Dear friend,

The Iowa Birdline is now in operation, thanks to your generous contribution.

If our line is to be a success, we must have people contribute information. As you are supporting the line financially, we hope that you will also help by letting us know if you see something interesting.

Enclosed is a preprint of an article which will appear in the next I. B. L.

Please spread the phone number around (your Christmas Count would be a good opportunity for this). We are interested in significant Christmas Count sightings.

Thank you for your contribution.

Good birding,

Rick Hollis & Carl Bendorf

Hank,

Thanks for all your help.

By the way - where can I lay my hands on some 100 stationery?
It might be useful for my correspondence re: the Birdline!

Give my best to your family.

Good birding

Rick
