

PRODRAM OF EVENTS

Wednesday, March 20 to Saturday, March 23

African Students Association
Iowa State University

Africa Week is held annually to exhibit, and celebrate with the Ames/ISU community, long-held African culture through dance, clothing, arts and crafts, and food. This year, Africa Week focuses on the state of the geo-political and economic structure in Africa in the face of strengthened economic and political unions in the world today.

There are about 200 African students, faculty and staff on the ISU campus from over 40 countries. The Africa Week '91 organizing committee of the African Students Association welcomes you to all our events as outlined in this brochure.

AFRICA WEEK '91 Organizing Committee.

Chairperson: Henry Mloza-Banda (Malawi)

Committee Members:

Ruth Otima (Kenya) Oreoluwa Sofekun (Nigeria) George Kegode (Kenya) Oladele Gazal (Nigeria) Kebba Manka (Gambia) Esi Erbynn (Ghana) Jake Obeng (Ghana) Bonaventure Phiri (Zambia) Musa Dube (Swaziland) Ibrahim Yansaneh (Sierra Leone) Alkhalil Adoum (Chad) Joshua Mutungi (Kenya) Sidi Tandia (Mauritania) Charles Lufumpa (Zambia) Sidiga Washi (Sudan) Abdoulaye Adam (Niger) Abram Morodi (South Africa) Pierre Kordylas (Cameroon) Tangie Jones (USA)

Advisor: Dr. Niyo (Uganda)

Organized in Cooperation with:

International Resource Center
Memorial Union and Student union Board
College of Family and Consumer Sciences
United Nations Economic Commission for Africa

Program

Wednesday, March 20, 1991 Seminar

8:00 p.m. - 9:30 p.m.

Topic: African Development and the Changing Political and Economic World Order.

Guest Speaker: Dr. Stephen Adei,

Chief, Programme Management Unit, Regional Bureau for Africa, UNDP.

Free Admission.

Thursday, March 21, 1991

7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

Panel Discussion

Topic: Brain, Brawn and Bullets: Africa at the Crossroads. Panelists: Bette Mayes-Whittington (USA)

Sidi Tandia (Mauritania)

Sidi Tandia (Mauritania Chudi Okafor (Nigeria)

Moderator: Oladele Gazal (Nigeria)

The Discussion will be open to audience participation and will focus on socio-economic and political issues in Africa.

Free Admission.

Friday, March 22, 1991.

11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Cultural Exhibits

African Art, Photographs, Posters and Artifacts will be on display.

Free Admission.

7:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.

An African Affair

The evening will kick off with an African Fashion Show and continue with performances of Cultural Dances from a cross-section of African countries.

Free Admission

Saturday, March 23, 1991

2:00 p.m. - 4.00 p.m.

Soccer Match

Africa 'All Stars' vs. ISU Soccer Club.

Free Admission

7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

A Taste of Africa

rica Campanile Room, Memorial Union

An awards dinner featuring a variety of African dishes. Awards will be presented to persons recognized as making significant contributions to AFSA and African students at ISU. Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

Admission Fee: $8.50.*

Dress Code: Formal or Traditional African Attire

*For Ticket information, please call: Dele at 294-4619, or Henry at 294-9629/3737.

Tickets will also be sold (if not sold-out) at: Memorial Union booth, opposite Commons on March 19 and 20, from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Gallery, Memorial Union

MacKay Auditorium

Memorial Union

Oak Room,

MacKay Auditorium

Towers East Field

Sponsored by African Students Association Funded by G. S. B.

Other Sponsors and Collaborative Support:

Center for Agriculture and Rural Development

Contemporary Concerts Committee

International Students Council

Office of International Affairs

Iowa State University News

Black Student Government

Minority Students Affairs

Media Resources Center

Economics Department

Committee on Lectures

Agronomy Department

Sociology Department

Ames Daily Tribune

Grubstake Barbeque

Maintenance Shop

Wednesday Update

Graduate College

Ames Advertiser

Battles Bar-B-Q

Fred's Shop

ISU Daily

The Brick Shirthouse

Office of International Educational Services