Late / Unusual

Great Egret on 11/20 - photo

Prairie Falcon - very well seen, circled over the Punnells overlook before chasing shorebirds - IDed by dark wing pits, brownish color, somewhat rounded wingtips

Black-bellied Plover on 11-23 - larger than Killdeers, very grey and white colored

American Avocet on 11/11-14 - basic plumage, white except for black in the wings; black, sharply upturned bill, very long dark legs

Greater Yellowlegs on 11-30 - IDed as yellowlegs by long, thin bill + long yellowlegs
IDed as Greater by bill length, slight upturn, noticeable on one bird, overall size

Marbled Godwit - IDed by overall size and color, barred tail

Least Sandpiper on 11/20 + 11/24 - much smaller than ~~nearby~~ ^{nearby} Dunlins, yellow legs

Stilt Sandpipers on 10-29 - Dowitchers and both yellowlegs side by side for comparison - slimmer, taller than dowitchers, thicker than yellowlegs, dark legs (greyish) and some barring on the flanks

Long-billed Dowitcher on 11/30 - basic plumage, grey above, white below, extremely long bill, "keek" call when flushed by a Harrier

Thayer's Gull on 11/4 - adult, basically like Herring Gulls except slightly smaller, brighter pink legs, extremely bright red/orange gonyx spot, and light brown eyes

Eastern Phoebe on 11/11 - very well seen, was flycatching out of the top of a cottonwood tree, repeatedly bobbed its tail
