Date filed: June 1, 1982 p. 1 of 1

Season: Spring Douglas Harr Name: Year: 1982 P.O. Box 65 Address: Larchwood, Iowa 51241 Other Observers: LaVonne Foote Dick Tellier (Conservation Officer) General Notes: Mild March weather w/good migrations. April 3-8 stormy & cold w/several inches of snow and high winds, causing death of many migrant songbirds & coots. Early May dry, but May 11-31 colder than normal with continuous & often heavy rains (almost 10" in Larchwood area for month). Location -- comments -- other observers Date No. Species Rush Lake, Osceola County -- appears to be 5-4-82 Black Crowned Night 43 + expanding rookery established in 1981. Heron Flock seen in flight S. of Inwood (Lyon 4-10-82 approx Sandhill Cranes 250 Co. by Cons. Officer Dick Tellier) Anglers Bay, Big Spirit Lake (11 reported by public earlier same day) 4-7-82 8 Whistling Swan 1 4-23-82 Christopherson Slough Wildlife Area, 3 mi. Red=tailed Hawk, No og Superior, Dickinson Co. Harlan's black phase 1 Golden Eagle 4-12-82 6mi. W., 1 mi. S. of Larchwood, Lyon Co. Total counted while driving through Lyon 3-31-82 Am. Kestrel 27 Osceola & Obrien Counties on that date. 1- 1 mi. SE of Little Rock, Lyon Co. 5-7-82 Upland Sandpipers 2 1- 3 mi. W. of Ochevedan, Osceola Co. Marble Lake, W. side of Big Spirit Lake. (Reported by L. Foote) 1 Prothonotary Warbler Bay-breasted Warbler 1 5-27-82 Rush Lake, near Ocheyedan, Osceola Co. Feeders, Larchwood, Lyon Co. Also had 5-5-82 to Pine Siskin 13 + reports of large numbers at other feeder: in Larchwood, Inwood, & vicin.