

A freshly killed Pintailed Duck which had been killed and partly devoured by a Duck Hawk.
This duck was no doubt brought to earth while in flight over the pond on the shores of which we found it and where the Duck Hawk was busy eating it.

Another tragedy in the bird world.

Pintail Duck killed and partly eaten by a Duck Hawk at Long
Pond
