The Advisory Committee on the Naming of Buildings and Streets met on December 14, 1989.

The committee at this meeting voted to recommend to you that the building currently designated as Old Botany be named in honor of Carrie Chapman Catt.

The precise motion is as follows:

"That to honor Carrie Chapman Catt, Old Botany be named after her once the building is renovated, and if it is not renovated, an alternate building be so designated."

I will send you a copy of the minutes for your files at a later date.
