BECAUSE driving ISN'T ALWAYS A WALK IN THE PARK.

The harshest roads aren't necessarily located out in the boonies. And they're not tamed by cowboys named Hoss and Jake. But by people named Tony and Susan on the way home from the firm. And when the road resembles craters on the moon, the Blazer Driver Control System makes the trip a lot easier and more comfortable.

Just because the road is paved doesn't mean it's smooth.

Iowa State University

Since it opened in 1869, Iowa State University has been working for the state of Iowa. As Iowa's land-grant university, Iowa State has played an important role in the educational, economic, cultural and social development of the state and the nation.

Today, Iowa State is a broad-based university of international stature. With approximately 25,000 students from all 50 states and nearly 120 other nations, Iowa State is helping Iowa and the nation open doors to international exchange, trade and development.

Iowa State has been successful in attracting a diverse student body and has expanded the number of opportunities for students to travel and learn in other countries.

Students at Iowa State can choose from among more than 200 programs of study leading to baccalaureate degrees in the colleges of Agriculture, Business, Design, Education, Engineering, Family and Consumer Sciences and Liberal Arts and Sciences. The College of Veterinary Medicine offers the Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree and graduate students can choose from among 200 fields of study leading to master's, doctor of philosophy and specialist degrees.

Students find a high quality of life when they become a part of the Iowa State University community. An award-winning lectures program, a comprehensive array of student support services and more than 400 student clubs and organizations were all reasons ISU was included in a recent national study of colleges and universities with a high quality of student life.

Both the Greek and residence hall systems at Iowa State are nationally recognized. About 2,700 students participate in fraternities and sororities, and ISU residence halls house more students than most colleges and universities. A unique "house" system, with each floor named and considered a separate entity, makes residence hall rooms seem like home.

Students who are part of the residence hall system participate in dormitory-wide and intramural events. An extensive intramural program boasts one of the highest participation rates in the country, offering such unique events as innertube water basketball, broomball and mud volleyball.

Nearby dining halls serve a wide variety of good and nutritious food, and even accept favorite recipes from home as part of a regular contest, with the winning entry becoming a part of the food service menu.

Students can exercise at the 220,000-square-foot Lied Recreation Athletic Facility. The ground floor of the three-level facility contains 20 recreational basketball courts, as well as nine racquetball courts.

The Iowa State Center, which boasts one of the nation's finest facilities of its kind, consists of C.Y. Stephens Auditorium, the J.W. Fisher Theater, the Scheman Continuing Education Center and the James H. Hilton Coliseum. Concert facilities draw some of the top names in entertainment.

The Iowa State campus is recognized as one of the most beautiful in the nation. The park-like setting of 1800 acres has more than 180 major buildings, including some beautifully restored structures from the late-1800s and early 1900s, as well as striking examples of modern architecture.

"Iowa State University offers all the advantages of a major university along with the friendliness and warmth of a residential campus. Iowa State's students are exceptional academically, diverse racially and culturally, and active socially."

Cyclones vs. Tigers

Both teams in today's matchup sport a 1-2 overall record and are coming off emotional wins last week. Iowa State defeated intrastate rival Northern Iowa, 42-23, to pick up its first win of the 1996 season and close the books on the UNI series with a victory. Missouri stepped up and defeated Clemson, 38-24, last Saturday. The Tigers were 0-2 going into the game, dropping games to Texas and Memphis. This marks the first Big 12 game in Iowa State history.

The Cyclones surged behind the power of junior tailback Troy Davis, who gained 241 rushing yards on a school-record 53 attempts in last week's win. The Miami, Fla., native, continued to break ISU records, including rushing for five touchdowns and scoring 30 points. He is currently ranked second nationally in all-purpose yards (225.7 ypg), third nationally in scoring (16 ppg) and fourth nationally in rushing (179.7 ypg).

The Davis duo, consisting of brothers Troy and Darren, has combined for 980 all-purpose yards this season. Darren, the younger Davis, ran for 15 yards on his initial punt return at Iowa to earn Cyclone Special Teams MVP. The freshman continued to excel by tallying 52 rushing yards on just two attempts last week. He returned two punts for an 8-yard average and two kickoffs for a 26-yard average.

In three games, senior quarterback Todd Doxzon has completed 39-of-63 passes for 504 yards and three TDs. During ISU's season-opener against Wyoming, Doxzon threw 17 passes for 225 yards. The Omaha, Neb., native was at his best in last year's game against Missouri, hitting on 13-of-16 passes for 154 yards and two touchdowns. He added 47 rushing yards and another TD after sitting out four weeks with an injury.

