

OC-12 misc
22/3

Symposium on the American Indian
in the University

April 28, 1973
Iowa State University
Ames, Iowa

April 28, 1973
Sun Room, Memorial Union

April 28, 1973

Sun Room, Memorial Union

Registration

Opening Remarks

Richard Lundy, president of the United Native American Student Association, Iowa State University

Indian Studies

David Gradwohl, Anthropology, Iowa State University

Jack W. Marken, English, South Dakota State University

Mary Meixner, Applied Art, Iowa State University

William Ringle, Anthropology, Iowa State University

Ted Solomon, Philosophy, Iowa State University

James Whitaker, History, Iowa State University

Break

The American Indian and the Media

Daniel Perkins, Speech, Iowa State University
Robert F. Sayre, English, University of Iowa
James W. Schwartz, Journalism, Iowa State University

Lunch

Education and Counseling

W. Roger Buffalohead, Indian Studies,
University of Minnesota

Vern Hawkins, Admissions Office, Iowa State University

Virginia Sneve, author and former teacher,
Flandreau Indian School, Flandreau, South
Dakota

Don Wanatee, Former Coordinator of the Coalition of Indian-controlled School
Boards, Mesquakie Settlement, Iowa

Break

Closing Address

W. Roger Buffalohead, chairman of the Department of American Indian Studies, University of Minnesota

Sponsored by the Subcommittee on American Indian Studies and the United Native
American Student Association

All events in the Sun Room, Memorial Union,
Iowa State University

For additional information contact:

Gretchen Bataille
Department of English
Iowa State University
Ames, Iowa 50010
515-294-6436

[illegible]

Books and newspapers will be on display throughout the day.

[illegible]

Monday, April 30, 1973—White Roots of Peace, a North American Indian communications group, will be on campus all day. Contact the University Lectures Committee for more information on this event.