

Resolution creating an Editorial Board for the Iowa Ornithological Union.

Section 1. An Editorial Board is established to oversee the publications of the I.O.U.

Section 2. The Board shall consist of the President and the Editor of Iowa Bird Life, as ex officio members, and three members to be appointed by vote of the Executive Council. These three members shall serve three year terms, and shall not be eligible to serve more than two consecutive terms. The initial set of three members shall be appointed at the meeting of the I.O.U. at which this resolution is approved. Among these, a one-year, a two-year, and a three-year term shall be distributed by lot; thereafter one vacancy shall be filled each year. Vacancies on the board created by resignation or other cause shall be filled at the next meeting of the I.O.U.

The Board shall elect a Chair and such other officers as it may require. Decisions of the Board shall require a majority vote, a quorum being four members.

Section 3. The duties of the Board shall be as follows:

- a. To set policy on format, style, content, means of production, and all other such matters, for Iowa Bird Life and such other publications as the I.O.U. shall undertake.
- b. To appoint assistant editors and such other ancillary personnel as deemed necessary. Such appointees shall serve at the pleasure of the Board.
- c. In the event of a vacancy in the Editor's position, to recommend a candidate for the position to the Executive Council.
