Presentations

President Martin Jischke

ISU is a land grant University, with many leadership opportunities and research on real problems. If there is disagreement on some thing should not stop us from looking forward on other things. Everyone is entitled for their own opinion. Would like to answer questions in the interest of free speech. McGriff: Have you spoken with Dr. Rollins about the Catt Hall issue? President Jischke: feel they are capable of speaking for themselves. Student Body President Gold: What is your position on tuition increase? President Jischke: 3.9% the money will be used to improve education, faculty focus on instruction. McGriff: in view of the September 29 Movement, does it matter that Catt Hall is like a burning cross? President Jischke: understand the point of view, it is an accomplishment that deserves credit, not only on Catt but on women in general, respect the argument but we have come to different conclusions in the reading of Catt. This may be a disagreement that is not resolvable, but prepared to live with that. Grillot: do you support the 3.9% increase? President Jischke: it is a bit above inflation. The money will be used to better the university.

Jane Cox

Read select texts of Catt and explained their context. Handed out a packet from Woman Suffrage by Federal Constitutional Amendment 1917. Many of Catt's remarks that have surfaced have been taken out of this text. Urges all to read chapter 6 out of this handout, it includes the statement on the back of September 29th Movements t-shirts. Knowledge should give guide to your actions. Use knowledge instead of emotions and fear.

Student Forum

Comments and Announcements

Haynes: underhanded actions by Senators, ploy and purpose, undermining. Deny opportunity to respond by sneaking announcements. Should call a special forum or this will get ugly. Cantrell-Avloes: should respect fellow Senators/unethical for a group to think they can undermine that. Manipulation is amazing. McGriff: the very senators that introduced the bill were left out. Obrecht: VEISHA application available. Hamilton: this was not planned a week ago, President of the University should have been treated with respect. Morris: truly sorry, was not intent to hurt other senators feelings. President Gold: the issue is that people need to respect each other, these are elected officials. Blackburn: 2/3 of Senators said they were in favor of the bill, did not have anybody asking questions, now that the money has been given people have questions. GSB Advisor Terri Houston: This is moving beyond control. People Personally attacked. It is your job as students to attack your President. Should have consulted prior to the vote. Very inconsistent behavior. There is seven days of serious obligation. Your behavior is being watched. Learn from this for the future, don't let this happen again.
