JAMES H. HILTON PRESIDENT

Welcome, Parents, to ISU!

I am happy to join with our athletic council, staff and students in extending a most cordial welcome to all of you on this your day—Parents Day. Really, though, a formal welcome should not be necessary for Iowa State University belongs to the people of Iowa. As your Land-Grant college, it has always been dedicated to the democratic principles of serving the needs of the citizens of the state on the basis of equality. It has always sought to offer educational opportunities which are second to none in its fields of competence.

The "Iowa State family" of which the parents are an important part continues to grow. There are approximately 9500 students on the campus this quarter. The number of young people who will want to study at Iowa State will increase rapidly in the immediate years ahead. We will do our very best to meet this new challenge. We will do our utmost to continue to provide the young people of Iowa with a high quality education.

Our best wishes for another successful Parents Day. The game between Iowa State and the University of Nebraska should prove to be a fitting climax. We hope you will enjoy your visit with us. Come back to see us as often as you can.

> James H. Hilton President

They Yell for I, for S, for U

Here they are, the screaming, acrobatic frenzy-stirring cheer leaders who do so much to generate the noise that makes you miss all those "important" public address announcements! And who cares? Football games were meant for noise and enthusiasm. Besides you can hear the scores on the radio when you get home tonight. Right now let's just concentrate on following the lead of the Cardinal and Gold Cheer Squad. As that old pro from Des Moines—Chuck Cownie—would say: "Give me an "A" only today, Chuck, we want an "I" and an "S" and a "U".

Great Attraction Slated for Cyclone Grid Fans

What football fan would like a better attraction than he can get right here on Clyde Williams Field today—The Dirty Thirty against the Hopped-Up 'Huskers!

Today's game will match the most colorful major football team in the nation against the perpetrator of the Big Eight's top upset. Iowa State and Nebraska—a real show any time and today certain to be a great one.

From coast to coast the Cyclones have become known affectionately as the Dirty Thirty following a pair of grimy victories on muddy gridirons at Drake and Denver. Students and fans alike have taken the gutty band of hard-nosed gridders as their special "pets". The "Go, Dirty Thirty" chant has become known wherever football is being played in America.

But famous as the Dirty Thirty is it has to share the spot light today with another famous unit—the Cornhuskers of Nebraska. Given absolutely no chance at all against Oklahoma last week, Nebraska did what no conference team has done in 13 years—defeated the Sooners, 25-21. And they did it the hard way, losing the lead and then fighting back to squelch the defending champions.

Both teams have much the same attitude toward the game—it is a game for men of courage, for men in top physical condition, for hard-nosed athletes. A "hard-nose" is a guy who is not afraid to stick his nose into trouble. Certainly neither the Dirty Thirty nor the Cornhuskers lack that type of courage.

Right now is a good time to pay tribute to another part of the Dirty Thirty team—the freshman squad. The yearlings have sacrificed all chance for winning football games this fall in order to help the Dirty Thirty. This is a fine squad, despite two losses to Nebraska and Missouri. It is already fired up with the spirit of the Dirty Thirty and is itching to get into the act "for real" next fall. Without the work against the freshmen the Dirty Thirty could never have had the fine season it is having.

It is no wonder that the varsity, too, is eagerly awaiting the time when this bunch of fast and husky youngsters moves up to join forces with them. That, Mr., Mrs., and Miss Cyclone fan, is going to be quite a team.

That, however, is next year—right now the assignment is Nebraska.

This is another "big" assignment for the Dirty Thirty. Nebraska is big in achievement and big in physical stature, averaging 202 in the line and 182 in the backfield for a team mean of 195. The same figures for the Cyclones are 185, 169, 179.

But big assignments have been the regular "menu" for the Dirty Thirty. So ALL of us—coaches, players, and fans—have a big job today. We know the Dirty Thirty will give 60 full minutes of action. We'd better be ready to do the same.

One Chief to Another

Only the best can lead Iowa State University. President James H. Hilton is shown here congratulating Capt. Dwight Nichols after the Cyclones had elected the two-time all-conference star as their team leader for 1959. Nichols promised Dr. Hilton that the 1959 squad would give him and Iowa State a great season. That promise is being fulfilled with great football action every Saturday.

Band, Card Section Play Hard for Cyclones, too

FRANK PIERSOL

No football game, no matter how important, how critical, would seem complete without the spine-tingling, foot-tapping music of the band. Nor would the color on the field ever seem complete without the amazing antics of the card section.

Here at Iowa State University we have been most fortunate in both fields. Today, as you watch the Pep Council direct its card section, reflect on the countless hours of preparations by this active gang of students. Color and noise—lots of both—come from your Iowa State card section.

And that band! The only way it will ever be better is for Director Frank Piersol and some of his performing faculty members to provide the entertainment. We've seen the nation's top marching bands from coast to coast and the championship still rests right here on the green turf of Clyde Williams field.

Another mention of the Pep Council ought to be made, too. This active group is winning its battle for enthusiasm for Iowa State sports. Cheer leading, Athlete of the Week Awards, hosting visiting athletes—all are a part of the responsibility of this effervescent gang of kids. They—like their card section and the band—are definitely a part of the team.

Salem's new cigarette paper discovery "air-softens" every puff

An important break-through in Salem's research laboratories now brings you an entirely new kind of cigarette paper — High Porosity paper — which breathes new freshness into the flavor.

Each puff on a Salem draws just enough fresh air in through the paper to make the smoke taste softer, fresher, more flavorful than ever. If you've enjoyed Salem's springtime freshness before, you'll be even more pleased now. Smoke refreshed—smoke Salem!
