IOU FIELD REPORTS	FORM	Date	filed: July 29, 1988 p. 1 of1
Season: Summer	Veer	1988	Name: Douglas Harr
Jeason.	- rear		Address:Box 65
			Larchwood, IA 51241
Other Observers: _
-
General Notes: Weather: EXTREMELY hotabout 23 days in June-July w/temperatures above 90°F, & 7 days above 100°F (110° at Larchwood on two days in June)many birds noted suffering heat stress on hottest days. Rainfall in extreme NW Iowa varied from a couple of inches in some areas to less than 1 inch, total, for 2 months in most areas.
Species Western Grebe	No.	Date 6/22	Locationcommentsother observers Rush Lake, Osceola Co2 adults seen at about western Grebe	5	0/22	300 yards (w/binocs)appeared to have 1 young.
			Probably some of same birds seen by Dinsmore &
			Dinsmore earlier.
N. Harrier	1-ad. F		Western Dickinson Co. Also recall having seen 3 or 4 add'1
N. Harrier	2-F or	7/28	Western Osceola Cocould not birds over past 3
N. Harrier	Imm. 1-ad. M	7/20	get close look at plumagemo.; expect CRP is3 mi. W. of Oscheyedan,much improving local
N. Harrier	1-ad. M	1120	Osceola Co, nesting conditions.
Peregrine Falcon	1-Imm.	7/8	Found dead NW of Sheldon, Sioux County & turned over to me. Will write short article for next issue of IBL, unless someone else wished to.
Blue Grosbeak	1 M	7/21	Singing on telephone line 1/2 mi. NE of Larch- wood, Lyon County.
-
Jim: Sorry the sight	ings are	so brief fo	r this season. Between being gone on 18 day
			ime, I've done little to no birding this summer.
			1 prig
		2	