy, Upper Mississippi River Campaign of National Audubon, Upper Iowa Chapter - Audubon,
www.lansingiowa.com, Iowa Ornithologists' Union, Iowa City Bird Club, Allamakee County Economic Development

Registration fee remains at Extreme Bargain - $5.00

Any Income Beyond Expenses will Support Future Bird Education and Bird Conservation Activities
Numerous Improvements on Last Years Highly Successful Festival
Final Itinerary will be Available in September. For More Details email: zarxzar@salamander.com
Organized by: Ric & Betty Zarwell, Lansing, IA