Dear Thomas,

Here is my Winter Report. Due to the mild Winter and very little snow cover, Winter sightings were down. Just a few sightings worth a note. All sightings in Polk county, except for the Snowy Owl seen on Red Rock X-mas Count Dec. 21.

- ✓ Snowy Owl: Seen on Dec. 21 ~~and Jan. 5th.~~
- ✓ Winter Wren: Dec. 16th.
- ✓ Northern Shrike: Dec. 28th. Seen on Alleman X-mas Count.

Details of observation on X-mas Count Report.

- ✓ Loggerhead Shrike: Feb. 1st, it killed a Junco at my feeders.
- ✓ Meadowlark: First Winter that none seen here.
- ✓ Evening Grosbeak: Jan. 21st, 2⁺ seen at my feeders.
- Purple Finch: Numbers up from last year at feeders.
- Common Redpoll: No sightings.
- ✓ Pine Siskin: 1 seen at feeder Jan. 15 and Feb 1st.
- ✓ Harris Sparrows: About 20 at my feeder all Winter.
- Snow Bunting: No sightings.
- Rough-legged Hawk: Nov. 28th only sighting.

Good birding,

Dean