Leading all Cyclone defenders this season is redshirt freshman Dave Brcka with 35 total tackles, including 28 solo efforts. Brcka stepped up in just his second collegiate game to notch 15 total tackles and 12 solo stops at Iowa.

A pleasant addition to the 1996 Iowa State defense is junior transfer Derrik Clark. A linebacker from Waldorf Junior College, Clark has 30 tackles and three sacks for 26 yards lost this year. He led Waldorf in tackles as a freshman, en route to earning honorable mention all-region honors. The Livermore, Iowa, native, received first-team all-region status his second season as a Warrior.

Missouri sophomore Devin West led the Tigers against Clemson with 98 yards on 13 carries and one touchdown. The Moberly, Mo., native, also heads the Missouri charts this season with 220 yards on 37 attempts. Brock Olivo, an all-Big Eight honorable mention selection last season, moved into ninth place on MU's career rushing list with 41 yards against Memphis. The junior gained 74 yards last week and has 146 yards this season.

The Tigers have a solid passing duo consisting of sophomores Corby Jones and Kent Skornia. Jones, MU's first true freshman to start at quarterback since Phil Bradley in 1977, rushed for 368 yards and four touchdowns last season. He completed 17-of-34 passes in three games this year, totalling 170 yards and two TDs. Jones also has one interception.

Skornia leads the team with 187 passing yards, 21-of-38, and two touchdowns. The Washington, Mo., native had his best day at Kansas last year, completing 10-of-15 throws for 99 yards.

Senior DeMontie Cross leads the Missouri squad with 39 total tackles, including 24 solo efforts. The free safety paced MU's defense with 14 stops twice this season, including last week's win over Clemson.

Last year at Missouri, the Tigers jumped on the Cyclones early, scoring the game's first 24 points. With five seconds remaining in the first half, Doxzon connected with Cyclone receiver Ed Williams from 10 yards out to put ISU on the board. Jamie Kohl's field goal was blocked and returned for a Missouri touchdown to start the second half. Despite a strong comeback effort by the Cyclones, Missouri topped ISU, 45-31, in the 1995 season finale.

Troy Davis made history in Columbia on a 41-yard run up the middle, setting the NCAA record for most rushing yards by a sophomore (2,010). He became the fifth rusher ever to amass 2,000 yards in one season and was a finalist in the Heisman Trophy balloting.

Junior Michael Cooper finished third on the team in tackles last season and has 17 total stops this year. The Omaha, Neb., native, had a key interception in last weekend's win over Northern Iowa.

Dr. Martin C. Jischke

PRESIDENT -- IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY

Iowa State University enters its sixth year under the direction of Dr. Martin C. Jischke. Under his leadership, Iowa State is making significant progress toward its goal of becoming the nation's premier land-grant university. Major improvements have been made in Iowa State's undergraduate programs; research programs continue to expand, particularly in agriculture, science and technology; and Iowa State's Extension and technology transfer programs have been reorganized to be more efficient and responsive to the needs of the people of lowa.

Under Jischke's leadership, Iowa State has set new records in several important areas, including:

- · Enrollments of minority students, graduate students and high achieving students.
- ·External funding for research and educational programs.
- · Private fundraising.
- •Income from intellectual property.

Jischke, 54, came to ISU from the University of Missouri, Rolla, where he had served as chancellor for five years. He spent 17 years as a faculty member and administrator at the University of Oklahoma, serving as director of the School of Aerospace Mechanical and Nuclear Engineering, Dean of the College of Engineering, and, in 1985, interim president.

A native of Chicago, Jischke earned the B.S. in physics, with honors, in 1963 from the Illinois Institute of Technology, an M.S. in 1964 and his Ph.D. in 1968 in aeronautics and astronautics from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He is trained as a fluid dynamicist and has expertise in heat transfer, fluid mechanics, aerodynamics, and problems related to high-speed aircraft and spacecraft. The author or co-author of 31 archival journal publications and 21 major technical reports, Jischke is also co-editor of a book.

