Last winter when it was rumored about the campus that there was to be considerable change in the coaching staff for the coming year, many thought that all was over for Iowa State athletics. Suffice it to say there are none of that opinion now. Ames fans and Ames students are enthusiastic about the coming year and feel without exception that the shake-up left us stronger than ever before. We now have confidence in our coaches and in the teams that they will put out for Iowa State College.

T. N. METCALF

Director of Athletics

"Nelly" Metcalf attended school at Oberlin, in Ohio, completing his work for a degree in 1912. While enrolled there he won three letters in track and two in football. He played both tackle and end on the football team. His name was a byword in Ohio track since he held the state record of 4:25 in the mile and the Big Ten record of 9:42 in the two-mile. It is not often that the combination of a good lineman and long distance man is met. Incidentally, Coach Willaman and Director Metcalf attended rival institutions at about the same time.

In the fall of 1912 Metcalf returned to Oberlin as assistant football coach and head track coach. The following year the extra duty of head football coach fell to his lot. That he managed well his job may be inferred from the fact that he won the state championship his first year.

1914 saw him at the University of Columbia studying for an advanced degree in physical education. He became head football coach there in 1915 and was again undefeated in the season. He coached both football and track in '16 and '17.

In 1918 Oberlin called "Nelly" Metcalf back as acting director and track coach. From 1919 to 1921 he coached both football and track, passing thru undefeated seasons in football in '19 and '21.

Minnesota induced him to come there in 1922 and '23, where he coached varsity track and was connected with frosh football.

As a summary we see that Director Metcalf has been an outstanding athlete, has gained recognition in 12 years of coaching in both football and track and has acted in the capacity of a director before.

Director Metcalf presents a clean-cut figure. In manner and speech he is decisive but courteous. His work is for the forward progress of Ames Athletics, and we hope that everyone is behind him.

AL HOLMAN

The name of Al Holman may sound unfamiliar to followers of the Cyclones, but he is a young man that Iowa State coaches are making known in valley football. Holman is at his best on off-tackle smashes, and along with Lindbloom has carried the bulk of the Cyclone offense. Holman is also used to throwing passes. He is a sophomore and is from Fairfield.

NOEL WORKMAN

Iowa State College is extremely fortunate in obtaining the services of Noel Workman, former Ohio State football star and head coach at Simpson College for the past three years, to guide her in her football achievements. Workman's official title is associate professor of physical education and head football coach.

Coach Workman began his football career with the Huntington, W. Va., high school team, playing end and quarterback for three years. In the fall of 1917 he entered Bethany College and made the varsity, playing quarterback the entire season. He then left college and entered the service, and when he was discharged entered Ohio State in the fall of 1919. In his first year at Ohio he made his numeral on the freshman football team playing as quarter and end. In 1920 he played end on one of the best teams that Ohio has ever boasted, and in 1921 played quarter on the great Wilce machine of that year. In two years that Workman played at Ohio he was ranked as one of the greatest quarters and ends in the history of the Big Ten.

During the three years as coach at Simpson Workman became recognized as one of the outstanding coaches in the state, his teams lost but three games in that entire time, two to Iowa State, and the other a conference game to St. Ambrose.

Workman makes the second Ohio State football player to be at the helm of the Cyclone grid team. With the good football material left from last year and the eligible stars coming in from last year's freshman we are looking forward to a successful season for Iowa State College.

CAPTAIN ROLAND "BUD" COE

Iowa State left end, whose educated toe has been responsible for much of the Cyclones' success this year in keeping the ball deep in the enemy territory. The work of Captain Coe, especially in the Oklahoma Aggie game, marks him as one of the greatest punters produced at Iowa State.

In the game with the Oilers Coe outpunted Perry, their star punter, over eight yards on every kick made. The week before Perry outpunted Friedman of Michigan by a like yardage. This year is the Cyclone wingman's last for the Cardinal and Gold. Captain Coe's home is in Ames, and he is a senior in veterinary medicine.

Bud is a wingman with an affectionate disposition. He is constantly hugging some opponent and it is usually the ball carrier. Bud is particular whom he hugs.

CYCLONE STARS

WALT WEISS, Quarterback

He weighs only 134 pounds, but he can worry the opposing team. Walt Weiss of Denison, Johnnie Behm's understudy last year, has the reputation of being the smallest varsity regular in the valley, but as a quarterback and field general the Denison mid-get is in a class by himself. Weiss won the Washington game for the Cyclones by lugging the ball thru the center of the line 22 yards for a touchdown.

HARRY TOOM, Center

Another man new to followers of the Cardinal and Gold, Harry Toom of Knoxville, a reformed guard from the Simpson team of two years ago, who is now alternated at center with Ayres. Toom is a senior in electrical engineering.

