

Serbanek

Winter Report - Cedar Rapids Area

- Northern Harrier - January 21 - Coralville Refuge
- Common Snipe - January 7 - Near Alburnett
- Short-eared Owl - January 21 - Coralville Refuge
- ~~Saw-whet Owl - January 21 - Coralville Refuge~~
- ~~Pileated Woodpecker - February 12 - S. E. of Cedar Rapids~~
- Brown Creeper - January 16 - Cedar Rapids - Has been coming to feeder almost daily
- Red-breasted Nuthatch - January 8 - Cedar Rapids
- Northern Shrike - January 23 - Coralville Refuge
- Rusty Blackbird - January 6 - Cedar Rapids
- Common Redpoll - January 21 - Marion - At feeder daily and in several locations in Cedar Rapids
- Hoary Redpoll - seen for first time January 22 - Marion (Same as Thompson's)
- Pine Siskin- January 18 - seen daily at feeders - Cedar Rapids
- White-winged Crossbill - was first seen December 28 and appears daily at feeder. This is one female bird - Cedar Rapids
- Harris' Sparrow - January 1 - feeds daily at feeder in Cedar Rapids
- Evening Grosbeak - February 11 - Central City
- Pine Grosbeak - January 31 - Cedar Rapids. Several birds seen feeding on seeds of the ash tree. May be the same group seen on the Christmas census as the two areas of observation are about a mile apart or less agree (also saw them)
- Lapland Longspur - January 3 Near Alburnett
- Snow Bunting - January 3 - Near Alburnett - These and the Longspurs formed a flock of about 300 - 400 birds Observed in smaller numbers several times in the Alburnett area

Lillian Serbanek