

Tom,

All in all, not too bad. I think it's a real good report.

The changes that I could detect in my section are just fine. With your changes and my respectful mimicry of your style, it might be hard for readers to tell where TH4 ends and CJB begins.

I found 2 typos on the first 2 pages. I circled them in pencil. In my browse of the records, I didn't spot any.

Your closing comments look good. Didn't Mrs Sandrock help several times with typing?

Well, Tom, thanks for the opportunity to get a taste of writing the report. Now, when Mike asks me next Dec 10, for some late night help, I'll know exactly what to say to him.

Carl