HOLLIDAY SMITH, Right Tackle

Measuring six feet three inches in height, and tipping the scales at 210 pounds, Holliday Smith, new Cyclone right tackle, is giving promise of being one of the brightest lights that has shone on the Ames line in years. Smith has had one year's experience at Michigan State. In his first game as a Cyclone, altho hampered most of the time that Saturday with a broken hand, the giant tackle smeared Grinnell plays for repeated losses, and ripped holes in the Pioneer line large enough to let a truck thru.

JOHNNIE MILLER, Halfback

Knoxville contributed this 190-pound specimen to the Cyclones, and this year Elmer Kingery stands a good chance at the mythical all-valley team as a left tackle. Kingery's work at breaking thru to smear plays before they have started has been one of the highlights of the Ames defense in the first five games. The big Cyclone tackle is playing his second year for Iowa State. Kingery is a senior in the division of industrial science.

In 1922 Ole Anderson made his debut to Cyclone football fans, but he is back again at left guard, where he is playing a great game. Anderson is next to the largest man on the team, weighing in at 205 pounds. Big Ole is a Nebraskan, hailing from Osceola.

NORMAN THOMAS, Right Guard

Another veteran from last year's team, Norman Thomas of Garden Grove, right guard, whose work has been outstanding on both the offense and defense. "Tommy," besides performing the usual duties of a crack guard, does the Cyclone place kicking. Thomas is unusually fast and this year's work ranks as the best of his football career. Thomas will be lost to the Cyclones next year as he is also a senior in industrial science.

A much needed addition to this year's young Iowa State team is Bob Fisher, two letter man, who was declared eligible three weeks ago. Fisher, besides two letters in football, also sports three stripes and a star in baseball, and a letter in basketball, proving that he is an all-round athlete. Fisher plays left half along with Al Holman and Miller, and as a pass snagger is worth watching. Fisher's home is in Titonka.

"CHINK" HALL, Right Half

Besides smashing the line for consistent yardage "Chink" Hall is also a passer of more than usual accuracy. Hall is playing his second year at right half for the Cyclones. The "Chink" began his football career with the Manual Arts high school of Los Angeles, but calls Cedar Rapids his home.

A TRIBUTE TO THE SCRUB

By F. M. Reck, '25

Who gets the bruises and the bumps?
The scrub.

The blows and wrenches, jabs and thumps?
The scrub.

Who gets up-ended from the rear,
By all the players far and near?
Who gets the tongue but not the cheer?
Who stops the hole when others fail?
The scrub.

Who shouts an oath to hide a wail?
The scrub.

Who grits his teeth to check his fears
And plugs along, in spite of jeers,
To be the star of coming years?
The scrub.

THE CYCLONE SQUAD OF 1926

Upon these men, Coach Workman and his assistants have placed their hopes throughout the season even as they will continue to do so until the close of the season. All of them are anxiously doing their part to carry Iowa State through a season of football, which, with difficult competition, new team, and new coach, appeared at first to be anything but encouraging. They are hard working, hard hitting men, and they are striving and will strive to make glorious football history for Ames.

BULLDOG STARS

JEFF ROBERSON

Oklahoma gave Iowa State "Polly" Wallace, and has given the Bulldogs this husky specimen, Jeff Robertson, a crack lineman on the football team, and also a track man of more than average ability.

"CHUCK" EVERETT

Drake has had many good backfield men in years past, but none that have caused Iowa State followers, coaches and players as many sleepless nights as the slippery, versatile "Chuck" Everett, great Bulldog backfield ace.

CAPT. GAIL FRY

He's the captain of the Bulldogs, and besides is a mighty good quarterback. Gail Fry is the name of this gentleman, and he is dangerous in all departments of the game.

JOHNNIE
DUSTIN

Johnnie Dustin, Drake backfield performer, has the reputation of running rough shod over opposing linemen and would-be tacklers when given the ball. Dustin is one of the mainstays in the Drake offense.

BULLDOG STARS

Meet Ossie Solem, coach and athletic director of our rivals in Des Moines, and one of the leading gridiron strategists in the country. Solem is largely responsible for giving the Bulldogs nationwide renown.

Ewart is the name of this Bulldog lineman, and one of Ossie Solem's stand-bys.

Bill Boelter, a great Bulldog of yesteryear who is back at Drake showing the football hopefuls how it should be done. Boelter has caused Iowa State many a hectic moment in the Cyclone-Bulldog tilts of the past, and what Drake does this afternoon may be laid to a certain extent at his door.

