

Field Report Fall 1995 - Marietta Peteren
RR #1, Box 102A
Walnut, Iowa
51577

Northern Bobwhite ^{Aug 29} 1 - calling in pasture on farm in Northwestern part of Cass Co

Black-billed Cuckoo Aug 25 - 1 - in woods along pasture on farm in Northwestern part of Cass Co.

~~Red-throated~~ Ruby-throated Hummingbird - Oct. 3 - 1 - feeding from the blooming honeysuckle (Lonicera) at home at Cresco, Iowa

Belted Kingfisher - Nov. 15, 24, 29 - 1 - at about 4:30 on those days it would be sitting on electric light wires & then later fly into the evergreen grove for the night, on farm in Northwestern part of Cass Co. A pond is in the south part of the farm & Indian Creek borders the farm on the west side.

Olive-sided Flycatcher - Sept 13, 14, 15, 24, 25, 26 - 1 to 2 flycatchers would be always on the tip of a large & semi-dead ash tree on a farm in Northwestern Cass Co.

Red-breasted Nuthatch - Sept. 4 through Nov. 29 - 1 to 2 nuthatches would be eating seeds from the Pine Cones on the Norway Spruce in the evergreen grove on a farm in Northwestern Cass Co.

House Wren - Sept. 24 - 1 in orchard on farm in NW Cass Co.

Golden-crowned Kinglet - Oct. 31 - 1 female - in evergreens on farm in Northwestern Cass Co.

Grasshopper Sparrow - Aug. 29 - 1 - sitting on fence line in pasture in NW Cass Co.

Pine Siskin - Oct. 18 - 5 were eating seeds from pine cones on the Norway Spruce in the evergreen grove on the farm in Northwestern Cass Co.