

WALTERS ✓ 2/24/82

FIELD REPORT FORM for submitting seasonal observation of Iowa birds

Season: Winter Year: '82 Name and address: Betty Walters

Other observers (name, city): 307 St. Thomas

Mary Beth Vaughn -
Bark Cunningham

Shenandoah 51601

Use initials of obsv. on species line

B.W
M.B.V
B.C.

SPECIES	NO.	DATE	LOCATION	COMMENT	OTHER OBSERV.
Red-tailed Hawk	1	02-12	Imm. - West of Essex 1/2 mile
Krider's Red-tailed	1	02-12	North of Shenandoah along highway 48
We were together in a car
American Kestrel	3	02-13	north of Shenandoah
Ring-necked Pheasant	124	02-12	Pine Township north of Shenandoah
Great-Horned Owl	2	02-12	" " " "
Short-eared Owl	1	02-12	" Water Shed area north of Shenandoah
American Robin	several		in town all winter
Loggerhead Shrike	1	02-12	north of Shenandoah
" "	1	02-13	in my back yard late afternoon in town (1 block from down town)
Pine Siskin	many		at feeders all winter in back yard
American Goldfinch	"	"	" " " "
Tree Sparrow	2		at feeder all winter " " "
Harris Sparrow	5		at feeder all winter in back yard
White Crowned Sparrow	8	"	" " " " " " "

Winter during January and first 2 weeks of February too icy to drive to observe birds.

Sound many Junco's frozen from high winds and severe cold - also meadow larks

✓ Snow
These have come into the Riverton area by the thousands this past week.