He served research fellowships with NASA and the Donald W. Douglas Laboratory and received research grants from the National Science Foundation, the U.S. Air Force, NASA, the National Institutes of Health, National Severe Storms Laboratory and the Nuclear Regulatory Commission. During 1975-76, he served as White House Fellow and Special Assistant to the Secretary of Transporta-

A big supporter of intercollegiate athletics, Jischke is president of the Council of Big 12 Conference Chief Executive Officers. Jischke is a member of the board of directors of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges (NASULGC) and the American Council on Education (ACE). In 1993, he received the Centennial Medallion from the American Society of Engineering Education. He is a fellow of the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics and the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

"In President Martin Jischke, we have a leader who is very supportive of the role of intercollegiate athletics-at Iowa State University and in American higher education. He has supported our efforts to build Iowa State's intercollegiate athletic program, and he has been a leader in the formation of the Big 12 Conference. Most importantly, President Jischke is a fan."

- Gene Smith, Iowa State Athletic Director

Gene Smith

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR -- IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY

Promising to make Iowa State "one of the premier athletic programs in the nation," Gene Smith began his tenure as Iowa State's 12th athletic director on July 1, 1993. He starts his fourth year at ISU having already made good on that commitment. The past president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) has left an indelible mark at Iowa State, engineering an unprecedented financial and competitive performance that has prepared the Cyclone athletic department for entry into the Big 12 Conference and the 21st century. This summer, the athletic department moved into its new home, the Jacobson Athletic Building, completing the largest athletic capital fund raising campaign in school history.

In the first three years of his tenure, Smith:

- •Led a successful $12 million drive to finance construction of a new 60,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art athletic office and training facility and installation of natural grass at Jack Trice Field. The Jacobson Building, which opened in July, allows nearly the entire athletic staff to be housed under one roof for the first time in decades.
- Oversaw a successful $900,000 project to construct new offices and meeting rooms at Hilton Coliseum for the ISU men's and women's basketball programs. Further capital improvement included the construction of a new soccer field and new press boxes at the baseball and softball fields. Iowa State played host to the NCAA Cross Country Championship on its new course, unique nationally in its design.
- •Continued implementation of his comprehensive five-year financial plan, the first such effort in department history. Incorporated into the plan are new revenue sources solicited by Smith's leadership, including corporate sponsorships, group ticket sales and fund raising initiatives. Smith created a marketing unit that annually generates $1 million in corporate commitments to lowa State athletics, which fund state-of-the-art improvements to Cyclone Stadium and address other department needs.

- •Increased academic student support that resulted in the highest student-athlete graduation rate in the Big 12 Conference. A total of 117 student-athletes earned a spot on the 1995-96 Big Eight academic honor roll. The department produced six academic All-Americans in the last school year and two Big Eight post graduate scholars.
- •Successfully worked in a cooperative effort with the university's student body to reallocate financial support for Iowa State's 20 intercollegiate athletic teams.
- •Hired two of the nation's top young basketball coaches, Tim Floyd and Bill Fennelly. Floyd coached the Cyclone men to school records of 23 and 24 wins, respectively, in his first two seasons, as ISU advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament both years. Fennelly's first women's team won 17 games, the most by an ISU team in 10 years.
- •Hired the energetic Dan McCarney to take over the Iowa State football program, producing a significant attendance increase as All-America running back Troy Davis was a Heisman Trophy Finalist last season.

Prior to his arrival in Ames, Smith served as athletic director at Eastern Michigan University for seven years. Under his direction, EMU made great strides in facility improvements. New football, basketball and administrative offices were built with other coaches' offices renovated at that time. Smith oversaw major renovations at Rynearson Football Stadium. The $15 million project began in 1991 with the installation of a new game field and continued through the summer of 1992.

Smith earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Notre Dame in 1977. He received three varsity football letters as a defensive end at Notre Dame, and was a member of the 1973 Associated Press national championship team.

Smith served as an assistant football coach at Notre Dame from 1977-1981, being part of the 1977 undisputed national championship squad. He went to work for two years as a marketing representative for IBM prior to joining Eastern Michigan in April 1983.

The Cleveland, Ohio, native, who was born Dec. 18, 1955, has three daughters: Nicole (18), Lindsey (14) and Summer (13).

"The planning and hard work to which we've dedicated ourselves is making a big difference. We are preparing to be a major player in the Big 12 Conference."

Dan McCarney

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH -- IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY

In just his first season as the architect chosen to rebuild the Cyclone football program, Iowa State head coach Dan McCarney extended contagious intensity that created new enthusiasm with ISU fans and players. McCarney's first season at Iowa State was one of the most memorable in school history. In his first year as Iowa State's head coach, his Cyclones put themselves on the national football map by:

- •Breaking a slew of school offensive records as Heisman Trophy finalist Troy Davis received unprecedented national attention, rushing for an NCAA sophomore record 2,010 yards, while leading the nation in rushing and total yards. Iowa State, ranked ninth nationally in rushing, averaged a school record five yards per rush.
- •Ending a 13-game winless streak with a 36-21 win over Ohio University in the season-opener.
- Recording wins over UNLV and Oklahoma State.
- •Leading No. 14 Oklahoma and No. 9 Colorado in the fourth quarter before surrendering in hard-fought games.
- Generating a wave of renewed enthusiasm in Cyclone football as attendance was up 2,000 fans per game and student season-ticket sales doubled.

