

Brian Fankhauser

>DOCUMENTATION FORM

>

>Species? White-winged Dove How many? 1

>Location? SE 1/4 of Section 13 Webster Township Hamilton Co.

>Type of habitat? Backyard (Several mature green ash trees and eight foot tall spruce trees)

>When? date(s): App. June 1-18 Time: Normally seen around 6:30 AM or 6:00 PM

>Who? Brian Fankhauser

>

>Others with you? Deb Jordahl, Erika and Jerrod Jordahl, Denny Corneilson

>Others before or after you? Same as above

>

>Describe the bird(s) Dove-like in shape; white line along edge of closed wing; has blue/gray ring around a red eye; black dash on upper neck

>

>Similar species and how eliminated: Mourning Dove - has no white line along edge of closed wing and no red eye

>

>Did any one disagree or have reservations about identification? No

>If yes, explain:

>

>Viewing conditions: Excellent - from window of house. Bird feeder is only 10 yards from house. Bird viewed with binoculars also.

>

>Previous experience? Brian Fankhauser -I spend quite a bit of time bird watching especially since my Bird Study course at ISU

>References & persons consulted before writing description: Dr. Jim Dinsmore

>

>How long before field notes made? No notes were taken. Two books were consulted: Birds of North America by Golden and Stokes Field Guide to Birds (E. region)