

DETAILS FOR UNUSUAL BIRD SIGHTING

SPECIES: Red-necked Grebe

OBSERVER: Jim Fuller, 6 Longview Knoll, NE, Iowa City, Iowa, 52240

LOCATION: S & G Materials Quarry 1 mile south of Iowa City along the Sand Road

DATE & TIME: 6 April, 1994 (9:45-50 AM)

DESCRIPTION: The bird was a large duck size with a long neck and a long dagger like bill. It was in alternate plumage, and the most notable features were the reddish foreneck, and the large white face patch.