McCarney's staff brought a Big 12-caliber recruiting class to Ames last spring as lowa State prepared for the fall as a member of the Big 12 Conference -- the nation's premier collegiate football league. The Cyclones moved into their new home, the Richard O. Jacobson Athletic Building -- adjacent to Cyclone Stadium-Jack Trice Field this summer. The move underscores the lowa State administration's commitment to McCarney's vision for making the ISU program a blueprint for success.

Anyone who watched McCarney's rise in the coaching ranks would not be surprised by the effort of his national-caliber coaching staff. A native of Iowa City, McCarney was instrumental in rebuilding efforts that produced Big Ten titles and Rose Bowl berths at both Iowa and Wisconsin, two schools that regularly finished near the bottom of the league before his arrival.

McCarney, 43, coached at Iowa for 13 seasons (1977-89), including a decade under Hayden Fry, before becoming the defensive coordinator at Wisconsin under Barry Alvarez in 1990.

McCarney's defense was the foundation of the Wisconsin rebuilding effort. In the four seasons prior to his arrival, the Badgers had a 9-36 record and attendance was at its lowest mark since World War II.

In 1993, Wisconsin went 10-1-1, claimed its first Big Ten title in 31 years and scored a 21-16 win over UCLA in the Rose Bowl. Attendance at Wisconsin's Camp Randall Stadium was up more than 30,000 a game and sellouts of more than 77,000 were the norm.

During Wisconsin's Rose Bowl season, the Badgers ranked 19th nationally against the rush, allowing just 130.3 yards per game, the sixth-best mark in school history. The team allowed an average of 16.3 points per game, its best effort in 30 years. The Badger defense also intercepted an NCAA-best 23 passes and created 34 turnovers, including six against UCLA.

A 1975 graduate of Iowa, McCarney coached the Hawkeyes in eight consecutive bowl games, including the 1982 and 1985 Rose Bowls. A three-year letterman in the offensive line for Iowa (1972-74), he was the captain of the 1974 Hawkeye squad. McCarney has three children, Jillian, Melanie and Shane.

"Dan is respected by his players and his coaching peers, and he was highly recommended by everyone I talked to.
Our success last season affirms our conviction that he was the perfect man for the job."

HAVE A WHOPPER OF A SEASON!

- OPENING SOON - 2801 E. 13th St.

ISU Cross Country

The ISU men's and women's cross country teams are looking toward a championship season with returning standout runners who will vie for conference championships.

"Realistically, we think we'll challenge for the conference title," said head men's cross country coach Kevin Bourke.

The first-year head coach is counting on the efforts of a complete team remaining healthy. Bourke is especially excited about returning Corey Ihmels and Saul Limpirikany.

In high school, Ihmels was a national champion in cross country. "We recruited Cory out of high school, and he had the pick of the litter as far as schools are concerned," Bourke said. "He wanted a school where runners continued to run after they graduate, and he also wanted a good track team."

Ihmels came to the right place and fit in with a list of storied runners in Cyclone history. He was a member of the national championship team that captured the conference and NCAA titles in 1994.

Ihmels' sixth-place finish in 1994 was just the beginning of his illustrious running career at ISU. In the 1993-94 season, Ihmels won the U.S. Junior Cross Country Championship and earned All-America honors, placing 23rd at the NCAA Championship. He was honored as the Big Eight Conference Cross Country Newcomer of the Year.

"He's a four-minute miler and a six-time All-American in cross country and track and field," Bourke said. "With this being his senior year, he has some lofty goals, and it won't be easy with the creation of the Big 12."

The Cyclones will be looking at Nebraska and Colorado to challenge them for the conference title, Bourke said.

"We cannot win without staying healthy," Bourke said. "I would rather be undertrained and healthy than overtrained and hurt."

Last season, a very promising runner suffered an injury that cut his season short. Limpirikany did not compete in track and field because of a stress fracture. "He battled injuries all season," Bourke said. "Saul has a lot of potential."

