

Contributor: Judith Carlson Other Observers: Helen CarlsonSeason: Fall Aug - Nov RRZ Box 68Year: 1985 Larrens, M
50554

| SPECIES  | NO.     | DATE  | LOCATION - COMMENTS - OTHER OBSERVERS   |
|--|---------|-------|---|
| Whip poor will                                 | 2-3     | 10/20 | 1 Mile East of Larrens - I flushed one from wood <sup>branch</sup>about 2 ft from my head - IT circled about knee leveland landed about 10 ft away back in the hedge - a fewminutes later saw it fly in from the west anda few minutes later saw one fly in from the east |
| Western Kingbird                               | 1       | 10/24 | Sunken Island Grove - 2 miles North of Fowler Pa. Coobserved at close range for about 1 1/2 hour. Verymild day - was busy feeding. Wind shiftedthe next day. hunted for several hrs the nextday but could not find it   |
| Eastern Kingbird                               |         |       | More numbers than usual this fall   |
| Horned Larks                                   |         |       | Early snow fall had these flocks in large numbers <sup>Early</sup>  |
| Red Breasted Nuthatch                          |         | 8/20  | Saw first one for fall on this dateSaw more Red Breasted than white breasted of this <sup>fall</sup>  |
| Ruby crowned KingletsGolden Crown Kinglets |         |       | Saw more this fall than last spring -usually see more in spring   |
| Eastern bluebird                               | 20-40   | 10/15 | Saw several flocks along river around CornellClay Co & Linn Grove Buena Vista Co - nest boxesin this area   |
| * Swainson's Thrush                            |         | 11/11 | See documentation   |
| Nashville Warbler                              |         | 10/24 | Sunken Island Grove. Fall migration seemed longerthis fall with no real peaks. Saw warblers from earlyAug through late Oct  |
| Choptawt Sided Warbler                         |         | 8/20  | one in banding net - saw many more this fallthan in other falls   |
| Connecticut Warbler                            | Several | 10/24 | Sunken Island Grove. Wind shifted Quincy MtsDid not see them the next day   |
| Dickcissel                                     |         |       | Must have been good hatching yr - lots this fallLarge flocks Rush Lake Palo Alto Co.  |
| Am. Tree Sparrow                               |         | 11/17 |   |
| White Throated Sparrow                         | 30-50   | 10/15 | Large flocks along river between Sioux Rapids& Linn Grove   |
| White Crowned Sparrow                          | 30-50   | 10/15 | SAME AREAS AS White Throated  |

