

Details for Northern Goshawk

Size was similar to the Great Horned Owl it was pursuing through the treetops across a large grove. Underparts were dingy and streaked, not gray, indicating it was an immature.

Wings were broad through the arms and tapered to the tips.

Longish, banded tail was broad along entire length with narrow band of white at tip.

Wing beat was deep and heavy.

Jan Walter

12-19-98

Mrs Janice Walter

934 13th St SE
Mason City, IA 50401-6149