Thanks, Dan, for mentioning the loon. We didn't know it was there, and, in fact, it is still there.

In a stop over in Mason City while in route to Sioux Falls I did see a COMMON LOON in basic plumage on a small lake behind the Days Inn Motel on old HWY 18. This was on Saturday May 27th. There was also an early morning rain.

Today in central Davenport in a tall grass field near Northpark Mall, near new car lots, car washes, and other businesses not to mention a busy road, I heard then saw a DICKCISSEL. Home is wear you hang your hat at.
