Hi Jim,

Yeah, it's a month late, but here is photo documenting a solo singing male Yellow-throated Warbler in Mt. Hosmer park, Lansing, Iowa.

Least Bittern, 6-22-00(3) Pool Slough (slated for big "improvements.")

Virginia Rail, Bakewell's Pond, Allamakee Co.
Hwy 26, S. of New Albin, 6-24(1H)

Met Mike McCloskey from ISU. Not sure what sort of chemical/biologist he is. Something very technical re DNA?
On Kayak four, Johnstone Strait, British Columbia.
Late July.