LYLE EWART

OSSIE SOLEM
BILL BOELTER

The Bulldogs no longer have their great Ted Sloan, but they have an end in the person of "Chuck" Delmege that gives promise of being fully as dangerous a player as Sloan was at his best.

It seems that they grow them big where Drake gets its football material and Ray Dalby is no exception. Dalby is an outstanding lineman.

ALMA MATER

Words by J. C. H.

Tune, "Amici."

Stately stands our Alma Mater
On the western plain.
From her halls and to her glory
Raise we now our strain.

Chorus

Gather now and lift her praises;
Sing them loud and free.
Come, ye loyal sons and daughters
Hail to I. S. C.

II

Like the glowing red of sunset
See her banners flame.
Like the glowing stars of midnight,
Shines her glorious name.

III

When we from these halls shall wander
Far away from thee,
We shall bless thee, Alma Mater,
Dear old I. S. C.

IOWA STATE COLLEGE LOYALTY SONG

Words and Music by N. O. P.

Hail, hail the Card'nal Team,
Hail our mighty team;
Hail to our Alma Mater,
Card'nal and Gold shall reign supreme.
Fight, fight for victory,
Up against the foe,
Fight on with loyalty,
Go! Go! Cyclones go.

Chorus.

Oh, we're to you I. S. C.,
We will e'er defend thy royalty;
We will e'er endeavor, strive to win forever
I.—S.—C. Rah! Rah! Rah!
We will push the ball thru Iowa's line,
Get a score or touchdown sure this time!
All the touchdowns, drop-kicks,
Goals and touch-backs are for I. S. C.

STATE COLLEGE OF IOWA

Words by E. N. Wentworth

Tune, "Believe Me."

State College of Iowa, we give to thee
Our allegiance, the strength of our life;
We'll follow thy mandates endeavoring to be
True son when engaged in world's strife.
May the mem'ry of joys that now we must leave,
And the triumphs of Cardinal and Gold,
Make lighter life's labor and victories won
In thine honor, preceptress, be told.
Brightest star that shall ever illumine our sky,
Be our hope, be our strength and our shield;
Though oft times the dark clouds our bold courage
may try,
Alma Mater, thy sons will not yield.
Light our paths, lead us on, make clearer our way,
May thy glory nor fame ne'er decline,
Oh! Iowa's queen, thou the fairest of all,
Our hearts and our names link with thine.

I. S. C. FIELD SONG

Words and Music by J. C. H.

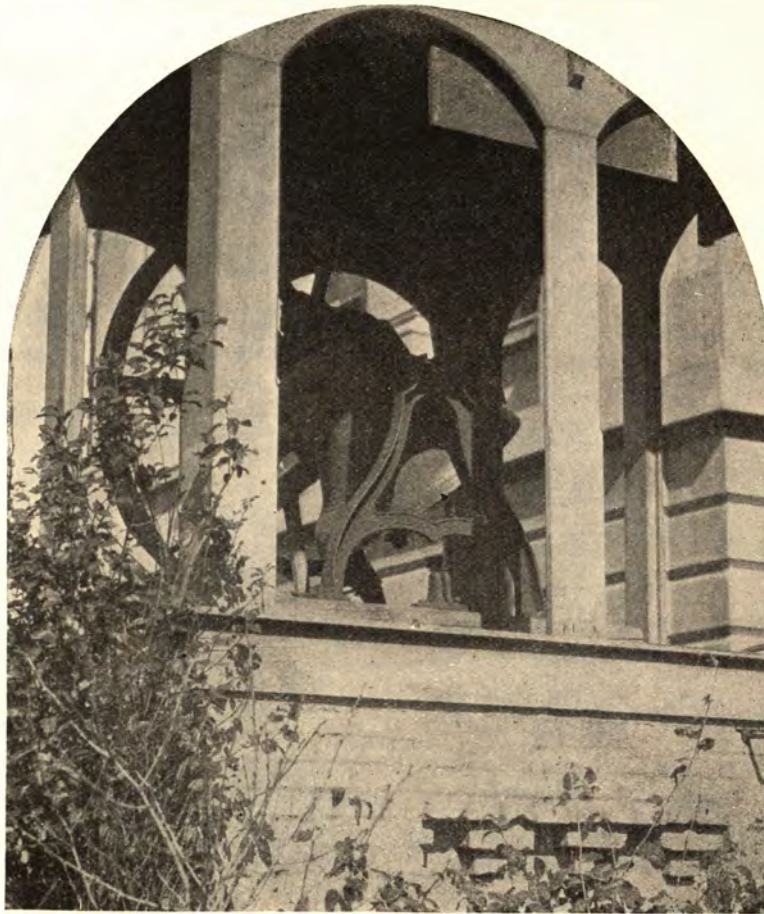

Now come ye all and drink a health
To the one we hold so dear;
O, fill your glasses to the brim,
And chink them loud and clear.
We'll lift our song with might along,
To honor Her today;
So here's to Alma Mater—
May she ever lead the way.