Bourke said he believes Limpirikany will battle for the top spot at the Big 12 Championship. "I really expect Saul, along with Corey, to challenge for the Big 12 title," he said.

Contending for the Big 12 title is also a goal of the women's cross country team. Head coach Dick Lee said his squad has the opportunity to be one of the top two teams in the conference.

Two of the top performers returning from last season are Jana Peterson and Sydney Pounds. A Gilbert, Iowa, native, Pounds was the top finisher for the Cyclones at the NCAA Championship last season. She was third overall in the Big Eight meet and fifth at the NCAA Region V meet.

In the spring, Pounds ran 17:43.15 in the 5,000-meter race. The next day, she came back with a 10:11.26 clocking in the 3,000-meter run, which was a 10-second improvement from her previous best performance.

"We're looking for consistency," Lee said. "One of our goals is to give Colorado a run for its money."

If it is a run ISU wants to give the Buffaloes, then the Cyclones will look to sophomore sensation Jana Peterson. One of the top freshmen in the Big Eight Conference last season, Peterson was a part of ISU's conference runner-up team. She finished third in a field of more than 80 runners at the NCCA Region V Championship, propelling the Cyclones to a second-place finish that qualified them for the NCAA Championship.

The women's team opened the 1996 season with a victory at the UNI Open, including a solid performance from Pounds. She led five Cyclones who placed among the field's top 10 finishers, covering the 5,000-meter course in 18:05. ISU totalled 32 points, followed by Drake (38) and Northern Iowa (55).

Making its season debut, the ISU men's team will join the women at the Minnesota Invitational today at 11 a.m.

Senior Sydney Pounds is one of the top returners on the 1996 Iowa State women's cross country team. She finished third overall in the Big Eight meet and fifth in the NCAA Region V meet last season, qualifying for the NCAA Championship.

Are you eligible for Laser Vision Correction?

The next generation of eye care is here, and Wolfe Clinic is at the forefront of the new technology. If you are near-sighted and have healthy eyes with no other existing eye disorders, you may be eligible for Laser Vision Correction – a computer-controlled, excimer laser procedure known as photo-refractive keratectomy or PRK.

Wolfe Clinic physicians performed the first excimer laser procedure in the state of Iowa in October 1994, and Wolfe Clinic is Iowa's first center for Laser Vision Correction. This procedure has been performed more than 200,000 times worldwide and has helped many people become less dependent on glasses or contact lenses.

Now Wolfe Clinic invites you to participate in a study to prove the effectiveness of the excimer laser in correcting near-sightedness.

Call today, 1-800-237-5393, for a free consultation at any of the Wolfe Clinic offices listed below. Find out if you are eligible for Laser Vision Correction.

Wolfe Clinic offices are located in the following cities throughout lowa:

MARSHALLTOWN • CEDAR RAPIDS
CEDAR FALLS/WATERLOO • WEST DES MOINES • FORT DODGE

-- Erb and Marge Hunziker--

Marge and Erb Hunziker are co-recipients of Cy's Favorite Alum this year. They have been long-time supporters of lowa State University and Cyclone athletics.

Since 1955, the Iowa State University Department of Intercollegiate Athletics has annually honored an alum on Homecoming whose accomplishments and loyalty have earned him or her special distinction. This year's co-recipients of the Cy's Favorite Alum award are Erb and Marge Hunziker of Ames.

The Hunzikers were instrumental in the construction of the new Jacobson Athletic Building, contributing $400,000 toward the project. To recognize their generosity, as well as their long-time support of Iowa State University and Cyclone athletics, the Erben and Margaret Hunziker Auditorium was dedicated in their names. Located on the second floor of the Jacobson Athletic Building, the auditorium features a retractable skylight and spectacular stage door opening onto the atrium with a view of the football field in the distance.

"I think the Jacobson Athletic Building is quite striking and we are very happy with it," Erb said. "A building like this will have a dramatic impact on recruits."

The Hunzikers have been loyal Iowa State fans for many years. "We've gone to football and basketball games since before we were married," Marge said. "We don't miss many."

Scouting Report

THE SERIES: Missouri owns a 51-29-9 advantage over lowa State, including a current three-game winning streak. The last Cyclone victory was in 1992 in Ames, capping off a five-game ISU win streak. When the Tigers and Cyclones last met, Nov. 18, 1995, MU claimed the 45-31 win after scoring the game's first 24 points. With five seconds remaining before intermission, ISU quarterback Todd Doxzon connected with Ed Williams from 10 yards out. But the Cyclones could not keep the momentum, as Jamie Kohl's field goal was blocked and returned for a Missouri touchdown to begin the second half.

