

February 3, 1944

The Ottumwa Bird Club held its regular meeting in the Courier Auditorium, Thursday, February 3rd, 1943 with about 100 persons present.

-Three reels of motion pictures--

"Wild Wings" and "Birds of the Spring Woods" in natural color and "Know the Hawks" were shown with comments by Pres. C.C. Ayres, Jr.

The members voted to invite the Iowa Ornithologists' Union to Ottumwa for the annual spring convention this year.

Charles C. Ayres, Jr., presented each person present with a mimeographed summary of the past year's programs, results of field trips, acknowledgements, and the list of 161 birds reported by members of the club. Credit was given to Miss Jane Wood who had cut the stencil.

A bill for $2.00 was allowed for the expenses of the guest speaker, Wilbur Dole, of the last meeting.

Following this meeting copies of Robert's "Bird Portraits in Color were sold.
Maude Norris, Secretary.