Chorus.

Here's to our college, Iowa State—
Long may she live, boys—her name be great;
Queen of the West, boys, give her your best, boys—
Here's to old Iowa State.

Three thousand strong we march along
On campus and State Field;
Our banners bright will lead us on—
To our foes we'll never yield.
We'll aid our teams with happy song,
To victory today—
So fight for Alma Mater,
May she ever lead the way.

The history of Iowa State College dates to an appropriation of $10,000 by the State Legislature in 1858 and the Land Grant College Act passed by Congress in 1862. Courses in both Agriculture and in Engineering were offered from the first. The first students were admitted in 1869. The period from that date to 1900 was one of expansion. In 1898 the name of the school was officially changed to Iowa State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts. At this time James Wilson, later Secretary of Agriculture under President McKinley, was head of the Department of Agriculture.

In 1871 the College of Engineering was divided into the departments of Civil and Mechanical engineering. Electrical engineering was added in 1891, Mining in 1894, Ceramic in 1906, and Architectural in 1914. The division of Industrial Science, embracing the sciences such as chemistry, biology, botany, geology, mathematics, and economics, was organized in 1898.

The school has been co-educational from the first. The majority of the women are housed in dormitories or sorority houses and plans are under way for men's dormitories next year.

The enrollment reached the 1,000 mark in 1898. It increased rapidly up to the World War and since that time has nearly doubled. Last year there were over 5,000 students registered.

The name of Cyclones was first heard describing our football team in 1895 when after defeating Northwestern University 36-0 a Chicago paper printed the head line, "Cyclone Strikes Northwestern University."

AMES-DRAKE FOOTBALL HISTORY

1898 AMES, 17; DRAKE, 16

Ames' first game with Drake yielded the score as the only data. This was at a time when there was considerable opposition to athletics in universities.

NOV. 10, 1900 DRAKE, 16; AMES, 0

Drake evened up the record and handed Ames an imposing goose egg.

NOV. 16, 1901 DRAKE, 12; AMES, 5

We bumped heads with the heavy men of Drake. A battle was evident.

NOV. 16, 1902 AMES, 0; DRAKE, 0

The field was fine for ducks. Neither team could show its speed or ability and the game resulted in a punting duel, with honors even. This was the only tie game.

NOV. 26, 1903 AMES, 16; DRAKE, 0

Ames reversed the score of her last defeat. The percentage column was even.

NOV. 24, 1904 AMES, 19; DRAKE, 0

Ames' strength began to manifest itself on the football field.

NOV. 30, 1905 AMES, 17; DRAKE, 12

By defeating Drake, Iowa State secured second place in the state championship race.

NOV. 29, 1906 AMES, 7; DRAKE, 0

This was Ames' fourth straight victory over Drake and carried a state championship with it.

NOV. 28, 1907 AMES, 13; DRAKE, 8

With another state championship on our belts, we took the Bulldogs into camp, but not without a struggle.

NOV. 26, 1908 AMES, 12; DRAKE, 6

Drake was not beaten until Ames put forth her best efforts.

NOV. 25, 1909 AMES, 0; DRAKE, 11

The journey to Des Moines had become traditional, but this game added to Drake percentage.

NOV. 24, 1910 AMES, 2; DRAKE, 0

The whole team played a great game, but we were forced to be content with a safety.

NOV. 25, 1911 AMES, 6; DRAKE, 0

The only score came in the first minute and a half of play on a recovered fumble and an end run. Ames won the state championship and tied Nebraska for the Missouri Valley.

NOV. 23, 1912 AMES, 23; DRAKE, 3

A 65-yard run through the entire Drake team by Captain Hurst added to the glory of the day. Missouri Valley champs.

NOV. 22, 1913 AMES, 26; DRAKE, 3

Iowa State had again started on a long string of victories.

NOV. 21, 1914 AMES, 52; DRAKE, 0

Playing for second place in the state and Valley races, the Cyclones swept over Drake in the greatest landslide victory in the annals of the two schools.

NOV. 25, 1915 AMES, 28; DRAKE, 14

By their defeat of Drake, the Cyclones clinched the state championship. The first half ended 7-7 and Drake led at the end of the third quarter.

NOV. 30, 1916 AMES, 33; DRAKE, 14

The Bulldogs were outclassed throughout the game.

