

Field Notes - S.W. Iowa <sup>12/1/80</sup>
PHIPPS Ruth Phipps

Red-tailed Hawks are numerous

American Kestrels are numerous

Yellow-bellied Sapsucker - 11-05 Shenandoah

Western Kingbirds - west of Shen by Jean Bradley in August

✓ Brown Thrasher in my backyard 11-11

Golden-crowned Kinglets abundant in Shenandoah 11-05

Ruby-crowned Kinglet in my backyard 11-26

Cedar Waxwings are abundant now.

Loggerhead Shrike - I see very few.

Solitary Vireo Manti 9-27 Maria Appears and ✓ Pine Warbler " " ♀.

✓ Evening Grosbeak first appeared in my backyard 11-05. Six banded eleven and still have 3 birds at my feeder every day.

Purple Finch - saw my first 11-15 + another 11-23 in my backyard.

No reports of Pine Siskin in Shenandoah.

Vesper Sparrow family of 5 west of Shen. 9-01

White-crowned Sparrow - one immature 9-27