OFFENSIVELY: The Missouri offense is powered by the quarterbacking duo of sophomores Corby Jones and Kent Skornia. Jones completed 8-of-12 passes for 88 yards in last week's win over Clemson. He has 170 yards in three games this season (17-of-34) with one interception. Skornia leads MU with 187 yards, going 21-of-38. Tailback Devin West has tallied 220 yards on 37 carries this year to lead all MU rushers. He paceed the Tiger offense against Clemson with 98 yards on 13 attempts. An honorable mention all-Big Eight selection in 1995, Brock Olivo is second on Missouri's rushing chart with 146 yards on 33 attempts. The junior gained 74 yards last week, averaging 6.2 yards per carry. Olivo also has four receptions for 10 yards this year. Heading MU's receivers is senior Rahsetnu Jenkins. He is averaging 10.7 yards per catch and has 139 reception yards. Jenkins ranks sixth in the Big 12 Conference with 4.33 catches per game.

DEFENSIVELY: Senior free safety DeMontie Cross leads the Tiger defenders with 39 total tackles, including 24 solo efforts this season. The 1995 second-team all-Big Eight selection has forced two fumbles and is credited with two passes broken up. He tallied 145 tackles last season, the third-best effort in Missouri history. Darryl Chatman has 21 unassisted tackles and 28 total stops this season, along with two tackles for a loss. Chatman totalled 12 stops in MU's win over Clemson last week. The inside linebacker started the first nine games of the 1995 campaign before a shoulder injury cut his season short. An honorable mention all-Big Eight pick in 1995, Joe Love was second on the team with 119 tackles last season. He is continuing to stop the rush, compiling 27 total stops this year. He notched a team-high 16 tackles against Memphis. Sophomore Caldrinoff Easter has 27 tackles, including 13 solo efforts in three games this season. Easter played in every game as a true freshman last year.

SPECIAL TEAMS: Sharing punting duties this season are sophomore Jason Smith and Ireshman Vince Sebo. A Spring, Texas, native, Sebo averages 44.9 yards on seven punts, with his longest of 56 yards. Smith has punted live times, tallying 142 yards. Last season, he set a school record, punting 79 times for a 36.5 yard average. Placekicker Mark Norris is a perfect 3-for-3 in field goals, with a long of 46 yards. He is 7-of-8 in PATs and is the team's leading scorer with 16 points. Sophomore Randy Potter has two punt returns for an average of 5.5 yards this season. Kenyetta Williams handles most kickoff duties, tallying 116 yards on six returns.

THE COACH: Head coach Larry Smith is in his third season at Missouri. He became the Tigers' 30th head coach on Dec. 15, 1993, and has compiled a record of 7-18-1, including two victories over Iowa State. With 17 years as a head coach in NCAA Division I before coaching at MU, Smith was the most experienced coach ever hired by a Big Eight Conference school. A native of Van Wert, Ohio, Smith has a 20-year career record of 117-98-7 and has coached at Tulane (1976-79), Arizona (1980-86) and Southern California (1987-92). Before beginning his head coaching career, the Bowling Green graduate served as an assistant at Miami (Ohio), Michigan and Arizona.

It's Tough To Keep Up With Our Residents.

But We're Trying.

NEW TOWN HOMES NOW UNDER CONSTRUCTION.

eeping up with the dynamic people who live at Green Hills is a challenge. They travel, volunteer, entertain and climb aboard our bus to cheer on the Cyclones at every opportunity. They rave about the staff, the food and the family feeling of Green Hills. And, they invite their friends to visit, many of whom decide to make Green Hills their home too. That's why we're expanding. Construction is now in full swing for the Green Hills town home expansion.

These lovely homes are designed to enhance life with comfort and convenience. The bright, spacious town homes have cathedral ceilings, full basements, attached garages and sunny patios or comfortable sun rooms. And, as a Green Hills resident, you'll enjoy all the benefits of equity ownership without the hassle of home upkeep, lawn care or snow removal. You'll also be assured of health care if and when you need it, whether it's help in your home or guaranteed access to our on-site health care center.

Green Hills also represents an excellent value with expert management by Life Care Services Corporation, and the equity ownership arrangement.

We welcome you to come by for a no-obligation tour of Green Hills. But come soon, more than half of the available sites are now sold. Call Elin Herrman at 515-296-5000 or 1-800-336-8883 to arrange an appointment or send in the coupon.