NOV. 29, 1917 AMES, 47; DRAKE, 0

The Bulldogs didn't have anything to be thankful for after this game. Another landslide.

NOV., 1918

Old man Elements won this game. Anyway, it was a beautiful snow.

NOV. 25, 1919 AMES, 14; DRAKE, 0

The Cyclones decisively trounced the Ducklings on a snow-covered field. Drake scalps were becoming plentiful.

NOV. 5, 1921 AMES, 7; DRAKE, 0

This was a hard battle and Drake's tenth consecutive defeat.

NOV. 4, 1922 DRAKE, 14; AMES, 7

Drake broke the jinx and doubled the score.

NOV. 3, 1923 DRAKE, 21; AMES, 0

Our worst beating at the hands of Drake.

1924 AMES, 10; DRAKE, 0

The game was played on State Field.

1925 AMES, 7; DRAKE, 6

Account of this game is given elsewhere in the program.

Total games played, 25.

Games won: Ames, 19; Drake, 5; tied, 1.

PENALTIES

We believe the better you know what is going on in the game the more you will enjoy watching a game. Penalties are always confusing. Often only the officials and captains know what a certain penalty is for. We have sketched out the following to inform you. Each penalty will be numbered. When a penalty is inflicted the number of that penalty will be hung on the Score Board. Turn to list of penalties in your score book and look for that number. There are 68 different and distinct infractions or violations of the rules for which a penalty of some kind is inflicted. PLEASE UNDERSTAND VIOLATIONS OF RULES ARE RARELY INTENTIONAL. THEY USUALLY COME FROM OVER-ANXIOUSNESS, EXCITEMENT AND MOST OFTEN FROM THE HIGHLY TECHNICAL CHARACTER OF THE PRESENT GAME.

CROSS COUNTRY BETWEEN IOWA STATE AND DRAKE RUN WILL START BETWEEN HALVES

COACH "BOB" SIMPSON

CROSS COUNTRY COMPETITORS

Captain Raymond Conger, Hoak, Bonnell, Christensen, Caulum and Behrens will make up the personnel of this year's Cyclone cross country squad, according to an announcement made by Track Coach Bob Simpson.

Captain Conger, who turned in a splendid record on both indoor and outdoor track during last season, has lost none of his speed and is expected to again take a Nurmi lead in conference runs this fall.

Hoak and Christensen, two outstanding men of last year's prep squad, are displaying both endurance and speed in tryout and will prove valuable on this year's harrier team.

Bonnell and Caulum are both old running mates of Conger and followed close on his heels in many of last year's meets. They will make a strong combination which should pile up an overwhelming point total during the coming season.

Last year's cross country record was:

Iowa State 31, Minnesota 24.

Iowa State 21, Drake 34.

Missouri Valley meet: Second place.

TODAY'S BATTLE

Homecoming

LAST YEAR DRAKE AND AMES met in the Drake stadium. They played on even terms all through the game. No points were made by either team until the last quarter. The Cyclones had advanced the ball to within scoring distance of the goal the last few minutes of the third quarter. On the first play in the final period, Cory took the ball over for a touchdown. Captain Behm made the extra point from placement, which was the margin of the victory for Iowa State. The Bulldogs tried desperately to even the count by opening up with passes and succeeded in making some gains. Captain Behm was not going to allow Drake to take the offensive and the possibility of scoring so he intentionally made three safeties in succession, which gave Drake 6 points. The final score stood 7 to 6, thereby giving the Cyclones one more victory over the Bulldogs. Come and see the annual classic between the Cyclones and Bulldogs on Nov. 13, Homecoming for Iowa State College.

The history of Iowa State's present system of seating that is able to handle a 15,000 crowd satisfactorily dates back to 1913 when the present west bleachers were built. Before this time Homecoming crowds were taken care of by temporary wooden bleachers, a seating system that was extremely unsatisfactory. Partly thru subscription and partly thru notes signed by faculty members the west bleachers were built thirteen years ago to seat 5,600 people. For homecoming crowds and major games temporary bleachers were erected along the east end of the track.

The present east bleachers were completed last year in time to handle the homecoming crowd. They were financed by the issuance of a $75,000 bond, and by the sale of seat preference options that allowed the purchaser a preference on seats for a period of ten years.

The next step in the program of the athletic department will be to build the west bleachers to the ground in front, adding eight rows of choice seats near the field, and increasing the seating capacity 1,600. After this the curve at the south end completing the bowl will be made. Towers at the north end of what is now the east and west bleachers will also be made at this time. When the Iowa State stadium is completed it will have a seating capacity of 35,000.
